OEA Has County Meeting; Hears Legislative Talk

By MARY LEE MARLOW

(Held over from last week)

BOARDMAN—Ed Elliott of the state branch of the Oregon Education Association narrated a film strip on the rise of the OEA at a county meeting here last week at the Riverside high school. Ruth Coy gave a report on her trip as delegate to the National Education Association convention in Denver, Colo. Sixty-six members of the county OEA attended the meeting and dinner from Ione, Heppner, Lexington, Irrigon and Boardman. Don Olscheid, county president from Irrigon, presided. At an executive committee meeting at 5 p.m. Ron Daniels of Boardman was appointed as second vice-president. Committee meetings were held at 5:30 p.m. to formulate committee policies for the coming year. Following this Robert Van Houte, county superintendent and state OEA president, Heppner, made a legislative report on proposed legislation to appear before the Oregon congress. Among items discussed were teacher certification, proposed apportionment for community colleges, and the reorganization bill. A buffet dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. by the Boardman grade school mothers club. Committee in charge was Mrs. Don Downey, Mrs. Ronald Black and Mrs. Delmer Hug. Mrs. Harold Baker was in charge of tables.

FFA Hosts Leadership Meet

The annual Blue Mountain District FFA Leadership conference was held here last Wednesday night, with about 85 attending from W. East school, The Dalles, Sherman County High, Heppner, Hermiston, Standfield, Pendleton, Athena, Milton, Freewater, Umapine and Riverside school at Boardman. Purpose of the conference was to train chapter officers for the coming year. State officers were present as well as district and chapter officers. Hollis McDonald of The Dalles, state president, presided at the meeting. Other state officers present were Jeff Carl of Hubbard, vice-president; Lester Stephens of Dayton, secretary; Larry Gardner of Salem, treasurer; Steve Kesler of Medford, reporter; Tom Hendeson of St. Helens, sentinel.

Winners Prepare For Final Event

Nine talented bakers from as many wheat growing counties in Oregon are preparing their top applesauce cake recipes for the grand final bakeoff to determine a first place winner in the Oregon Wheat Growers League convention in Portland on November 26, 27 and 28. A Baker housewife, Mrs. Eunice Squires, 1046 Rose St., Baker, was first place winner in Baker county this year and she was runnerup in the 1961 finals, held at the Armory in Pendleton. Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg, Wasco, chairman of the league's Domestic Wheat Utilization committee, reveals that a record-breaking number of contestants participated in this year's cake baking contest. She is hopeful that county fairs in non-wheat growing areas will have such contests on their 1963 county fair programs. List of finalists is as follows: Baker county, Mrs. Eunice Squires, Baker; Gilliam county, Mrs. Emma Pattee, Condon; Jefferson county, Mrs. Josie Cross, Madras; Morrow county, Mrs. Louis Carlson, Ione; Sherman county, Mrs. Sharon Thompson, Moro; Umatilla county, Mrs. Adolph Weinke, Pilot Rock; Union county, Mrs. Linda Strand, La Grande; Wallowa county, Mrs. Carol Wulff, Flora; Wasco county, Mrs. F. S. Thomas, Dufur.

Carnival Set November 10

Riverside High school will have its annual carnival the night of November 10. This was decided at the monthly meeting of the student body last week. Kent Boothman, president, was in charge of the meeting. They also voted to pay $100 for sending two FFA members to the national convention at Kansas City, Mo., and $30 to send two newspaper staff members to the student press conference in Eugene October 12-13.
