Judge Wells Speaks To Christian Youth

Youth of the Chi Rho (intermediate) age gathered Saturday at First Christian church, Heppner, for the East Oregon district World Fellowship Youth Meet. There were 43 present with 13 adult leaders representing 7 churches. The theme for the meet was, "The Church and Its Special Needs," which include three areas. They are: The Aging, The Handicapped, and the Juvenile Delinquent. Hal Scheyer, probation officer for MacClaren School for Boys, East Oregon, was the resource leader for the meeting. Judge William W. Wells of Umatilla and Morrow County Circuit Courts was the banquet speaker Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knox, minister of the Heppner church, were co-directors of the meet.

Episcopal Guild Sets December Bazaar

Saturday, December 1, has been announced as the date for the annual Episcopal church bazaar, luncheon and tea. Mrs. Jack Loyd and Mrs. Jim Myers have been appointed to serve as chairmen for the event.

A public noon luncheon will be served by the Episcopal Guild, with special invitation extended business men and other working people in the area. Bazaar items, including cooked foods, handmade work, and various Christmas gift ideas will be on sale, with a silver tea, served during the afternoon hours.

Morrow County Bond Sales Gain

"October sales of United States Savings Bonds in the State of Oregon amounted to $2,532,581, bringing the total for this year in the state to $27,210,913," County chairman Jack Bedford said. He stated that counties in the state showing gains over 1961 in Savings Bonds purchases in October included Benton, Clackamas, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Gilliam, Lane, Lincoln, Morrow, Multnomah, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook and Wallowa. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cecil returned last Monday from San Francisco, Calif., where they had gone to see the International Stock Show at the Cow Palace. Invested in United States Series E and H Savings Bonds which help underwrite our country's might," the chairman concluded.
