

Soroptimist Speaker Tells of Summer Tour To Hawaiian Islands

Guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club last Thursday noon was Miss Helen Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Graham, who returned in August from a 7-week's combined summer school and travel tour in the Hawaiian Islands.

Miss Graham was one of a group of students from Oregon State University, where she is enrolled as a senior, participating in the Howard's Tour sponsored by the university. In addition to attending classes in finance at the University of Hawaii, for which she receives credit in her business administration major at OSU, she was able to take many side tours around the smaller islands as well as the main island. "The extreme casualness of students, teachers and all residents both in and out of school was most noticeable," she related.

Miss Graham wore one of the mu mu dresses which she brought home, displayed the grass skirt, the material and wrap of the sarong and displayed an attractive table centerpiece of dried pods and flowers on a coconut wood container. She was accompanied to the meeting by her mother.

An evening meeting is planned for tonight (Thursday) when members will meet at the home of Mrs. Jim Hager for a shower party honoring Miss Leta Humphreys.

On Wednesday night, September 26, the club will sponsor a public card party at the Episcopal parish hall. Both bridge and pinocle will be in play with game prizes and door prizes planned. The club sponsors many civic and youth projects through the year and benefits are used for these purposes.

High school scholarship girls will be guests of the club at the luncheon meeting next Thursday and will tell of summer camp experiences. Members are urged to be present for the meeting.

Mrs. Ben Ziegler, Estacada, visited Sunday with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sweek.

Many Enjoy Joint Dinner And Program

Some 45 persons enjoyed a potluck supper and program Wednesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall with Odd Fellows and Rebekah members in attendance.

Pat Woodward, Hermiston, 1961 winner of the Youth Pilgrimage trip to the United Nations, was the guest speaker and showed films of her trip. She was presented a gift from the Rebekahs and a pin from the Odd Fellows.

The Triple Links club, social organization of the Rebekahs, met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Edna Turner with Esther Bergstrom as co-hostess.

Ideas were discussed for means of raising funds to send the Youth Pilgrimage winners to the United Nations. Also during the meeting, plans were made to practice at the next Triple Links meeting October 15 for the state Rebekah president's official visit October 19. This practice meeting will be held in the lodge hall.

Mrs. Millie Doolittle and Mrs. Lincoln Nash were given birthday cards honoring their birthdays which were this week.

Carnation Club Plans For District Meet

Mrs. Ellen Moore and Mrs. Earl Soward were co-hostesses for the Carnation club at the home of Mrs. Pete McMurtry Thursday night.

They held a short business meeting to discuss the various plans for attending the forthcoming district meeting of the Degree of Honor to be held in Baker October 9. The local group will participate in the initiatory work and the drill team will perform.

A birthday gift drawing was held for all those having birthdays in the months of July, August, and September.

Mrs. Bill Farra, state Degree of Honor secretary, and Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, state director and national committeewoman, will attend a district meeting in Astoria on September 25. They will assist with the school of instruction during the meeting.

The next Degree meeting is September 25 at the lodge hall.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE Sunday, September 9 in Hillsboro were Miss Connie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson, Heppner, and Gary L. Linton, shown here after the impressive ceremony at the Hillsboro Methodist church.

Connie Anderson, Gary Linton Wed In Ceremony At Hillsboro Church

Connie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson of Heppner and Gary L. Linton, son of Lynn Linton, Beaverton, and Mrs. Irene Linton, Riddle, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony Sunday, September 9, in the Methodist church in Hillsboro. Dr. Gene Albertson performed the afternoon ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents and escorted down the aisle by her father, was lovely in a floor length bodice, scalloped neckline and bodice, scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A large bow and bustle graced the back of the gown, ending in a short train. Her shoulder length veil of white net was held in place by a crown of white satin roses and orange blossoms. She carried a cascade-arranged bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis. She wore a blue garter worn by her aunt, Mrs. William Owen, Seattle, at her wedding and a borrowed necklace of cultured pearl pendant.

Maid of honor was Carole Anne Anderson, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kathy Linton, Riddle, sister of the groom, and Vicki Cronin, Scappoose, college roommate of the bride. They wore matching dresses of yellow nylon organdy over gold satin, with gold satin slippers, gold velvet head bands, and white lace gloves. They carried arm baskets of natural wicker filled with orange dahlias, golden wheat and autumn leaves tied with a gold satin bow.

Ring bearer was Ricky Anderson, four-year-old brother of the bride, carrying a gold satin pillow. Candlelighters were Geoffrey and Craig Owen, Seattle, cousins of the bride.

Best man was Stacey Stillier, Gaston. Ushers were Jerry Anderson, brother of the bride, and Jim Lung, Gaston.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a white linen suit, yellow hat and bone accessories. The groom's mother wore a beige suit with pink accessories, and each had corsages of talisman roses.

Mrs. Gene Albertson, Hillsboro, was organist and accompanied Alena Brended, Silverton, who sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Oh Promise Me."

White candelabras entwined with ivy, and large baskets of gold gladioli and orange dahlias interspersed with stalks of golden wheat were used in the church decorations.

The wedding reception followed in the fireside room of the church with the ladies of the WSCS in charge and Mrs. Blanche Bush as chairman. The gold color theme was carried out with gold candles on each side of the white 4-tiered cake, which was trimmed with yellow roses.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. William Owen, Seattle, and Mrs. Calvin Yackley, both aunts of the bride, continued serving the cake. Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. John Yackley, Hillsboro, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Lendal Thomason, Port Orford, aunt of the groom. Passing out rice were Linda and Patsy Yackley, Hillsboro, both cousins of the bride. Janet Beeler, Gaston, was in charge of the gift table.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. William Owen and family, Seattle; Robert Yackley, New Ulm, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Yackley, Henry Pointer, Lexington; Mrs. Dick Ruhl and Mrs. Connie Brown, both Corvallis; Drue McGinnis, Kennewick, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Vic Kreimeyer, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hay; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rauen and family, McMinnville; and others from Gaston, Beaverton, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Port Orford, and Riddle.

After a short wedding trip to Seattle and Victoria, B. C., the young couple are at home at 182 N. College street in Monmouth. They are both students in the junior year at Oregon College of Education.

The bride graduated from Heppner High school in 1960 and the groom graduated the same year from Gaston High school.
