BACK AT the old typewriter again after outrunning the cold bug and a bit blue 'cause the Giants lost the series by a squeaker. Meanwhile, back at the social doings for the past week!

FIRST OFF I will get in the Elks Ladies Night which was October 4 at the club rooms with seven tables of pinochle and five of bridge. I had taken the notes on this from Vi Lanham last week on the back of an envelope which got misplaced and so didn't get in the paper. Hazel Hamlin and Elaine George were hostesses for the evening. Joyce Ward won the high in bridge, Sue Jones was low, and Syb Wells won the door prize. Gladys Beckett was the high scorer for pinochle with Gladys Snier low, and Ginger Keithley won the door prize. Next Ladies Night will be November 1 at the club rooms.

DID YOU know, as reported from "Food Field Reporter," August 27, 1962, that the buying in super markets and grocery stores of fresh beef, frozen foods, fresh baked goods and the higher-priced canned seafoods registered a brisk demand? That diet-consciousness was evident in the buying gains obtained by metered calorie products? That convenience foods scored gains in many sections of the store, including prepared baking mixes, dry soups, instant coffee, frozen juices and precooked foods and prepared puddings. Now the question arises, are we home-makers really watching the grocery dollar or perhaps haven't the time to spend in the kitchen and rely on easy quick meal preparations? Also maybe advertising and attractive store displays play an important part in the consumer buying.

MADGE THOMSON entertained the Bookworms at her home Tuesday night with Elsie Cole reviewing the book, "My Day in Court," by Louis Nizer. It deals with some of the most interesting and significant cases of his true experience as a lawyer. Other club members present were Agnes Flug, Virginia Turner, Sadie Parrish, Marian Abrams, and Ella Smith.

A REMINDER to all duplicate bridge players: The Unit party is set for Sunday, October 21, at the Heppner multipurpose room starting at 2:00 p.m. Winners will be eligible for Master points.

LENNA SMITH had high score for the evening when Sarah Sharrard entertained the pinochle club last Thursday. Gwen Healy won second and Sarah kept the special prize! When she got home from shopping for her prizes she discovered the vase (special prize) was chipped so didn't want to use it as a gift! Others playing and enjoying the fresh apple cake were Bebe Munkers, Maxine Gray, Ruth Van Winkle, Margaret Blake, and Lillian Sweek.

WINNERS AT the afternoon bridge club at the home of Wavel Wilkinson were Lois Hunt, high; Inez Huffman, second. Also in on the two tables of play were Virginia Wilkinson, Hester Creswick, Marjorie Worden, Gene Leonard, Lota Tibbles, and Beth Bryant. Juanita Carmichael, a regular member of the club, dropped in for dessert after school. Wavel served a delicious frozen dessert with coffee.

MICKEY MOLLAHAN was hostess Tuesday night for two tables of pinochle. The girls played eight progressions and all of the scores ended up very close with Gail Burkenbine winning high. Flo Connor won the pinochle.

Ginger Keithley, Jackie Glennie, Marge Eckman, Jeanne Berry, and Beverly Sherman also played. Mickey served a jelled Waldorf salad and coffee.

GRACE NICKERSON, Ruth McMurdo, Wavel Wilkinson, and Eta Parker were the "highs" Thursday night when Mae Gilham entertained two tables of contract bridge. The "low" team was Sadie Parrish, Grace Turner, Lucille Wilson, and Mae.

ALL OF the regular members of the Friday afternoon pinochle club were present at the home of Mary Harris with Beulah Mankin winning high. Pearl Wright won low and Hannah Anderson teamed with Carrie Beckett to win the pinochle. Other members playing were Millie Evans, Gladys Beckett, Doris Watkins, and Mary. A near 1500 trump happened to Beulah but partner, Millie, had too many cards to pass and held the one lone trump needed! Oh, me!

THE TWICE monthly duplicate bridge play met last Tuesday evening at the Episcopal parish hall with eight tables in play. Coming up with the high scores were Grace Nickerson and Daisy Collins, high north-south; Harlan McCurdy, Jr. and Della McCurdy, second high. Jim Driscoll and Bill Blake were high east-west with Phil and Hazel Mahoney second. The next get-together will be October 23 at 8:00 p.m.

FALL IS the time to enjoy good crisp delicious apples. They are coming on in your favorite market so pick up some today for the family to enjoy. Ours has just about gone through a box since last week-end! Still good supply of fresh produce to keep green salads on the table for the family. Good leafy lettuce, tomatoes, green peppers, cucumbers, and don't forget, local squash and potatoes are very good price. It seems the best policy for buying pork, beef, or lamb cuts is to continue watching food store ads for many reasonable meal ideas. Beef and pork prices should drop a little lower as the fall supply becomes available.

I WAS wondering how the people in the storm area would handle the deep freeze situation with food spoiling but when talking to relatives from Portland they had available dry ice which will keep things for several days. This was a real life saver since many people would have them filled for their winter needs.

Committee Chairmen Named for Dinner

Committees have been named to get plans underway for the Harvest Smorgasbord, sponsored by St. Patrick's Altar Society, on Sunday, November 18 in the parish hall. Hours for serving will be between 3:00 and 7:00 p. m. with tickets to go on sale soon.

Chairmen of committees are as follows: Mrs. Wilbur Worden and Mrs. Earl Ayers, tickets; Mrs. Wallace Wolff and Mrs. Juanita Duffy, advertising; Mrs. Raymond French, servers; Mrs. Gertrude Applegate, kitchen; Mrs. Wayne Prock, relishes; Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, salads; Mrs. Bob Brindle, hot dishes; Mrs. Glenn Ward, breads; Mrs. Pat O'Brien, coffee; Mrs. Jerry Daggett, desserts, and all officers in charge of decorations and meat. All members of the society will help on cleanup.

OES Heads Honored At Potluck Dinner

Members of the Past Patrons and Matrons organization of the Order of Eastern Star entertained Worthy Patron Don Turner and Worthy Matron Mrs. Dean Hunt at a potluck dinner Monday, October 8. The dinner party preceded the regular OES meeting. Mrs. Dick Wilkinson is president of the organization and stated 24 past patrons and matrons were present for the occasion. They used fall colors in the decorations with a horn of plenty filled with fruit on the head table and autumn gold candles on each side. Colorful autumn leaf napkins were used at the tables.

Couple Greet Friends On 50th Anniversary Reception October 7

A reception sponsored by Mistletoe Rebekah lodge honoring Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins on their 50th wedding anniversary was held Sunday, October 7 at the IOOF hall at Hardman. A potluck dinner was served at noon to relatives and friends, with the reception following in the afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

The four-tier anniversary cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Harold Stevens of Hardman. After the honored couple had cut the first piece of cake it was served by Mrs. Robert Steers, sister-in-law of Mrs. Collins. Pouring were Mrs. Bunny Steers and Mrs. Max Buschke, both nieces of Mrs. Collins.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Leon Chapin, ending with the old favorite, "Auld Lange Syne."

During the day 98 people called to congratulate the honored couple. All joined in presenting them with a money tree as a gift on the occasion. Mrs. Collins was born in Creswell in 1893, the daughter of Albert and Percilla Jane Medlock. Mr. Collins was born at Egypt, Wn., the son of John and Lavine Collins. Both came to Hardman at an early age and were married at Heppner October 9, 1912. Their attendants were Dave Dunhauser and Glen Wells. Since their marriage they have lived in and around Hardman. During late years Mrs. Collins has been confined to her home much of the time, due to ill health.

Those attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Steers, Ronan, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cramer, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas, Walla Walla, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Swift, Pasadena, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hastings, Kinzua; Mr. and Mrs. Blanche Jones, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Davis, Lone Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steers, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Chapin and family, Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Medlock and family, Spray; Mrs. Blanche Jones, Hermiston; Mrs. Joe Engelman and Frankie, Ione; Helen Hekkala, Fossil; Marvin Jackson, Bridal Veil; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Steers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Scot Furlong; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robinson and Doris. Mistletoe Rebekah sisters from Heppner were Mrs. Rachel Harnet, Mrs. Maude Craber; Mrs. Creth Harris, Mrs. Elma Harshman, Mrs. Ella Bleakman, Mrs. Opal Cook, Mrs. Elsie Ayers, and Mrs. Juanita Carmichael.

Also two of Mrs. Collins' former teachers were present, May (Severence) Campbell and Margaret (Maggie Sperry) Thomas.

Mrs. Dunbar Honored With Birthday Party

The birthday of Mrs. Jim Dunbar was the occasion for friends to gather at the home of Mrs. Charles Colley last Thursday for an informal evening.

Following a barbecue supper around the fireplace, complete with cake and ice cream, they joined in playing pinochle. Extending greetings to Mrs. Dunbar were Mrs. Adolph Majeski, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Buster Vinson and the hostess, Mrs. Colley.

Rebekahs To Host State President

Mrs. Selma Watkins, Wasco, state president of the Rebekah Assembly, will make her official visit at the Sans Souci Rebekah meeting at the lodge hall Friday night.

The meeting will begin at 8:00 p. m. and all members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Nick Fehmerling, Portland, is a houseguest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Steers, Ronan, Mont., visited last week with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Steers and family. Their mother, Mrs. Pearl Steers, returned home with them, Wednesday.

"WE OREGONIANS east of the mountains need a man in Washington who can express—and press for—our point of view. He has to know us well to represent us well. And Bob Chandler measures up. He's a newspaperman. He knows how we live, how we work, how we think. He has an editor's incisive, hard-headed ability to interpret the facts and draw valid conclusions. He's exceptionally prepared to serve our needs. Let's send Bob Chandler to Congress!"
