

Blood Drawing Surpasses Quota

(Continued from Page 1)

Gunderson, Lorraine Rico, Eddie Gunderson, Darrel Reich, Myron Huston, Glen Ward, Kathryn Robinson, Bill Crooke, Edine Stone, Barbara Cutsforth, John Bacon, Gordon Pratt, James Driscoll, Ellwynne Peck, Reese Burkentine, Clay Espy, Marie Steagall, Earlene Miller.

Denzil White, Walter Boldt, Robert Humphrey, Alvin James, Ray Skaggs, Harvey Conklin, Bernard Doherty, John Asher, Arthur Warren, Raymond Williamson, David Haddock, Helen Martin, Riley Munkers, Donald Bennett, Cecil Hicks, Troy Day, Charles Geer, Larry Whalen, Don Cole, Cecile Ott, William Scott, Robert Pointer, Fay Pierce, Jean Bennett, Francis Doherty, Marion Green, Norman Case, Odell Adams, Clinton Agee, Jerry Crafton, Doris Watkins, Otto Ruhl.

Cleburne Robbins, Mervin Leonard, Edwin Boyce, Leonard Schultz, Clifford Adams, Stacey Lovgren, Frank Cecil, Lloyd Rogers, Milo Prindle, Robert Fisher, Marvin Britt, Kenneth Norris, Marvin Wyatt, Oscar Harding, Jack Healy, Dee Jones, Clarence Wise, David Eckman, Bernard Marshall, Charles McGillott, Helen Mabe, Creston Robinson, Wallace Lamb, William Devine, George Peck, Leonard Toll, William Joseph, Bill Healy, Bill Van Winkle, June Field, Kenneth Robinson, Allen Daggett.

Clifford Christianson, Leonard Munkers, Cecelia Webb, Violet Williams, Betty Craig, Beatrice Graham, Ione Marler, Wilma Mabe, Donald Cong, Juan Zorago, Mark Jellick, O. L. Adams, Alan Mathews, Roderick Mabe, Jerry Sargent, Arden Tripp, James Miller, Pat Owens, Guy Williams, Edward Wham.

Sister Hurt in Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hartle of Heppner made a trip to Deer Lodge, Mont., over the week-end to see Mrs. Hartle's sister, Mrs. Curtis Suckow, who was seriously injured in an auto accident near there recently while on a vacation trip from her home in North Dakota. She suffered head injuries and has been in a semi-conscious state since the accident. Her condition has not appeared to be very encouraging. Mrs. Hartle states, Mrs. Suckow was expected to be released from the hospital, however, and to go to Nyssa to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Montague. The accident occurred when Mr. Suckow went to sleep at the wheel while driving at night. Mrs. Suckow and two children were asleep in the back of their Volkswagen bus. The children, protected by their blankets, were not seriously injured, but Mrs. Suckow apparently was struck in the head by a heavy tool chest when the vehicle hit loose gravel at the roadside and left the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and Jody, Bend, were here during the week-end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash.

Frank Anderson attended the Hudspeeth cattle sale in Prineville this week.

Rainbow Assembly Installs New Officers

IONE—The Ione Assembly, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, held its installation of new officers Sunday afternoon, September 16, at the Ione Masonic Hall.

Seated as new worthy advisor was Tass Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Morrison. Miss Morrison was crowned in an impressive ceremony by her sister, Merrie Jo, while Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom played the number, "Climb Every Mountain."

Installing officer was Kathy Rea, junior past worthy advisor. Assisting were Lennie Hearing of Enterprise, installing marshal; Karen Hams, installing recorder; Shannon Mahoney, installing chaplain, and Janice Baker, installing musician, both of Heppner.

Taking new officers were Sue Townsend, worthy associate advisor; Merrie Jo Morrison, Charity; Lee O'Connor, Hope; Susan Lindstrom, Faith; Cathy Hausler, drill leader; Bonnie Hynd, Love; Linda Rowell, Religion; Dixie Peck, Nature; Shirley Hicks, Immortality; Cheryl Smouse, Patriotism; Mary Nichols, service; Barbara Nichols, confidential observer; Joyce Peck, chaplain; Kathy Rea, outer observer, and Terry O'Connor, musician.

In charge of programs and guest book were Elaine Gaarsland and Karen Hams. On the advisory board are Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor; Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, Mrs. Charles O'Connor and Joe Hausler.

Theme of the installation was "Charity restores faith."

During the social hour refreshments were served from a table with a centerpiece of yellow gladioli, in keeping with the green and gold theme used for the ceremonies.

McCarl-McMillan Wedding Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCarl of Harrisburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Myrtle McCarl of Heppner, to Scott D. McMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McMillan, all of Heppner.

Date of the wedding is set for October 7.

Miss McCarl is a nurse's aide at Pioneer Memorial hospital and has lived here for the past 1½ years. She graduated from high school in Harrisburg.

McMillan is ranching at Lexington and is a graduate of Lexington high school.

Sharon Dixon Leaves For Asbury College

Sharon Dixon, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon, left Pendleton Friday by bus for Wilmore, Ky., where she is entering Asbury College as a freshman this year.

The college is located 14 miles from Lexington, Ky. Miss Dixon plans to take a course in pre-med and psychology there, and is undergoing freshman orientation this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Winter and daughter, Salem, were week-end houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abrams.

Services Today In Pendleton For R. Ledbetter

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—People in Lexington were shocked and grieved to hear of the death of Ralph Ledbetter at the home of his daughter Estelle Gardner in Pendleton on Sunday. Funeral services were to be held in that city this morning (Thursday). Bergen Ledbetter of Heppner is a brother and Johnnie Ledbetter of Lexington is a nephew. He also leaves, besides his daughter Estelle, two step-children, Mrs. Vernon Christopherson of Olex and Mel Brady of Arlington. His wife Marie preceded him in death while they were still making their home in Lexington.

Church Schedule Resumed

Many organizations are getting ready for a full winter schedule. Church services are as usual with Sunday School at 10 a. m. followed by worship service. Choir practice is each Wednesday evening at 7:30 with Earl Soward as director. A new class is starting, and will be known as the Jr-Hi class with the teacher Betty Marquardt, September 30 has been set aside as Layman's Sunday with the men taking over the entire service including the sermon and special music.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Leonard were Willamette Valley and Portland visitors lately where they visited Mr. Leonard's mother who is in the hospital in Eugene suffering from a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Marquardt and children are spending a few days in Seattle at the World's Fair.

Carroll Messenger has returned to school in Pendleton where he attends Pendleton Industrial School.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrison and son spent the week-end in Cascade Locks at the home of his parents.

Campbell Returns to Texas U.

Don Campbell who is a student at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas, returned to his school there last week after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell. Doreen and Billy Campbell of Portland also visited with the Campbells while Don was in Lexington.

The Brownie Troop has started for the winter with the first meeting held at the home of their leader, Mrs. Walter Smith last Thursday afternoon. The young ladies attending were Kelly Kilkenny, June Ledbetter, Penny and Billie June Marquardt, Sharon Nelson and Barbara McCarl. Anyone interested in going may contact Mrs. Smith.

Women's Fellowship Group met at the home of Mrs. Walter Smith on Tuesday afternoon. A report on the money earned toward linoleum for the church was given, and Mrs. Smith was authorized to buy vases and frogs for the church flower arrangements. Those present for the afternoon were Mrs. Art Kenne, Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. Trannie Parker, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Bud Fields, Mrs. William C. Van Winkle, Mrs. Cora Allyn and Mrs. Smith. Women's Fellowship meets regularly on the third Tuesday of each month.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske and Mrs. Florence McMillan were Pendleton visitors on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Leyva, Glenn Eatch and Charlene Jones of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of Charlene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jones entertained their house guests from Portland, at dinner including Keith Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Max Breeding, Lola Breeding and John Spence.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Leyva and daughter Melinda of Medford were week-end guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall.

Sp/4 Keith Peck visited his mother and family Mrs. J. Bailey in Portland on Sunday and Monday. He motored to Portland with Glenn Eatch returning by bus Monday night.

The Lexington Bridge club met for their first meeting of the fall at the home of Mrs. Oliver Creswick in Heppner. Those attending were Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Mrs. Gene Cutsforth, of Lexington, Mrs. Velma Glass, Mrs. Elsie Cole, and a guest, Mrs. C. C. Carmichael of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers were Portland visitors last week. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch are spending a few days at Seaside enjoying some fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Van Winkle motored to Eugene Saturday where they took their daughter Linda to enroll in the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson motored to Portland on Sunday where they took their daughter Beverly to enroll in Portland University for the school year.

Morris McCarl is spending a few days of his vacation at Puyallup, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, son Kenneth and Mrs. Florence McMillan were Friday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool in Pendleton. The occasion was in honor of their son Waide's birthday.

Club Outlines Activities
The Lexington Three Links club of Holly Rebekah lodge held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Armin Whilton on Thursday afternoon. Plans for falls

Mayors Attend Meet

Mayor and Mrs. Al Lamb of Heppner and Mayor and Mrs. Charles O'Connor of Ione last Thursday attended a dinner for the board of directors of Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Co. coincident with their meeting in Pendleton. The dinner was at the Pendleton Country Club, and Dale Slusher, manager of the telephone company for the Pendleton district, introduced the directors.

activities were made. There is a card party scheduled for the first Saturday of each month at the lodge hall. Scores will be kept for six months and prizes given for the highest and lowest scores of the allotted time. Prizes will be given each time also. Scheduled for the last Saturday in October is the annual turkey dinner, followed by a Bingo party and grab bag and child's table in the lower hall. Those present for this meeting were Mrs. Charlie Padberg, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Bud Fields, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mrs. Art Kenne and the hostess Mrs. Whilton. Birthdays were celebrated with beautiful individual cakes honoring Mrs. Charlie Padberg, Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth and Mrs. Earl Warner, with Mrs. Padberg present to receive her cake.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt had as houseguests last week Miss Katie Waddill, Miss Elaine Cossman and Mrs. Mabel Ryder all teachers from Oregon City. While here the young ladies attended the Westward Ho parade and the Pendleton Round-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fillmore of Long Beach, Cal., were house guests at the E. E. Peck home last week and all attended one day of the Pendleton Round-Up.

House guests at the Kenneth Klinger home where they are visiting Mrs. Klinger's mother, Mrs. Calvin, is her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. London Swafford of Wichita, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boyd, Piedmont, Calif., visited here last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hager. She is the former Rena Meadows.

Mothers To Sponsor Nov. Rummage Sale

Civic League members set the date for the annual semi-annual rummage sale November 2 and 3 at the old Central Market building. Members discussed the fall event at the meeting held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Matt Hughes.

Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth and Mrs. Elmer Berry were named co-chairmen for the sale. Other committee heads are: Posters, Mrs. Jack Ployhar and Mrs. Hughes; cleaning, Mrs. David Eckman and Mrs. Hughes; pricing, Mrs. Jack Healy and Mrs. Don Bennett; pickup, Mrs. Gene Orwick, Mrs. Ployhar, Mrs. Jim Prock, Mrs. George Stillman, and Mrs. Don McClure.

Rummage may be left at the Bank of Eastern Oregon in Heppner and Ione, or Gene's Chevron station in Lexington. Those wishing to have their items for the rummage sale picked up are asked to call Mrs. McClure (676-5800), Mrs. Stillman (676-5844), Mrs. Ployhar (676-5356), or Mrs. Prock (676-9412).

Mrs. Gene Pierce was special guest and spoke on the two types of polio immunization available and explained them to the 15 members present. The group then joined in with a question and answer period regarding the immunization.

SCHOOL MENUS Week of Sept. 24-28

MINDAY—Hamburger casserole (Mor), spinach, carrot sticks, bread and butter, cake, fruit and milk.

TUESDAY—Buttered mashed potatoes, baked ham, green vegetable, bread and butter, fruit and milk.

WEDNESDAY—Buttered string beans, meat sandwiches, rice pudding, fresh tomatoes, milk and cake.

THURSDAY—Chili beans, celery sticks, hot rolls and butter, fruit, milk.

FRIDAY—Macaroni and cheese, fruit jello salad, pickled beets, milk, bread and butter.

Mr. and Mrs. Pirl Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Cod Wise spent 10 days hunting deer in the Eagle Creek area near Baker during the archery season and returned home last week with their limit.

Municipal and Justice Court News

Pat Doherty, Ione, drunk in a public place, fined $15. James C. McGuire, drawing bank check with insufficient funds, bail of $50, forfeited. Gerald Edward Stam, failure to drive on right side of highway, fined $15. Jim Erwin Lynch, no motor vehicle license, fined $5. Oakley Ott, excessive motor noise, fined $10. Lewellyn Delano Crume, failure to drive on right side of highway, fined $15.

In Justice Court Wednesday, September 12, Anthony Gilbert Hoptowitz, Pendleton, was acquitted on the charge of illegal use of fishing appliances during closed season.

Dennis Dick, excessive speed, bail set $20. R. B. Rands, Boardman, assault and battery charged, bail $300. Frank Russell Wood, Hermiston, charged with attempted sodomy, bail $500. Myron Huston Floyd, Harrington, Wn., no P.U.C. permit, fined $20. Dick T. Meador, charged with assault and battery, bail $75, asked for jury trial to be set at later date.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hamilton, Kakasetta, Ill., stopped Saturday to visit Mrs. Max Buschke and Mrs. Carey Hastings. Mrs. Hamilton is the former Iris Musgrave of Hardman. They were on their way home from the World's Fair and the Round-up.

Al Lamb will be in Salem Sunday to attend the meeting of the board of directors of the Oregon-Washington Farmers Union and on Monday will go to Portland to attend an evening meeting of the directors of the Oregon Co-op Council. He is a director in both organizations.

HOSPITAL

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital this week are: Merle Doane, La Grande; Merlyn Robinson, Heppner; Hazel Elliott, Kinzua; Zane Draper, Heppner; and Dan Kelly Marshall, Heppner.

Those dismissed for this same period were: Alfred Drake, Heppner; Arthur Dalzell, Ione; Newt O'Hara, Lexington; Vicky Barber, Heppner; Rodger Holloman, Kinzua; and William Walker, Condon.

Tires - Tires - Tires

Buy Now and Save on Recaps

7.50x14 Recap $12.39

8.00x14 Recap $13.73

7.60x15 Recap $13.84

7.10x15 Recap $12.25

6.00x13 Recap $10.87

(All Prices Plus Casing)

Prices Good

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY

Heppner Ford

Heppner

Ph. 676-9152

ANNOUNCING

The LIVELIEST,
Most CAREFREE
CARS

Of The Year
With Emphasis On...

GLAMOR --- GO --- QUALITY

The 1963 FORD Line

Showing Sept. 28

FREE
COFFEE AND DOUGHNUTS

FREE
FAVORS
FOR EVERYONE

HEPPNER FORD

124 N. MAIN

HEPPNER

PH. 676-9152

MJB COFFEE

Drip and Reg.

1 LB. 59¢

2 Lb. Reg. $1.18 4 Lb. Reg. $2.32

INSTANT MJB 10¢ OFF

HUNGRY JACK BUTTERMILK
PANCAKE MIX, 2 Lb., 2 Pkgs. 79¢

King Size MR. CLEAN 99¢

LAUNDRY SIZE
PAIRS of DASH EA. $4.69

HAMBURGER 3 LB. $1.29

PORK CHOPS LB. 69¢

WHOLE OR HALF
HAM ---- lb. 59¢

ECONOMY

PHONES:

676-9922

OR

676-9943

TOM AND MILLIE'S HOME-OWNED MARKET

FREE DELIVERY