

Couple Celebrates Golden Anniversary Here November 11

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. French, Heppner, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cornett Green, Sunday, November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. French were married November 12, 1912 at the home of Mrs. French's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gay, on Rhea Creek and is now known as the Heath farm. They have lived in and around the Heppner area all of their married life and have two children still living here, Mrs. Cornett (Florence) Green and Bill, who makes his home with them. Another daughter, Mrs. Karl (Jessie) Baker lives in Bothell, Wn. near Seattle. They have nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Families attending the dinner celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Baker and children, Charles Estes, Wilson Estes, and Shirley Estes, and friend Bill Knutson, Bothell, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Green; Bill French; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Green and two sons; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green and two children, Arlington.

Mr. French was originally from England and he still has five sisters and one brother living there. One sister was born after he had left and he has never been able to return to see her or other members of the family. His grandson, Wilson Estes, returned in September from a 3-month bicycling tour of Europe with two other boys and spent some time in England staying with relatives of Mr. French.

During Sunday afternoon, Wilson showed many colored slides of the French family living in England and of the countryside that he enjoyed seeing while there.

Dick Robison was home from his training in barber school in Portland over the week-end, visiting his wife, Joan and baby son, Craig, and with his grandmother, Mrs. Maud Robison.

Past Noble Grands Elect New Officers

Members of the Past Noble Grands club of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge No. 33 met for their annual fall dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. Cornett Green last Thursday.

The group does not hold regular meetings, after the fall session. They help with lodge programs throughout the year and if there is a need to hold a meeting for any purpose it is called later.

Following dinner, an election of officers for the coming year was held with Mrs. M. N. Kirk, Hermiton, president; Mrs. Donald Robinson, vice president; and Mrs. John Bergstrom, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Outgoing president is Mrs. Robert Van Houtte; retiring vice-president is Mrs. Randall Martin.

Secret pals were revealed at this time and each member drew names for a new secret pal for the coming year.

Carnation Club Sets Dinner November 27

Thirteen members present for the Carnation club meeting last Thursday evening discussed the annual Thanksgiving dinner to be held November 27 at the Christian church.

The Degree of Honor lodge will furnish the turkey, rolls and coffee, and members will bring potluck for the remainder of the dinner. This dinner is for all members and their families and will begin at 6:00 p. m.

Mrs. Bill Farra gave a demonstration on making art-foam lint dusters for use about the home. Marilyn Bergstrom won the Dutch auction on the prize which had been brought by Alice Luttrell. The next meeting will be December 13 at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant. This will be the Christmas party and the secret pals are revealed.

Hostesses for the Thursday meeting were Mrs. John Bergstrom and daughter Marilyn.

Open House to Honor Morgans' Anniversary

In honor of the 25th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, an open house is planned for Sunday, November 18, at their home in Ione. Friends and relatives are invited to come and greet the couple between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. The Morgans express their desire that guests do not bring gifts.

Making arrangements for the occasion are Mrs. A. R. Crawford, Mrs. Delmer Crawford and Mrs. Tad Miller.

It pays to advertise in the Gazette-Times.
