FIRST OFF, I hope everyone has a happy and "filling" Thanksgiving day Thursday! We always have big family get-togethers, with lots to eat, much visiting, and playing games during the day at my parents' or my husband's family home. Before that, we always gathered at "Grandma's" house for a big day. For those of you who are going out of town, take care on the highways and come home safely.

EILEEN PADBERG entertained three tables of duplicate bridge at her home in Lexington Friday evening. And from what I hear, with a little confusion as the girls used the Howell movement in scoring. It seems some of them were running around like crazy trying to find who their partners were after each progression. Ask Kay Robinson. Finally Lois Hunt said for her to park and play! Lois won high by a "nose" as she beat Elsie Cole by 1/2 point and Doreen Jacobs, lone, was a close third. All the girls had very close scores in spite of the confusion. Others playing were Juanita Carmichael, June Bellenbrock, Harriett Hall, Mary McLeod, Lucia Cutsforth, Gladys Van Winkle, Gen Leonard, and Eileen.

SAY GIRLS, here's a new tip on hair coloring and spray net combined! I saw in the Sunday paper where a woman was getting ready to go out, reached for her spray net and sprayed away, only to discover it was a can of green spray paint! She left it on as it matched her dress and said she heard not one comment. An Idea?

MARY HARRIS and Hannah Anderson won the pinocle at the Friday afternoon session with Gladys Beckett as hostess. Doris Watkins won high and Mary won low. Also in on the play were Carrie Beckett, Pearl Wright, Millie Evans, and Beulah Mankin.

CORK NORENE called me Thursday, November 8, to tell me she and several others of the Episcopal ladies were elbow deep in fruit cake mix as they were in the process of making 37 one-pound cakes for their annual church bazaar. The bazaar to be held December 1 in the parish hall, will feature many homemade items such as baked goods, fancy work, stuffed animals and others sure to help you with your Christmas gift ideas. Working with Cork at the Norene home were Kay Anderson, Sue Valentine, Hazel Mahoney, Helen Schaffitz, and Virginia Rosewall. They all go together to buy the candied fruit and make the cakes which are then brandy wrapped the next day and stored in a cool dry place until bazaar time. And from what I hear they are delicious.

REMEMBER I talked last week on the process "Freeze Drying". This week I'll add to it. Foods which successfully freeze dry are: RAW MEATS, beef steaks, chunks, and patties; pork chops, patties, and sausage; lamb chops; veal slices. COOKED MEATS, beef slices, ground and tongue slices; pork slices, ground, ham; chicken and turkey dishes; meat loaf. FISH, cod, halibut, and salmon steaks; oysters; fish sticks; tuna fish, shrimp. VEGETABLES, onions; carrots; tomatoes; green, lima, navy and pea beans; peas; broccoli; spinach; asparagus; squash; mushrooms; cauliflower; brussels sprouts; and corn. FRUITS, strawberries, raspberries, loganberries, blackberries, cherries, apple slices and sauce, peach slices, apricot slices, fruit cocktail. Pears and pineapple are being tested. COMBINATION DISHES of all kinds, like chicken a la king, spaghetti and meat balls, chili con carne, and beef and potato hash. COTTAGE CHEESE. Advantages for freeze dry products are: easy to use, rehydrate by adding water and let stand for 5 to 15 minutes, depending on product; easy to store, store at room temperature; easy to handle, they are light weight, up to 75% lighter; nutritive value is highly comparable with that of the fresh products; reduction in marketing costs because of easiness of handling in transportation and storage needs no freezing or refrigeration. Some of the items are on the markets now.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM J. THOMAS are shown following their marriage Tuesday, November 13, in the chapel of the Heppner Christian church. Mrs. Thomas is the former Miss Leta Humphreys, an active resident of Heppner for many years.

Leta Humphreys Weds Wm. Thomas At Quiet Ceremony

The Chapel of the First Christian church, Heppner, was the scene of a quiet, informal wedding Tuesday, November 13, which solemnized the marriage of Miss Leta Humphreys to William J. Thomas. The Rev. Charles Knox read the marriage vows at 1:30 p. m. in the presence of relatives and close friends. Soft organ music was played during the ceremony by Mrs. Virginia Turner.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue lace afternoon dress with small floral hat in matching color. She wore a pearl necklace and beige colored accessories. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid placed on top of a small white Bible.

Light pink flowers in altar vases, together with white tapers, provided the background for the service.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn Humphreys of San Francisco, Calif. She was attired in a blue cotton satin sheath with matching accessories, and wore a pink rosebud corsage.

Best man was Royal Gardner, son-in-law of the groom, of Burbank, Calif.

The new Mrs. Thomas has been a resident of Heppner most of her life, moving here when a small girl and later associated with her father in the operation of the Humphreys Drug store. Mr. Thomas was a cost accountant with Firestone Tire Co. in Akron, Ohio, until moving to Burbank, Calif. upon retirement in 1957. They became acquainted on a European tour a few years ago.

After the service a wedding buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride. Centering the serving table was an attractive arrangement of pink roses banked by pink tapers. Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Gardner, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Knox, Miss Evelyn Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrish, Mrs. Virginia Turner, Mrs. Bertha Hunt and Mrs. Millie Doolittle. Taking care of the luncheon arrangements were Mrs. Theda Stratton and Mrs. John Bergstrom.

The newlyweds will leave soon to spend the coming month with Mr. and Mrs. Gardner in Bur-

Degree of Honor Holds Guest Night

Some 30 persons attended the Degree of Honor "guest night" meeting held November 13 at the Christian church. Many members who have not attended recently were present, together with five guests.

Junior members, Frankie King, Dovie Alderman, and Teresa Bailey, presented the flag in the opening ceremonies. The 16 members of the drill team performed for the audience. They were attired in their blue dresses with white accessories which they wore for the drill they put on in Baker earlier this fall.

Entertainment for the evening included three musical numbers by the lone High school combo of Marvin Padberg, Robert DeSpain, Roland Ekstrom, Steve Lindstrom, and Tass Morrison with Les Madden as the manager. The Degree of Honor Glee club sang one number.

Doris Robinson won the Sunshine prize of the Sunshine March and Mrs. Lincoln Nash won a special prize.

Mrs. Rachel Harnett, Mrs. Archie Padberg, Mrs. Ray McDowell, and Mrs. John Bergstrom served refreshments at the close of the evening.

All members and their families are reminded of the annual Thanksgiving dinner November 27 at the Christian church basement. Turkey, rolls, and coffee will be furnished.
