AH, THE last week of September and all thoughts turn to the opening of deer season. Anyway that holds true for our family, and already I have been chasing deer over the hilltops in my sleep! Enough day dreaming and back to the social whirl.

PEARL WRIGHT entertained the Friday afternoon pinochle club at her home and walked off with the high for the afternoon. Carrie Becket and Beulah Man-kin won the traveling pinochle with Hannah Anderson taking low. Others enjoying lunch and the play were Janina Johnson, Millie Evans, Doris Watkins, Gladys Beckett.

IN TALKING, to Rita Wolff about her recent trip east, she exclaimed about the beautiful sights seen from the plane as they were flying. She said the fields show up brilliantly and the mountains in Wisconsin were of many different colors as the leaves are turning. I always imagined that being so high you couldn't view anything, but not so.

ANN BURKENBINE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Burkenbine, celebrated her eighth birthday with a party Saturday afternoon given by her sister Lynn and assisted by Sara Miller. The guests played games, listened to records, and "just loved" the pink ice cream and two cakes, one made in the shape of a penguin and the other as a butterfly. Both were made by Lynn.

JUANITA CARMICHAEL entertained with a luncheon and bridge Saturday afternoon at the Carmichael cabin in the mountains. Making up the three tables of play were Margery Worden, Inez Huffman, Lucille Wilson, Helen Cohn, Fay Ferguson, Margaret Blake, Happy Graham, Ella Smith, Mae Gilliam, Ruth McMurdo, and Virginia Rosewall. Ella won high, Inez second high, and Virginia took the Jack high prize. Inez and Juanita stayed at the cabin Friday night through Sunday. Now, wonder who is the anonymous poet?

LAVERNE VAN MARTER met Steve Trukositz in Hermiston Sunday for a trip to Walla Walla to enter the sectional bridge play representing this unit. They are directors of the unit which includes Heppner, Hermiston, and Pendleton.

KELLEY AND SHELLEY Wolff, 8-year-old twins of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolff, had friends in Friday evening for a pancake supper to celebrate their birthdays. Their guests included Libby Abrams, Kathleen Ayres, Bobbette Jones, Marie Van Marter, and Becky Duffy. The youngsters played many games and the lucky winner was Kathleen as she pranced off with most of the prizes!

SATURDAY NIGHT the Jim Driscolls entertained with two tables of duplicate bridge. They used the Howell movement in scoring with each person playing 21 boards. Guests were Conley and Vi Lanham, Dr. and Rita Wolff, LaVerne and Laurel Van Marter. Bobbe won high with Laurel getting second high.

MARGE ECKMAN won high Wednesday night when the pinochle club met at the home of Jackie Glennie. Carolyn Cole won the pinochle, and Jeanne Berry took low. Others in on the play were Mickey Mollahan, Beverly Sherman, Flo Connor, Gail Burkenbine, and Jackie. The girls played eight progressions with high score of 5700 and the low of 5100, real close hands, huh? Jackie served a pineapple upside down cake with a whipped cream topping.

HOW ABOUT night riding with Laurel Van Marter? It seems she offered to take her car to the Rainbow board meeting at the Don Turner ranch home because she knew the way. Well, she drove clear to the Glen Campbell ranch and back to Roy Martins before getting on the right road! They arrived at 9:30 p.m. for the meeting. Those going but not sure about the next time were: Madge Thomson, Mary Ellen Myers, Jo Hughes, and Melba Quackenbush.

WHAT'S TRUMP bridge group got together Wednesday afternoon at the home of Dee Gribble. Lots of Tibbles won high and Margaret Blake was second. Also playing were Virginia Rosewall, Gena Leonard, Madge Thomson, Hazel Mahoney, Helen Schaffitz, and Fay Ferguson. Dee said everyone had low scores that day with the high having only 2700. They are bound to get better as the winter goes along!

TIM LOYD decided to have a party last Saturday night, but with such short notice, his mother, Shirley, settled for a supper using Tim's menu of Spanish dishes. The boys included Gary Ball, Kit Anderson, and Bill McLeod who sampled the tamales and tacos. Shirley said they ate everything with help of lots of milk and for dessert had hot dogs to add a bit of American touch!

TRACIE NORENE, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jim Norene, entertained with a neighborhood party on her eighth birthday Thursday after school. Her guests were Jimmy Schaffitz, Jimmy and Andy Myers, Tami Brannon, Shannon Robison, Delbert, Jimmy, Diane, and David McLachlan, Tami Meador, and Lori O'Rourke. They played games and had cake and punch. And Cork says amidst the confusion of the party and getting ready for a birthday supper, she forgot to serve the youngsters the ice cream sundaes!

EVERYONE IS learning to play bridge, and then follows the forming of a new club. One new club had its first meeting Tuesday night at the home of Marian Jonasson and will meet twice each month. I hear the girls worked for over an hour trying to decide on a name and all agreed on the "Bridge Biddies." Marian served dessert and coffee before play to Mary Jean McCabe, Mary McLeod, Jan Agee, Mary McClure, Janina Johnson, LaFyrne Pratt, and Donna Gordon. Mary Jean won high, LaFyrne was low, and Donna won the special for 100 honors traveling prize.

SEVERAL LITTLE reminders of things coming up: Mothers' club is to meet Monday at the N. C. Anderson home; Elks Ladies night this coming Thursday at the club rooms; and for all who are doing their fall housecleaning, remember the Civic League rummage sale November 2-3. Donate your unwanted items to them.

Sherri Olson Installed Rainbow Assembly Worthy Advisor Sunday

Sherri Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Olson, was installed Sunday as worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at the Masonic hall in Heppner.

Sherri chose as her theme, "Be of Some Service Each Day," and her colors of blue and gold were carried out with blue and gold crepe paper decorations about the room. In the dining room a centerpiece of blue and gold chrysanthemums, with candles on each side, was used on the serving table.

Debra Lynn Olson, sister of the worthy advisor, placed the crown on her head at the highlight of the ceremonies while Oliver Creswick sang, "My Task." He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sam Miller. Mrs. Don Turner acted as mother advisor pro tem. Sherri's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Olson, were introduced, as were the past mother advisors, Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Paul Jones, and the board members, Mrs. Don Turner, Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. Jim Thomson, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mrs. Lucille Wilson, Harley Young, and Dr. Ed Schaffitz. Also introduced were Mrs. Jim Myers, newly installed mother advisor, and Mrs. Tom Hughes newly installed board member.

Other officers installed at this time were: worthy associate advisor, Kathy Ray; charity, Diane Schaffitz; hope, Rogenia Wilson; faith, Brenda Young; recorder, Jean Siewert; treasurer, Jan Hager; chaplain, Peggy Snyder; drill leader, Teresa Munkers; love, Kitty O'Harra; religion, Cynthia Smith; nature, Janis Baker; immortality, Linda Warren; fidelity, Shirley Erwin; patriotism, Kathy Mathews; service, Martha Peck; confidential observer, Margaret Green; outer observer, Kathy Melby; musician, Judy Jones; and choir director, Linda Heath.

Installing officers were: Ginger Springer, past worthy advisor; drill leader, Shannon Mahoney; musician, Gail Batty; reporter, Tanna Valentine; and chaplain, Sue Townsend from the Ione Rainbow Assembly.

An addendum honoring Sherri as the new worthy advisor was given with Kathy Ray in charge

Janice Driscoll Feted with Shower

Lovely room decorations were used in the home of Mrs. W. H. Wolff for a bridal shower last Thursday evening honoring Janice Driscoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Driscoll, bride-elect of Darryl D. Bruning, Pendleton. Mrs. Wolff and Mrs. William Collins were co-hostesses for the shower.

A double-ring door piece with tiny lights sparkling from it greeted the guests as they arrived. Carrying out the "double-ring" theme of pink and white colors, floral arrangements were used with styrofoam double rings tied with bows about the rooms. And carrying the theme to the dessert, the hostesses served ice cream shaped in the form of wedding rings with tea cookies.

Janice was presented a pink rosebud corsage and was assisted with her gifts by Mrs. Collins.

The guests enjoyed several games with Mrs. Phil Mahoney, Mrs. Lowell Gribble, Mrs. Bill Edwards, and Mrs. Will O'Harra winning the prizes. Door prizes went to Mrs. Gordon Hutchens and Mrs. Frank Turner. Mrs. Gordon Pratt lead the group in singing of several "sweetheart songs" accompanied by Mrs. Jerry Jonasson in a "Sing-A-Long with Janice."

Special guests for the evening were Janice's grandmother, Mrs. A. R. Fortner, Boardman; Mrs. Myrtle Bruning, Pendleton, mother of the groom-to-be; Mrs. Vonne Holmes, Pilot Rock, and other guests from this community.

TAMI BRANNON, daughter of Mrs. Judy Brannon, had a neighborhood birthday party Friday evening at the Carl Spaulding home. Guests were Delores McLachlan and children, Delbert, Jimmy, Diane, and David; Cork Norene and daughter, Tracie; Sandi Robison and daughter, Shannon; and Bob McLachlan. They enjoyed birthday cake and ice cream.

I HAVE a recipe this week from a former Ione resident, Mrs. Bob Hope (Mildred Carlson), who now lives with her family in Eugene. She says it is an excellent traveling dish just in time for the hunters and is better warmed up the second day.

BEAN STEW
1 No. 303 can small red beans or kidney beans
2 No. 2 1/2 cans whole tomatoes
1/3 to 1/2 lb. bacon, fried in bite-sized pieces
1 onion sliced into rings
1 T sugar
Season to taste with salt and pepper
Mix all ingredients into covered container, bake in moderate oven for an hour. Serve with tossed salad and garlic bread. Mildred suggests serving in soup bowls or cups for easier eating. This recipe serves 5-6.

Club Honors Member With Shower Party

Miss Leta Humphreys was guest of honor at a menu and recipe shower given by members of the Soroptimist club Thursday evening at the home of the club president, Mrs. Jim Hager. Miss Humphreys recently announced her engagement and coming marriage to William Thomas, formerly of San Francisco, whose acquaintance she made on a recent European tour.

Members outlined their favorite menus and wrote in detail the recipes used for dishes in the menu. Added miscellaneous articles, including a menu file, cook books and kitchen articles, were given as token gifts. Club members combined their good wishes into one large personal gift.

Refreshments were served buffet style from an artistically centered serving table featuring a miniature bride and groom encircled with an arrangement of small pink rosebuds. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Fred Parrish.

Present to extend their best wishes were Mrs. Etta Parker, Mrs. Jim Thomson, Mrs. Rod Murray, Mrs. Claire O'Donnell, Mrs. Pearl Devine, Mrs. Grace Nickerson, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mrs. Parrish, Mrs. Hager and Jan Hager.

Mrs. W. H. Wolff flew to Superior, Wisc., recently to spend four days visiting her mother, Mrs. Joseph Falardeau, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and girls were in Portland over the week-end to visit their daughter, Jean, who is a patient in Good Samaritan hospital there following a car accident earlier this summer. She may be coming home in the next few days if the tests are satisfactory but will remain bedfast for six more weeks.
