

Dedication Of School Set; Ewald Turner To Speak

By MRS. ALBERT PARTLOW

IRRIGON—Construction of the addition of A. C. Houghton Elementary is nearing completion, and all eight grades are now in the new building. The dedication for the building has been set for December 13 at 8:00 p.m. Main speaker for the occasion will be Ewald Turner, vice-principal of the junior high school in Pendleton, and immediate past-president of the National Education Association. The public is invited to attend this dedication.

The Morrow county OEA met in Irrigon November 26 for their monthly business meeting and dinner. The business meeting, conducted by President Don Olmscheid, was held in the new multi-purpose room, and the dinner, sponsored by the Irrigon PTA, was served in the school cafeteria. Open house was held so the teachers of Morrow county could see the new addition to the grade school. Approximately 60 teachers attended the meeting.

Menus for A. C. Houghton Elementary for the week of December 3 and 7 are as follows: Monday—macaroni and cheese, lunch meat slices, green beans and pudding; Tuesday—meat loaf, grapefruit, buttered corn and doughnuts; Wednesday—fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy and green salad; Thursday—vegetable-bean soup, toast, cheese sandwiches, plums and cake; Friday—salmon loaf, spinach, molded vegetable salad and pudding.

A 4-H sewing club was organized November 27, with Mrs. John Swearingen as leader, and Susan McCoy as junior leader. The ten members attending the first meeting were: Terri Senn, Kay Huson, Vicky Hobbs, Geraldine Swearingen, Joyce Jackson, Terie Eppenbush, Cheryl Mead, Judy Franke, Betty Ritzer and Eddie McCorkle. Officers elected were: Terri Senn, president; Kay Huson, vice-president; Vicky Hobbs, secretary; Geraldine Swearingen, news reporter; and Joyce Jackson, recreation leader. During the meeting, the leaders taught the group to equip a sewing box. Later on, the group will learn the various parts of a sewing machine and their respective uses. Following the meeting, games were played. The next meeting will be December 11 at 3:15 at the school house.

Mrs. Viola Whitt and Christy have moved to Umatilla, and are staying with Mrs. Whitt's sister.

Riverside high school will participate in the basketball jamboree held in Umatilla December 7, and A. C. Houghton Elementary will participate in the basketball jamboree held at Arlington December 8.

A/2c Daryl F. Hobbs, recently home on a 30-day leave, left Wednesday for McGuire Air Force base in New Jersey, and flew from there to Madrid, Spain, where he will be stationed for the next three years in the Air Force.

Chester Wilson brought home a spike elk over the week-end. He hunted in the Ukiah area.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gustafson, Steve and Leann spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

Mrs. Eldon Enright and children were guests of the C. A. Wilsons over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Koch and Denise spent Sunday through Friday with Mrs. Koch's folks. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cook and Rhonda arrived at the Hills' Friday evening and left for their home in Portland the following Sunday.

Mrs. Sedelia Dexter is visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Dexter, in Tacoma, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hardin, who have been visiting the D. C. Graybeals, left Wednesday for their home in Hailey, Idaho.

EOCE students who were home for the Thanksgiving holidays were Misses Ann Schmieder and Sandra Creamer, freshmen, and Sandi Davis, sophomore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Forney of Arlington are parents of a baby daughter, born in Good Shepherd hospital Tuesday, November 27. The baby has been named Kelly Lee, and weighed 9 lb. 3 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanders and Mrs. Forney of St. Helens, who will be staying with the James Forneys for two weeks, helping to care for the new baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berg and Ronald, who have been visiting Mrs. Myrtle Markham and the Albert Partlows, left Saturday morning for their home in Westminster, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilson have moved into one of the Partlow duplexes.

Mr. and Mrs. Rees Morgan are home, after spending some time with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Anker, Douglas and Ross, in Spokane. Mrs. Morgan went to Spokane on the bus, and was joined there a week later by Mr. Morgan. They returned home Monday.

Miss Ethel Hovinghoff, who has been stationed in the Hawaiian Islands the past two years, has received her discharge, and is now making her home with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lee LeBlanc. Her brother, Royal Hovinghoff of Tacoma, spent the week-end here visiting his sister and the LeBlancs.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, December 6, 1962 Sec. 2 — 6 pages

Queen Eileen Rules at School Carnival

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Eileen Ely, Riverside high school senior, was crowned queen Saturday night at the school carnival. Kent Boothman, student body president, did the crowning. The queen's escort was Johnnie Partlow. Princesses and escorts were Paula Williams and Robin Schmieder, Dewena West and Steve Partlow, and Maria DeChand and Glenn Schmieder. Casey Kuhn was crownbearer, and Bruce Russell was the gift bearer. A good crowd attended the affair.

Party Honors Mrs. Mittelsdorf

Mrs. Dave Mittelsdorf was honored with a pink and blue shower Friday night at the home of Mrs. Harold Baker. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Sid Ferguson, Mrs. Delmer Hug, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Dewey West, Mrs. Gunnar Skoubo, Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Eldon Shannon, Mrs. R. B. Rands, Mrs. Don Downey, Faye Anderson, Mrs. Dean King, Mrs. Claud Coats, Mrs. Bob Thornhill, Mrs. Vernon Russell and Mrs. Jack Taylor.

There were 38 present. Guests from out of town included Mrs. Jerry Peck, of Dallesport, Wn., sister-in-law of the honoree, and Eva LaChance of Tacoma, Wn. In games played prizes were won by Mrs. Jeff Hayes, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, Mrs. Roy Partlow, Mrs. Claud Coats and Mrs. Frank Marlow.

Schultzes Honored at Farewell

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Partlow were hosts for a potluck dinner at their home Sunday for members of the Good Shepherd Lutheran church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schultze, who are moving from Hermiston to make their home in Portland. Rev. Schultze has been pastor of the church here for the past fifteen years. They were presented with a money tree as a gift.

There were 45 present. Out of town guests included Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Lewis and three children of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Aase and three children of Touchet, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kress and son Brian of Hermiston.

Club Makes Donations

Mrs. Ralph Skoubo was hos-tes for the meeting of the Boardman Tillicum club at her home last week. The club made a donation to the Salk Institute building at San Diego, Calif., and made their annual donation to the Sadie Orr Dunbar nursing fund.

It was voted to participate in a Round Robin letter from junior clubs in the state. Mrs. LaVern Partlow was appointed to write the letter from here.

Mrs. Don Downey was appointed club woman magazine chairman for the year.

A bulletin was read from Mrs. Wallace Smith, state junior club director, on all club activities for the coming year.

Those who still want to give gifts to the state hospital in Pendleton for Christmas are to have them at the home of Mrs. Ronald Black by December 7.

The Carnation Sister Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. H. M. Walker the evening of December 11, starting with dinner at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Joe Tatone, 7th district president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, went to Portland Monday where she attended a luncheon and meeting at the Ione Plaza on Tuesday. The speaker was Mary Katherine Barnes, GFWC chairman of law observance and crime prevention, who discussed the national street lighting contest, and a new program recently endorsed by the FBI.

Mrs. Tatone was a guest last week of The Dalles Woman's club in The Dalles, where she spoke briefly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, were week-end visitors at the home of their niece, Mrs. LaVern Partlow.

Ann Philips, Portland, former teacher of Boardman grade school, was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dante Daltoso.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wiese and daughters Sandra and Roxann moved to Portland last week to make their home. They have purchased an apartment house there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Rucker of Portland were overnight visitors at the home of Mrs. Rucker's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gantenbein, last Friday on their way home from Las Vegas, Nev. Rucker won the trip as a bowling prize.

Mrs. George Sicard was taken back to St. Anthony's hospital Sunday evening. She had just returned from there last week after a two and a half week stay during which time she had major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs returned home last week from a week's trip to Merced, Calif., where they visited at the home of Briggs' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Briggs. They also visited in Sacramento, at the home of Mrs. Briggs' cousin, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stilson. An overnight visitor at the Briggs home on their return was Robert Kress of Milwaukie.

The temperature dropped to 17 above here last Thursday morning, which is the coldest so far this fall. The trees were covered with frozen fog all day, with the maximum 37 above.

W. G. Seehafer is recuperating from surgery at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter Corley, in Corvallis after being a patient at the Good Samaritan hospital there.

Jay Bunch left Saturday to return to the Treasure Island Naval Base at San Francisco, Calif., after visiting the past three weeks at the home of his brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prevost.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer went to Ione Sunday to attend the Fall Festival at the grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Flock and daughters Lorraine and Renee of PeEll, Wn. are visiting at the home of Mrs. Ervin Flock.

Greenfield Grange will have a Christmas party and program with exchange of gifts at their regular meeting the evening of December 13, starting with potluck supper at 6:30.

Menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of December 10 through 14 are as follows: Monday—hot dogs, buttered corn, salad, apple sauce and cookies. Tuesday—spaghetti with meat sauce, salad and hot French bread, jello with whipped cream. Wednesday—creamed chicken with biscuits, green beans, cobb-

Needlettes Elect; Plan New Projects

The Needlettes organized at Karen Ham's home on November 23. Ruth McCabe is our leader again this year. We have one new member, Shirley Hicks.

The main item of business was to elect officers. Shirley Hicks was elected president; Elaine Gaarsland, vice president; Karen Hams, secretary; and Arleta McCabe, news reporter.

The club members discussed projects to do during the year. Going on a buying trip, washing sweaters, and making a color wheel were just a few ideas mentioned.

Our next meeting will be an afternoon meeting at Arleta McCabe's on December 8. We will clean and adjust our machines at the meeting.

Arleta McCabe, reporter

Even Non-Skiers

WILL ENJOY A GIFT FROM PECKS' SKI SHOP

We Have

- Quilted Parkas
- Plain Parkas
- Stretch Pants
- Socks
- Mittens
- Caps

WE RENT SKI OUTFITS

Pecks' Ski Shop

Hours 4 to 6 And 7 to 9 p.m. Week Days
Except Mondays. And All Day Saturdays
HEPPNER, OREGON

FREE SHOW SATURDAY

Dec. 8, 2 p.m., American Legion Hall, Heppner

ALL KIDS INVITED

TO THIS SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MOVIE IN COLOR--

"ALL MINE TO GIVE"

FULL LENGTH FEATURE, PLUS

COLOR CARTOONS: "Woody Woodpecker Plays Santa" and "A Visit To Santa's Workshop"

SHOW OUT AT 4 P. M.

See SANTA CLAUS

ON HIS SECOND TRIP TO HEPPNER

Saturday, December 15

11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Downtown

Treats For The Kiddies

THIS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM SPONSORED BY:
HEPPNER ELKS LODGE
HEPPNER-MORROW COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
HEPPNER POST, AMERICAN LEGION

SHOP IN HEPPNER

Wonderland of Christmas Gifts!

AND SAVE