June Hudspeth Bride Of Arthur Lindstrom

The marriage of June Frances Hudspeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bray of Hermiston, to Arthur A. Lindstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Lindstrom, Ione, was solemnized at the First Methodist church in Hermiston Sunday, September 9, at 3 p. m. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene Hambley. Decorating the altar were tall baskets of apricot and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose to wear a light blue chiffon street length dress, fashioned with fitted cummerbund. She wore a white bluish veil and carried a bridal cascade of white rosebuds placed on a white prayer book.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mary Ballance, sister of the bride. Her dress was of light apricot taffeta and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli shaped in a crescent.

The nuptial music was played by Ella Mae Watson and accompanied Dan Follett, vocalist. Candelighters were Sandy Sires and Trudie Ritchie.

Best man was Roy A. Lindstrom, brother of the groom. Ushers were John and Tom Bray, brothers of the bride, and Jim Ballance, brother-in-law of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bray wore a brown silk ensemble, with brown accessories and a pink carnation and rosebud corsage. Mrs. Lindstrom, mother of the groom, chose a blue knit costume with white accessories and wore a pink orchid and rosebud corsage.

The couple was greeted at a reception in rooms decorated with garden dahlias and asters. After the newlyweds cut the first piece of wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Doris Bounds and Edith Saylen, with Theresa Busey assisting. At the coffee service was Lois Moon, and Cathie Hoggins served the punch. Passing the guest book was Leota Tramel and helping at the gift table were Mrs. Barbara Watkins and daughter Judy and Mrs. Norma Maffie and daughter Ann.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Seattle. For going away the new Mrs. Lindstrom wore an ensemble of white satin brocade sheath dress with white fur cuffs, white accessories and white rosebud corsage.

They are making their home in Ione where Mr. Lindstrom is employed in wheat and cattle ranching.

Out-of-town guests attended from Seattle, Portland, Ione, Pendleton, Heppner and Walla Walla. From Ione were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom, brother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lindstrom, Mrs. Lola Wilson, Carl and John Troedson, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Troedson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Anne Lindstrom, grandmother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hynd and Carol Sue of Cecl.

Vawter Parker, attorney at Hood River, was an overnight guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker recently. Mr. Parker was attending to legal matters at the county courthouse while here.

Mrs. Ruth Bailey, Arcadia, Calif., arrived Thursday for a stay with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Valentine. She left for her home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and daughter, Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. C. C. Brassfield, Palco, Kans., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Burkenbine and family this week on their way from the World's Fair and will leave Friday for their home. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Burkenbine are sisters and Mrs. Brassfield is their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Drake are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hayden and other relatives this week. The Drakes are here from Idaho.
