

Many See Local Water Skiers Perform at Hat Rock Monday

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—Among the many activities which residents of the lone community enjoyed during the Labor Day week-end, was the Water Pageant on the Columbia River at Hat Rock on Monday. The local Circle E Trampoline and Ski club were featured performers.

The team, made up of Frank Mark and Joe Halvorsen and Tom Heimburger, performed in their usual skillful ways. It is marvelous the way these boys coordinate to perform the daring feats on water skis.

Among the many Ionians on hand to see them were Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and girls;

Hint of Christmas Comes to Irrigon
IRRIGON—If the Irrigon post office is an indication, the post office department's campaign to "Mail Christmas Parcels Early" is yielding dividends. Last week a pickup load of large boxes mailed from Japan and bearing the notation, "Do Not Open 'Till Christmas," arrived for the Lee LeBlancs.

Mrs. LeBlanc's daughter, SP/5 Ethel M. Hovinghoff, stationed in the Hawaiian Islands, used her 30-day leave to tour Japan before returning to the states, and decided to do her Christmas shopping early this year.

Although the LeBlancs admit to their curiosity, they don't dare cheat on Santa Claus, as Miss Hovinghoff will be here to spend the Christmas holidays with them. To help tide her folks over until Christmas, Miss Hovinghoff also sent anniversary gifts to the LeBlancs and her sister, Mrs. Joe Albright.

Mrs. LeBlanc states she is going to display her gift, a 3x5 foot picture beautifully hand-painted on velvet, on the wall of her cafe dining room.
