

Rebekah President Visits Lodge

By DELPHA JONES
 LEXINGTON—Mrs. Selma Watkins, president of the Assembly of Oregon, Rebekah lodges, was a guest of Holly Rebekah lodge at a special meeting last week. The meeting was presided over by Noble Grand Bernice Wihlon. Minutes of the last meeting were read, and roll call of officers was taken. Following this, Mrs. Watkins gave a most instructive talk to the members. Tableaus of the vice-grand charge and banner drill were put on by the lodge in her honor. The rooms were decorated with beautiful fall flowers, with a picture of her motto over the vice-grand's station. Refreshments were served later in the dining room from tables cleverly decorated in fall flowers, and featuring stalks of wheat. Mrs. Watkins was a houseguest of Mrs. A. F. Majeske following the meeting. Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. Opal Key and Mrs. Bertha Hunt were the Dalles visitors one day last week. Johnnie Ledbetter, who has been enjoying some hunting near Starkey, was brought to Pendleton on Saturday evening by Roger Campbell, and is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital. Mrs. Ledbetter visited him on Sunday and Monday of this week. Thursday evening Mrs. Gene Orwick and Mrs. George Hermann entertained with a birthday dinner honoring George Hermann at the Orwick home. Those present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orwick and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Hermann of Lexington and Alex Hunt of Heppner. Friday evening Mrs. Vernon Munkers entertained with a surprise birthday party, at their ranch home honoring Mr. Munkers. Games were played and refreshments of birthday cake and coffee were served later. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Art Watkins, high for bridge, and Art Watkins, high for trippoli. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Art Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers and the hostess and honoree. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padbeg and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Van Winkle were among those at tending the football game in Moro on Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Leonard attended the Oregon State and Washington State football game in Pullman on Saturday. Kenneth Jones accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rhae and son to LaGrande Saturday where they visited a son, Frances, who is attending school there, and attended a football game. The potluck dinner held at the Lexington Christian church on Sunday honoring the Lexington school teachers was a huge success. Choir practice has been changed from Wednesday nights at 7:30 to Thursday nights at 7:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Doherty have returned home after a several months visit in Europe. While there they visited their son Billy who is stationed in Germany, also in England and Ireland and other way points. Mr. and Mrs. Tad Miller were in The Dalles on business this week. Recent visitors at the Roy Martin home have been Mr. and Mrs. Lemmon Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva of Medford. While here they enjoyed some elk hunting. Serge Covall who teaches at Hillsboro has been spending a few days at the Cutsforth cabin where he has been enjoying some elk hunting. Mr. Covall is a former Lexington teacher. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kilkenny were business visitors in Pendleton one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Garbor of Hermiston are living in the Bill Nichols house. Creswick to Speak at PTA Lexington PTA meets Tuesday night, November 13, at the school auditorium. Guest speaker will be Oliver Creswick of Heppner who will talk on the development of Williw Creek Dam. Any one interested in this project are cordially invited to attend this meeting. Refreshments will be served following the meeting in the cafeteria. The card party at the IOOF hall was well attended Saturday night with nine tables of players. Winning high in bridge was Inez Hoffman of Heppner and low, Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter. Women high in pinochle was Mrs. Trudy Casebeer, and low, Esther Bergstrom; men's high in pinochle, Cecil Jones; low, Edward Hunt and traveling prize, Mrs. Edward Hunt. This is the second Saturday of each month at the hall. The next one is planned for December 1 at 8 p. m. Those who attend and are registered are eligible to win the big prize at the last party. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Burnside of Spray, grandparents of Tommie Steagall, Mrs. Virginia Sitton of Kinzua and Mrs. Lola Breeding visited on Sunday with Tommie who is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton.

Weather Analyst To Give Report On Research Work

Dr. Fred W. Decker, Chairman, Atmospheric Science Branch of the School of Science, Oregon State University, Corvallis, will report to cooperators of the Morrow County Weather Observers and interested persons on the Morrow County weather project carried out by approximately 50 rancher cooperators during the past year. A special summary will be given on results of records on special storms which passed through the area when detailed information was kept during the spring months by special cooperators. Dr. Decker indicated to the directors of the Morrow County Weather Observers recently that he believes that "the results will amply justify your efforts and ours," special cooperation for this project was given by the U. S. Navy and Army Air Forces with special emphasis in radar "tracking" of storm patterns. In addition to the special Morrow county project Dr. Decker, a recognized authority on a summer spent in Europe on weather modification. Dr. Decker indicates that as a result of conferences with the people trying to suppress hail in Germany, Switzerland, France, Italy and Austria that he has returned from Europe with some information which might produce startling results in both the rainmaking and hail suppression work. He intends to present this material at a meeting to be held at the Fair Pavilion Annex in Heppner at 1:30 p. m., Friday, November 16. This will be the first public announcement of results of one of the experiments to be performed along this line. Weather and precipitation reports were mailed this week to all cooperators in the Morrow County Weather Observers program. Because of the importance of continuing records in the Morrow County Weather Observers research project, N. C. Anderson, secretary, urges that all cooperators continue with their records of detailed weather this fall and winter months.

Homecoming Ends Grid Year at Riverside High

By MARY LEE MARLOW
 BOARDMAN—Barbara Davis, Riverside High school senior, was crowned Homecoming Queen at the halftime of the Riverside-Kickit football game here last Friday afternoon. She was crowned by Dante Daltoso. Her escort was Kent Boothman. Princesses and escorts were Sharon Franke and Lynn Hobbs, and Dorothy Rash and Jim Hoffman. The queen and her princesses reigned over the Homecoming dance that night. Riverside High school defeated Kickit high school 54-0 in their final football game of the season. The Pirates ended the season in second place in the league, their only loss being to Lone. Halloween was very quiet in this community, with just the small witches and goblins out trick or treating. The Boardman Tillicum club held its annual party for the grade school at 1 p. m. Each child came in costume and there was a grand march with treats for each one. Punch and cookies were served for refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Keller and son Allen of Eugene visited the first of last week at the home of Mrs. Keller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hoffman. Other visitors were Keller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Keller of Condon. Lyle Williams was a patient in the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston for several days last week suffering with back injuries which he received in a car accident near Elgin while he was on an elk hunting trip. Mrs. Rowan Hinds of Corvallis spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson. Mrs. Ed Skoubo and children David and Janell accompanied her and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skoubo. Toni Taylor of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Algy Taylor. Mrs. Leonard Bock returned to her home in Portland Sunday after being at the Taylor home the past two and a half weeks, being called here by the critical illness of Mrs. Taylor, whose condition at this time is improved. Eddie Boothman of Orville, Wash. visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe last week. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mallery and son Jim of Seattle, Wash. were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Mallery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats. Mrs. Frank Marlow was a week-end visitor in Walla Walla at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Zerba. Five tables of pinochle were in play at the card party at the grange hall Saturday night. Hostesses were Mrs. W. G. Seehafer and Mrs. Roy Ball. Mrs. Clyde Tannehill won the door prize. High score was won by Mrs. Peter Matz and A. R. Fortner, who also won the pinochle prizes.

N. Morrow 4-H Members Given Special Awards

A near record crowd of 90 4-H members, parents and leaders attended the North Morrow 4-H Achievement Party Saturday evening, November 3. The Achievement Party was held at the Irrigon schoolhouse and started at 6:30 with a potluck supper followed by the achievement program at 7:30, according to Joe Hay, county agent. The Achievement Party was climax of the 1961-62 4-H club year for clubs in the Boardman and Irrigon communities. Five clubs from the Boardman community and seven clubs from the Irrigon community received their pins and certificates for completing another year of 4-H club work. Pins are provided for the first, third, fifth and tenth years of 4-H club work by the First National Bank of Oregon. County medals in the National Awards Program were given to 4-H members who were outstanding in the area for which the awards were presented. Many nationally known companies and corporations sponsor the various National Awards programs. Receiving these special awards were Penny Jones, Irrigon, for achievement; Carol Lathrop, Irrigon, and Irene Potts, Boardman, for beef; Mike Partlow and Chloe McQuaw, Boardman, for dairy; Shirley Jackson, Irrigon, for recreation; Dewena West, Boardman, Home Economics; Anna Mae McQuaw, Boardman and Jeniece McElroy, Irrigon, clothing; and Kay Huson, Irrigon, food preparation. Helping to plan this year's North Morrow Achievement Party were Mrs. Perry Pummel, Irrigon, committee chairman; Mrs. William Schmeder and Junior Leaders, Penny Jones, Irrigon, and Sandra Thorpe, Boardman. Special thanks is also extended to those who worked on the program committee, decoration committee, hostess committee, dinner committee and cleanup committee.

Willows Grange Has Big Booster Dinner, Program

Willows Grange, Ione, was host for a booster night party Saturday, November 3, at the grange hall. About 70 persons were present for the 6:30 supper, with Mrs. Berl Akers and Mrs. Marion Palmer serving as co-chairmen. Mrs. Hershel Townsend was in charge of the program which featured numbers by grange members and members of their families. Following the welcome by Grange Master Berl Akers, a grange history was given by Mrs. Mary Lundell, a charter member of Willows Grange. Donna and Debbie Palmer followed with a reading and Harvey Childers gave a skit on Humpty Dumpty. A musical number was presented by Bonnie Akers. A report on Home Economic club was made by Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, vice-chairman of the club. Lori Childers and Barbara Palmer presented readings and Deniece and Berniece Matthews joined in a piano duet. A musical number by Linda Rowell and some group singing closed the program, after which guests enjoyed playing cards or dancing by the younger set. Due to the uncertainty of the football schedule, Willows Home Economic club will meet on Thursday, November 15, at the home of Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, with Mrs. Hershel Townsend as co-hostess. It is to be an all-day meeting and members are asked to bring salads or dessert. There will also be election of officers. Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea and John were in La Grande for

Sewing Club Members Plan Demonstrations

The Country Cutters met Tuesday, October 30, after school in the Conference Room at the County Agent's building for our meeting. All five members were present. Roll call was answered by naming the parts of a sewing machine. Our leader gave each member a topic which we are to prepare for a demonstration for next meeting. After the meeting we purchased material downtown for our aprons. Our next meeting will be at Linda Pettyjohn's home November 13. Linda Pettyjohn, News Reporter

Training Day For 4-H Leaders Set in Hermiston

"Develop your Leadership Potential in 4-H Club Work" is the theme chosen for the Regional 4-H leader conferences to be held in Hermiston on Monday, November 12, at the Civic Recreation Center. "Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler, Umattilla, Sherman and Wasco county 4-H leaders are all invited to attend this training," invites Mrs. Kem Tellefson, district director. "We feel the committee has developed a good program for the day." The training day begins with a coffee hour at 9:30 a. m. followed by a presentation "The Role of the Community of Key Leader in 4-H Club Work" by a member of the 4-H state staff of Corvallis. After luncheon, at 1:15 p. m., the leaders will resume again with recreational hints you might use in your club by Esther Kirmis, Morrow County Extension Agent. "The Role of the Parents in 4-H Club Work" (a question which most 4-H leaders ask) will finish up the program for the day. The meeting will close at 3:30 p. m. Hermiston leaders will arrange for a luncheon, (around $1.25 - $1.50) for the convenience of the 4-H adults. Any Morrow county 4-H leader that is interested in attending may ride with the county agents. They will leave Heppner around 8:30 a. m.

Little Ads... BIG RESULTS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seward of Heppner have moved to Lexington and are living in the Charlie Padberg home which they recently purchased. Mrs. Alvie Mahan met her brother, Dr. Arvil Bunch, director of education for Headquarters, Department of the Army, Washington, D. C. in Walla Walla Wn., recently. He had just returned from a month's tour of Army installations, in Okinawa, Hawaii, Korea, and Japan.
