

Talk on Russia Feature Of Ione PTA Meeting

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—Dale Whiteneck, assistant county school superintendent of Walla Walla, Wn., was guest speaker at the Ione PTA meeting last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Whiteneck talked about his trip and stay in Russia, which he took with a group of 60 educators recently. He showed slides which were in color and displayed textbooks and other souvenirs he had brought back with him.

The PTA budget was presented to the assembly and passed upon during the business meeting.

Also on the program were skits and musical numbers presented by the Ione Order of Rainbow Girls.

The social committee for the evening included Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Ralph Crum, Mrs. Vern Strahn, Mrs. Herb Ekstrom, Sr., and Mrs. Jack Hynd. The committee decorated the room with fall flowers and the Halloween motif was used in table decorations.

The Willows grange will meet Saturday night, October 20, at 8:00 p. m. for the annual election of officers.

Mrs. John Dunn and daughter Sandy visited this week at the home of her aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hicks. Mrs. Dunn is from Portland.

Houseguests on Sunday at the Bob Jepsen home were her brother and family, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Llewellyn and five children of Pendleton. The men enjoyed some bird hunting.

Word of the passing of Pete Linn reached relatives and friends in Ione this past week-end. His services were held at the Ione Community church on Wednesday. A complete obituary will be printed in next week's Gazette.

Rietmanns Return Home
Mrs. Omar Rietmann returned home last week following an extended vacation to California where she visited with her brother E. L. Freeland at Alpine, with his son Eugene Freeland at Rancho Santa Fe and with his daughter, Capt. and Mrs. White at Poway. She was joined by her son Larry from Fort Sam Houston, Texas, who accompanied her home. In route they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann at La Habra, also with Julie Rietmann and Sally and John Peterson who were also at the Robert Rietmann's.

Great-grandmother is Mrs. Clara Kincaid of Ione and great-grandfather, Louis Padberg of Ione.

Sharon Crabtree joined Judy Morgan at Pendleton and the two girls went on to La Grande where they spent the week-end with Diana Pettyjohn who is attending school there.

Bergstrom Honored on Birthday
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom were in Portland last week-end where Mr. Bergstrom was an honored guest at a party for his 70th birthday, held at the home of his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Bergstrom and family. Others present for the occasion were Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stefani and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Janin of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bergstrom of San Jose, Calif. were unable to be there as their plane was grounded due to the storm. Also unable to attend because of the storm was Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bergstrom and family from Brookings.

Mr. Bergstrom was presented with a Polaroid camera by his children in honor of the occasion.

Wedding Guests Here
House guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen last week included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson and daughter Karen of Portland. They were here to attend the Jepsen-Gray wedding on Saturday evening at Ione, but Mr. Larson was called to Portland after the Friday night storm by friends as 50% of the roof on their home had been blown off and numerous windows broken. He was unable to return in time for the wedding services. Other guests at the Jepsen home included Evelyn Jepsen and Francis Jones, both now attending Northwestern Christian college, Joan Gibbs and Frank Jepsen both of Milton-Freewater.

Mrs. Joel Engleman was called to Baker on Monday of this week for the funeral service of her foster grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Kelly.

Bob Drake returned to Ione this past week-end following a vacation trip that took him to Portland, the Seattle World's Fair, to Victoria, B. C. and back to Portland for the O. S. U. and U. of Wash. game.

Joel Engleman was in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday of this week on business.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppper, Oregon, Thursday, October 18, 1962 Sec. 2-6 Pages

Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Jr. and Kimber returned home Monday evening following a vacation that took them to Seattle for the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Elbe Akers and Wilbur Akers attended the funeral service in Boardman Monday for Robert Miller.

Mrs. Fred Herman hosted a coffee hour at her home last week and ladies present included Mrs. Edith Nicherson, Mrs. Berdine Tullis, Mrs. Norma Rea, Mrs. Katherine Thorne, Mrs. Beulah Sherer and Mrs. Geneva Palmer.

Sunday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Palmer were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Markham Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herman and Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin. The Palmers showed their pictures taken on their recent trip to Missouri.

Dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash of Heppper, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor and family of Heppper and Jennie Smith. Miss Smith is staying at the Nash home while she is attending high school at Heppper. She is formerly of Heppper. Staying several days recently at the Bob Jepsen ranch home was Bob Halley of Portland, a reporter for the Portland Reporter. He was among newsmen in our area visiting families, and getting inside information on the "wheat" story.

Members of the Rebekah Lodge received word this past week of the death of Joe Waters, former county clerk. His death came in February from a heart attack in Long Beach, Calif., but word of his passing did not reach here until this past week. His widow, Katie, has been confined to a nursing home since January of this year.

Mrs. Cecil Hicks, son LeRoy and daughter Shirley, visited in Portland with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Freeauff, last week and also went on to visit at the World's Fair in Seattle, returning home during the week-end. They viewed some of the destruction caused by the storm in Portland on their way home.

Among Ionians in Portland on business and to see the University of Wash. and O. S. U. game Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, Virgil and Jerry Stefani, Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers and Bonnie and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Matthews and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Akers and Mrs. Matthews left for Portland Friday morning, being there when the storm hit. They were ready to leave their hotel for the dinner hour when the storm hit, Mrs. Akers states. In talking with others who were there and in Eugene when the storm was in progress, they report it is hard to imagine the destruction unless one viewed it himself.

Column Help Needed

Help is needed in the Ione area to gather and write news for the Gazette-Times. Mrs. Lorraine Ball has returned to part time duty at the Pioneer Memorial hospital and feels that she does not have time to do the complete correspondent's job, too. "As much as I enjoy writing for the paper, I find I am not able to do as complete a job as I would like. Because it does take a lot of effort and time, I feel it only fair to pass it along to someone else who may be able to give more time to it," she said. Anyone interested is invited to contact Mrs. Ball at Ione or Wes Sherman, editor of the Gazette-Times.

The airman is a map and charts specialist assigned to the 2nd Reconnaissance Technical Squadron at Barksdale Air Force

Mrs. Martin to Head District Committee

Mrs. Fredrick Martin represented the Ione Garden club at a special Blue Mountain District meeting for local clubs and district officers at a no-host luncheon in Pendleton on Friday, October 12.

Mrs. Harry Andrews, district director of Echo, presided at the meeting, with Mrs. K. Tellefson assistant director of Hermiston, and Mrs. W. F. Burger, secretary, treasurer of Echo in attendance. Mrs. Elmer Ferguson, Miss Alma Rohrman and Mrs. Tellefson, state committee chairmen, gave valuable information in reports. Approximately 50 men and women, representing 13 clubs, participated in the meeting.

Mrs. Martin was named chairman of the nominating committee to present a report at the annual spring meeting in April, with the Pilot Rock club as hostess. Others on the committee are Roger Atkinson, Adams, and Mrs. H. A. Main, Pilot Rock, base, Louisiana.

A graduate of Heppper High school, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brosnan of Heppper.

Ione Delegates Attend Mid-Columbia Meet

A delegation of seven people drove to Enterprise for the two-day meeting, October 10 and 11, of the Mid-Columbia Assoc. of the United Church of Christ, of which Ione Community church is a member.

At the business session Fredrick Martin, Ione, was elected moderator; Rev. James Halfaker, Milton-Freewater, vice-moderator, and Rev. Rod MacKenzie, Ione, scribe.

Outstanding parts of the program were addresses by William Reedy of Mt. Silinda Institute in South Rhodesia, Africa, where he was a resident teacher for five years; talks by the Rev. Ralph Moore, and reports by delegates Sharon Weimer, Condon and Diane Farris, Enterprise, on the United Church Youth meeting at Purdue University and in Oregon.

Mrs. E. Markham Baker, Ione, conducted the Women's Fellowship meeting. Mrs. Fred Nelson served on the nominating committee, and Fred Martin presided at the evening dinner meeting.

Devotional services were led by Ed Morrison of Ingle Chapel; Rev. Harvey Goodling, interim minister of Condon conducted the evening worship and closing communion service, and Rev. Fred R. Morrow of The Dalles was moderator in charge of the two-day meeting. Delegates stayed in private homes and meals were served by women of the Enterprise church.

Those going from here were Rev. and Mrs. Rod MacKenzie, Kathryn and Andy; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Fred Nelson, Mrs. E. M. Baker and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse.
