Funeral Services Held for R. M. Clark

Funeral services were held Friday at All Saints' Episcopal church for Robert M. Clark who died September 2 at Newport.

Mrs. Floyd Adams, daughter of Mr. Clark, of Lake Oswego was here for the services. She had left Heppner three years ago after coming to this area in 1920, and her father had made his home with her part time in later years. Mrs. Adams formerly taught school at Hardman.

Mr. Clark died suddenly, rather than from a lingering illness as was reported last week. He was 86 years of age and was born in Sunderland, England, in 1876, coming to the United States 60 years ago.

He lived in Portland for some time and was engaged in shipping there. Mr. Clark was married February 12, 1897, to Clara Poulton in Canada, and she preceded him in death in 1946. He received his citizenship papers in 1906. He was a member of the Elks lodge.

Besides the daughter, he is survived by a son, Robert M. Clark, Jr., also of Lake Oswego; seven granddaughters, Mrs. Clara Roscoe, Grand Junction, Colo.; Mrs. Betty Schaffeld, Ontario, Calif.; Mrs. Nancy Malone, Palo Alto, Calif.; Mrs. Judy Love, Lake Oswego; Miss Toby Clark, Miss Lorraine Clark and Miss Peggy Clark, all living at home in Lake Oswego; and 11 great grandchildren.

Father C. Bruce Spencer officiated at the services here and interment was in Heppner Masonic cemetery. Creswick Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

2 Girls to Attend OSU on Scholarships

Sandra Harshman and Mary Nora Shannon, both of Heppner, have been awarded partial-tuition scholarships for the coming school year at Oregon State university.

They were among those selected for state scholarships, given to help top Oregon students in their university studies and administered by the State Scholarship Committee. The study grants pay $66 a quarter, two-thirds of the term's tuition and fees.

Miss Harshman and Miss Shannon will be freshmen at OSU this fall.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Litchfield, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schoonover and four children, Medford, visited for several days recently at the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gunderson, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Urlacker, Tacoma, Wn., were guests of Mrs. Evelyn Farrens and visited other relatives during the past two weeks.

Friends Are Bearers At Anderson Service

At funeral services for Benjamin Otto Anderson, 76, who died September 1 at the Pioneer Memorial hospital, several life-long friends served as active pall bearers for the committal services. Services were held September 3 at the First Christian church, with the Rev. Kenneth Robinson of the Lutheran church officiating, with interment in the Heppner Masonic cemetery.

Those assisting as active bearers were Raymond Lundell, Barton Clark, Elmer Palmer, Herman Parker, Myron Rill and Don Anderson.

Serving as honorary bearers were Walter Beckett, Charles Beckett, Cecil Lutkins, Leonard Rill, Cecil Rill and Oscar Peterson.

Making a special trip west by plane for the service was Dr. Norton Johnson of Cincinnati, Ohio. Another out-of-town visitor was Mrs. Frank E. Parker, former resident here who now makes her home in Walla Walla, Wn.

Jaycees to Sponsor Title Fight Telecast

Pendleton Junior Chamber of Commerce, together with the Pendleton Community Television System and TelePrompster Corp., will sponsor the Floyd Patterson-Sonny Liston heavyweight title fight telecast in Pendleton on Tuesday, September 25, Jaycee President Harold Parker announces.

Pendleton and Pasco will be the only two cities within 200-mile radius to have the fight on TV. It will be brought by direct wire from ringside at Chicago and will not be nationally televised.

The program will be carried on the television sets of all the city of Pendleton which includes homes and business establishments.

"The Pendleton Jaycees have necessarily been called on to expend approximately $3500 in order to secure the contract rights for this fight and advertise it throughout the surrounding areas. We do hope that all those persons who will be coming to Pendleton to watch the fight will make a donation to the Jaycees so that we may be able to pay for the expenses incurred and bring other fights as they are available," Parker said.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright returned last Thursday from a three weeks trip through Idaho north into Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and then on the Alaskan Highway to Fairbanks, Alaska. They then journeyed to Anchorage and back to Seattle to see the World's Fair before coming home.

The Glenn Smith family enjoyed a 3-day week-end outing over Labor Day at Trout Haven resort on the Wallowa Lake. They were joined there by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Murray, Union.
