Evening Candlelight Ceremony Unites Couple In Ione Church

The wedding of Miss Jean Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray, Roseburg, to John Jepsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jepsen, Ione, was solemnized at the Ione Community church Saturday, October 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Rod MacKenzie read the double ring ceremony in a candlelight setting. Organist was Mrs. E. M. Baker, who also accompanied Mrs. Glenn Biehl when she sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Baskets and altar vases containing chrysanthemums in fall colors, flanked by white tapers in candelabra, provided the colorful background for the ceremony. White satin bows centered with green net and small fall flowers, marked the pews.

Candlelighters were Kathy Holtz and Susan Jane Jepsen, both nieces of the groom, wearing satin brocade dresses in shades of apricot.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was lovely in a white nylon net over satin, with scalloped lace outlining a front panel and continuing around the full bell skirt. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped sweetheart neckline, accented by a cut crystal necklace, a gift of the groom. Her matching illusion veil was held in place by a beaded headdress and she carried a bridal bouquet of white rosebuds.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mack Brown of Salem. She chose a Nile green shantung sheath, with matching net headdress and accessories.

Bob Jepsen, Ione, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Elmer Holtz, brother-in-law of the groom, and Rollo Crawford, Ione.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gray wore a blue brocade afternoon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Jepsen, mother of the groom, chose a bronze dress to which was pinned a chrysanthemum corsage in complimentary colors.

The couple greeted friends and relatives at a reception following in the church social rooms. A tiered wedding cake outlined with small wedding bells and swans and topped with miniature bride and groom centered the serving table. Flowers in fall colors decorated the rooms. Cutting and serving the cake, after the traditional first piece was cut by the bridal couple, were Mrs. Harry Moore of Burns, and

Heppner Unit Sets December Meeting

Mrs. Riley Munkers will be hostess for the Heppner Extension unit meeting Tuesday, December 11, starting at 10:30 a. m. Members are asked to bring a Christmas gift of not more than $1.00 for a gift exchange.

No special program is planned and everyone is asked to bring a favorite recipe to exchange or bring their sewing or knitting to work on during the afternoon. A potluck dinner will be featured at noon.

Another reminder is given to all members who have not yet turned in a gift box to be sent to the Eastern Oregon State hospital. The gifts may be taken to the county agent's office by December 1.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Munkers

Mrs. Edna Munkers was hostess to members of the Lexington Garden club at her home Monday, November 12, with nine members and one guest present. Birthdays of two members were remembered and gifts drawn from the club's birthday box. A Christmas meeting was planned for December 3 at the home of Mrs. Cora Warner.

Present were Mrs. Amanda Duval, Mrs. Pearl Devine, Mrs. Oren Wright, Mrs. Annie Keene, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Doris Graves, Mrs. Nellie Anderson, Mrs. R. B. Rice, the hostess, Mrs. Munkers, and a guest, Mrs. Vida Heliker, Ione.

Miss Virginia Jepsen, sister of the groom.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Sharon Wright and Mrs. Harlan Barritt, both of Salem. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Leonard Toll, Heppner, and Mrs. Armand Whilon, Lexington.

In charge of reception arrangements were Mrs. Bob Jepsen and Mrs. Elmer Holtz, chairmen; Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Bob Rietmann, Mrs. David Baker, Mrs. Gary Tullis, and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen.

Passing the guest book after the ceremony was Miss Landa Gray, Salem, sister of the bride. At the gift table were Miss Evelyn Jepsen, Ione, and Mrs. Dale Nebecker, Ontario.

The couple took a two-weeks wedding trip to Reno, Lake Tahoe, San Francisco and up the Oregon coast. They are now at home on an acreage near Ione.

Following their return a reception was given in their honor in Salem at the home of close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Brown. Friends of Mrs. Jepsen whom she had known while attending school in South Salem and at Phagan's Beauty school were present.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson, Portland; Frank Jepsen, Walla Walla; Virginia Jepsen, Portland; Evelyn Jepsen, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Moore and son, Burns; Mrs. Dale Nebecker, Ontario; Miss Sharon Wright and Mrs. Harlan Barritt, both of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, Portland; MA and Mrs. Greg Lickiss, Reedsport; Miss Linda Gray, Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray, Jr., Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown and family of Salem.

Delta Kappa Gamma Has Dinner Meeting

Members of Delta Kappa Gamma had a dinner meeting at Hill Top Manor, Pendleton, Oct. 29. Mrs. James Foster gave a very interesting review of the book, "To Light A Candle," by Welthy Fisher. This is an autobiography of an 82 year old lady who recently was chosen as one of the outstanding "Non Ugly Americans." Mrs. Fisher established Literacy Village in India—a training center for Indian teachers. By 1960, 5,000 had gone forth to teach their native people.

Miss Marquerite Glavey, Heppner; Mrs. Franklin Ely, Ione, and Mrs. Adrian Bechdoit, Hardman were among those who attended.

Beta Omega Sorority Holds Model Meeting

The model meeting of Beta Omega chapter was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Rietmann on November 7 with ten members and one guest present.

Plans were made for the bingo booth that the chapter is sponsoring at the Fall Festival to be held December 2 at the Willows Grange hall in Ione.

Mrs. Alice Crawford announced that the film, "Crusoe of Lonesome Lake" will be shown in Ione Tuesday night, December 4, at 7:15 p. m. at the Legion hall, and in Heppner on Wednesday night, December 5, at 7:30 p. m. at the County Fair Pavilion.

The model meeting featured a brief history of Beta Omega, given by Mrs. Rietmann, and a poem on the scope of E. S. A. by rush chairman, Mrs. Donna Peterson.

For the educational program, slides of Yellowstone Park were shown by Mrs. Helen Lujan. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rietmann and Mrs. Joyce Snider.

WCS Plan Christmas Program December 3

A special Christmas program is planned for members and friends of the Womens Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church on Monday evening, December 3, according to Mrs. Velma Glass, chairman.

The program will start at 8:00 p. m. and will be followed by a

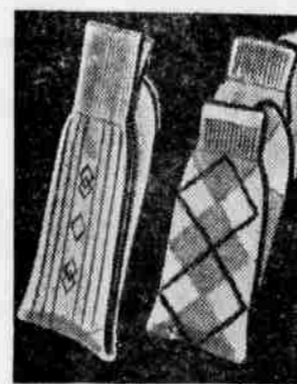

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Wagner and family left Wednesday for Truckee, Nev., where they will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with Mrs. Wagner's brother, Dr. Robert Affeldt. He is a dentist. They will also visit Elder and Mrs. David Bauer and family who formerly served the Heppner Seventh-day Adventist church. They hoped to spend some time skiing in the area, and if so, may not return until Sunday. They are making the trip by auto.

short business meeting. It will feature the singing of Christmas carols, vocal solos, and spoken meditations. It will be held in the sanctuary of the Methodist church, with an invitation extended the public to attend.
