Double Ring Ceremony Unites Young Couple Here

Janice Driscoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Driscoll, Heppner, was united in marriage to Darryl D. Bruning, son of Mrs. A. F. Bruning, Pendleton, in an afternoon ceremony September 29 at the All Saints' Episcopal church in Heppner. Rev. C. Bruce Spencer performed the double ring rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents and escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a white satin ballerina length gown with lace bodice and carried a white prayer book with white orchid corsage. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a crown of pearl and rhinestones.

Maid of honor was Miss Sharon Lindsay, Gresham, cousin of the bride. She wore a pastel blue brocade gown with a hat of matching material. She carried a nosegay of white roses and pink carnations.

Best man was Cecil Holmes, Pilot Rock, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Dale Johnson and Richard Goodin, Pendleton.

Altar boys were Kent and Kevan Pratt.

The pink and white color theme was used with pink and white gladioli on the altar and in baskets in the church.

Mrs. C. A. Ruggles was organist and accompanied Gordon Pratt who sang, "Oh Perfect Love" and "Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Driscoll chose for her daughter's wedding a pale green brocade sheath with matching jacket and bone accessories with red rosebud corsage. Mrs. Bruning, mother of the groom, wore a black and white brocade suit with white accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

The reception followed immediately in the parish hall with Mrs. Bill Heath and Mrs. Frank Payne in charge. Decorations about the rooms were the double ring flower arrangements used at the bride's recent shower and carried the pink and white color theme.

After the young couple cut the 3-tier cake, Mrs. Robert Fortner, Portland, aunt of the bride, HI EVERYONE, this week will be mighty short and sweet as I am trying to outrun a cold and so far, not too much luck!

GENA LEONARD entertained with two tables of bridge at her home in Lexington Wednesday afternoon. Hazel Mahoney won high with second going to Lota Tibbles, and Helen Schafitz taking low. When talking to Helen she said Hazel could hardly believe she had won high 'cause her score was so low. Everyone's scores were all very low during the afternoon and Helen said maybe it was because they were trying to watch the Giant-Dodger playoff game on TV? Also in on the play were Margaret Blake, Madge Thomson, Virginia Rosewall, Happy Graham, Dee Gribble, and Fay Ferguson.

MARY HARRIS won high Friday at pinocle when Marguerite Chapin hosted two tables for an afternoon of play. Beulah Manikin won low and, just to completely monopolize the whole afternoon, Mary and Beulah teamed up to win the pinocle prize, too! Regulars playing were Gladys Beckett, Carrie Beckett, and Pearl Wright. Filling in were Mae Gilliam, Janina Johnson and Ann Fehmerling, Portland.

continued serving the cake. Mrs. Fortner made the beautiful 3-tier white cake which was decorated with white bells, white roses with silver leaves, and pink and white scroll topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Cecil Holmes, Pilot Rock, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Isabelle Davis, Condon, aunt of the bride, poured. Joann Vayne, Pendleton, was in charge of the gift table and Arletha Randall kept the guest book.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fortner, Boardman, grandparents of the bride; Donna Peterson, Miss Vayne, Mrs. Jan Conroy, Charles Driscoll, Lynn Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodin, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holmes, all of Pendleton. Mrs. Dwight Hult, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortner, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Claire, Portland; Mrs. Isabelle Davis, Condon; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pointer and children, Corvallis.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Heppner High school and attended Links Business college in Boise for one year. She has worked the past two years with the Umatilla Public Welfare Commission in Pendleton.

The groom graduated from Pendleton High school in 1955 and attended Oregon State University for three years followed by three years in the armed services. He graduated in August from the International Business Machine school in Portland and is now employed in the accounting department of a Safeway Store in Portland where the newlyweds are living.

Sorority Plans Social Events; Hear Reports

IONE—The regular October business meeting of Beta Omega was held at the home of Mrs. Don Peterson with Mrs. Tad Miller of Lexington co-hostess.

It was announced that the chapter took first place for their luncheon setting entry in the Ione Flower Show.

The October social will be an old fashion barn dance for members, husbands and invited guests.

Mrs. Robert Rietmann reported on the district council meeting held in Hermiston on September 9. Mrs. Robert Hoskins and Mrs. Bill Rietmann also attended the district meeting.

Attending the chapter's state convention in Portland on September 22 was their representative, Mrs. Joe Hausler.

For the educational program, Miss Marilyn Morgan showed slides on Mexico, Canada and Sun Valley.

Refreshments were served to the 13 members and two guests present.

Mrs. Grace Nickerson returned Saturday, Sept. 29, from visiting relatives in the valley. She spent several days with her son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Francis B. Nickerson, who is assistant to the chancellor in Eugene. She was visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Hayes in Hillsboro when news came of the illness here of Mrs. Hayes' granddaughter, Jennifer Tierney, brought to Pioneer Memorial hospital from her home in Condon. Mrs. Nickerson accompanied Mrs. Hayes to Heppner.

play Wednesday night with Louise Farley as hostess for the Renegades. Beverly Gunderson won high and Helen Cohn took second with Bonnie Barratt winning a special prize. Others making up the two tables of play were Inez Meador, Laurel Van Marter, Kay Anderson, Shirley Blake, and Cork Norene.

THE RECIPE this week comes to me from Mrs. Roy Neill who says she got it from one of the housewives who had lived in their trailer court. She makes the spread in the fall and cans it for all year use.

Sandwich Spread

12 green peppers
12 red sweet peppers
24 green tomatoes
10 dry onions

Run all ingredients through a food chopper, add one tablespoon salt, let stand three hours and add:

3½ cups sugar
1½ cups vinegar

Cook for 20 minutes and can in jars to be used later. When ready for use add mayonnaise and mustard to taste and spread on bread.
