Sandra Jones and Jon Blake United In Ceremony At Christian Church

Sandra Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, and Jon Blake, Seattle, Wn., son of Keithley Blake and Mrs. Charles Cooper, Aurora, were united in marriage in an afternoon ceremony September 1 at the First Christian church in Heppner. Miss Loma Mae Jones, aunt of the bride, performed the double ring rites assisted by Rev. Charles Knox.

Escorted down the aisle by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white floor length gown of Acetate Peau de Sole with a wing skirt appliqued with lace matching the Chantilly-type lace bodice with scalloped sabrina neckline and nylon lined lace full-length sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a tiara of pearls. She carried her white Rainbow for Girls Bible with a white orchid. Matron of honor was Mrs. Gary Jones, sister-in-law of the bride, and she wore a yellow brocade sheath carrying a green parasol filled with green spider mums. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Harrison, Lexington, and Mrs. Don Hevener. They wore identical mint green brocade sheath dresses carrying yellow parasols filled with green spider mums.

Best man was Gary Jones, brother of the bride. Ushers were Robert Harrison and Don Hevener.

Candlelighters were Judy Jones, cousin of the bride, wearing a white dress, with green trim, and Ray Jones, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Charles Knox was organist and accompanied Oliver Cres-

I TALKED with Mildred Wright about her recent trip to Alaska and way points. She was quite enthusiastic about it and really enjoyed traveling by car to see the sights. Said they had little car trouble, just one flat tire when they picked up a nail in 7,000 miles! She said traveling the Alaskan Highway is no different than others as far as having service stations and motels and cafes along the way. It is really booming, catering to the tourist trade. They took many colored slides which are sure to show off the interesting notes.

WELL, I can tell it is fall, as the clubs and organizations start their meetings and gatherings. Don't forget the extension unit meetings in your area which meet once a month for some interesting lessons. The various lodges are meeting once or twice a month, check the calendar.

ELKS LADIES Night got going Thursday night at the lodge rooms with eight tables in play. Fay Ferguson won high in bridge with Elaine George winning low. Jeanne Dobbs took high in the pinochle group and the low went to Dora Sue Vial. Maureen Devin won the door prize. Hostesses for the evening were Helen Schaffitz, Dee Gribble, Happy Graham, and Hazel Mahoney.

DORIS WATKINS entertained the Friday afternoon pinochle club and walked off with all the prizes, too! She won high wick who sang, "Because," and "The Wedding Prayer."

White gladioli and white candles were used in the church. The reception followed immediately in the church social rooms with Mrs. Theta Stratton in charge of the kitchen. An arrangement of white gladioli and green chrysanthemums was used on the serving table with white candles in the candelabrum and using white stock and spirea background.

After the young couple cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. Keithley Blake and Mrs. Floyd Jones continued serving the beautiful 3-tiered white cake which was trimmed with yellow flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Pouring were Mrs. Oliver Creswick, and Mrs. Everett Keithley, Condon. Judy Stevens kept the guest book, Marda Graybeal, Toppensish, Wn., cousin of the bride, and Marcia Jones, cousin of the bride, had charge of the gift tables.

After a short wedding trip to the coast the newlyweds are at home in Renton, Wn., where the groom is employed by Boeing Airplane Co.

The bride graduated from Heppner High school in 1961 and attended Eastern Oregon College for one year. The groom graduated from Heppner High school in 1957 and attended a drafting school in Portland before going to work for Boeing.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. Charles Cooper, Aurora, mother of the groom; Mrs. Betty Belle Arcuri, Portland, sister of the groom, and children; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Blake, Portland, aunt and uncle of the groom; Mrs. Ted Johnson and Mrs. Neil Neilson and two daughters, Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graybeal and Marda, Toppensish, Wn., aunt and uncle of the bride; Doris Morris, Pendleton; Carolyn Helfred, Pendleton; Judy Youngman, Pendleton; Jan Grenier, Milwaukie, all classmates of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley, Condon.

Recent houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Emry of Vancouver, Wn., and Mrs. Ralph Mast and children Steven, Diane and Suzanne of Seattle.

Visiting recently at the home of Mrs. Millie Doolittle were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doolittle and two sons of Portland. They were here for the Saturday rodeo festivities. From last Wednesday until Sunday her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Parrott and two daughters, also of Portland, were houseguests.
