IONE—Mrs. Lewis Ball, Mrs. Donald Ball, Elmer Peterson and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Christopherson of Olex to Pendleton on Thursday of last week to attend the funeral services of Ralph Ledbetter who died on Sunday, September 16, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Estelle Garner.

Mr. Ledbetter is a former Ione and Lexington resident. He lived in this area until about 12 years ago. He is survived by his daughter Estelle, step-daughter Dorothy Christopherson of Olex and step-son Melvin Brady of Arlington, a grandson, several brothers and sisters in North Carolina, a brother Bergen of Lexington and several local nieces, nephews and other relatives.

His services were conducted from the Burns Mortuary in Pendleton with interment in the Olney cemetery in Pendleton.

Padbergs Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Padberg and son Marvin were called to Portland for the funeral services on Tuesday of this week for Clarence E. Kruse, brother-in-law to Mr. Padberg. Mr. and Mrs. Kruse were on their way to Ione last Friday when he suffered a heart attack this side of Hood River. Mrs. Kruse is the former Pearl Padberg and they reside near Oswego. His services were held at the Finley Mortuary in Portland on Tuesday with interment at the family plot at Lake Grove. Besides his wife Pearl, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Stanley (Karen) Tremaine.

Debbie and Donna Palmer were honored guests on Tuesday, September 18, at a birthday party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer. Guests helping the girls celebrate their third birthday were Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Mrs. Dale Ray, Mrs. Marilyn Childers, Harvey and Lorrie, Mrs. Dick Sherer, Scott and Todd and Mrs. Virginia Pettyjohn and Kimber Ann. That evening the Palmers were guests at the Dean Connor home at a dinner honoring the birthdays of the twins and of Mrs. Lincoln Nash. Also present were Mr. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and Jodie of Bend.

Among college students re-entering the University of Oregon this year is Gary Brenner. It was incorrectly noted last week that he had enrolled at Eastern Oregon college.

Room Mothers Named

So many times parents, especially the mothers, wonder who the room mothers are for their child's class so this reporter thought it wise to publish a list. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan Jr. recently returned from Sun Valley, Idaho where they attended a Western Wheat conference. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kaseberg of Wasco accompanied them.

Public Flower Show Set For Ione Staging Sunday Afternoon

Beauty in flowers and in flower arrangement will be in evidence Sunday, September 30, at the annual fall flower show sponsored by the Ione Garden Club. Carrying out the theme "Garden Treasures" unusual combinations are expected to be displayed as the beauty of jewels and jewel tones are combined with garden flowers to please the eye of the viewer.

It is the desire of the committee in charge that anyone in the area that has something of interest to display will share it and enter either in the novice (inexperienced) class or advanced classes. Entries may be brought to the cafeteria Saturday between 5 and 5:30 p.m. as well as Sunday morning, between 8 and 10:30 a.m. Judging by accredited judges will be between 10:30 and 2 p.m. The show is open to the public between 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. Sunday, with a silver tea served during the afternoon.

Possible entries outlined by the committee total 252 for the amateur and experienced in both adult and junior (12 and under) groups. Complete schedules in both horticulture and decorative arrangement divisions may be secured from committee heads or Mrs. William Rawlins, general chairman, or Mrs. Elbe Akers, schedules chairman.

A specification in the horticulture division is that the specimens must be grown by the exhibitor and labeled for identification, and some foliage must be included. Containers will be provided at the show for those exhibiting. First, second and third place winners will be awarded ribbons in each class, with a sweepstakes award for top showman.

Week-end houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norene, were Mrs. Claire Macauley and daughter, Carol Sue, of Prosser, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spaulding and daughter, Janice, are vacationing in Canada after viewing the World's Fair for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lott and family were joined by Mrs. Lott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kennedy, Walla Walla, for a trip to the World's Fair a few days last week.

Poisoning Of Dogs, Cats Evident in Ione

Residents in the Ione community are investigating the recent sedge of poisoning which has taken place the past two weeks to pet dogs and cats.

At least three dogs and seven cats have been reported killed by some type of poison or poisonous foods consumed in either downtown or residential areas. Families are fearful that small children might also become victims of the poison, and extreme caution is urged in picking up and consuming any suspicious kind of food. Anyone with a helpful lead is asked to inform the authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Worden and sons Bobby and David visited her brother, Leo Stienberger in Seattle over the week-end. While there they attended the World's Fair.

Rhea Creek Club Elects Officers

Dale Van Blokland was elected president of the Rhea Creek Livestock club recently when the club met at the Rhea Creek Grange hall. Other officers for the coming year are Bobby Harris, vice-president; Carol Rawlins, secretary; Hal Bergstrom, news reporter; and Tom Rawlins, sergeant-at-arms.

Joe Hay, club agent, was present to check member's record books for the past year. The books are to be entered in the county record book contest.

The club's goals which were set at the beginning of the year were accomplished 100 percent.

New members in the club will be David and Dean Wright, former members of the Hardman Livestock club. Other members on the new enrollment form are Kenneth Wright, David and John Hall, Bob and John Harris, Hal and Bruce Bergstrom, Charlie Anderson, Dale Van Blokland, Tom, Carol, and John Rawlins.
