

Toledo Services Held for Former Lexington Man

By DELPHA JONES

(Held over from last week)

LEXINGTON—Services were held Tuesday at the Episcopal church in Newport for Charley Alvin Buchanan, 65, former Lexington resident. Those attending from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Vinson, Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson and son and Clarence Buchanan, all of Heppner.

Mr. Buchanan died Saturday, January 5, at the Lincoln Memorial hospital, Toledo. He was the son of Cyrrin Buchanan and Eveline Chase Dawson, born in Uniontown, Wn., October 20, 1897. He was married to Rhoda Edmison on September 2, 1919, in Ellensburg, Wn. Mr. Buchanan was one of the first employees of the Heppner Pine Mill and made his home in Lexington until 1939.

Surviving are four sons; Clarence, Heppner; Robert, U. S. Navy, San Diego, Cal.; Charles, Delake; David, Temple City, Cal.; three daughters; Suzanne Vinson, Lexington, Mary Patterson, Bieber, Calif., and Ida Lohrer, Rose Lodge. Also one stepson, John Dawson, Seattle, Wn., one half-brother, Frank Dawson, Elma, Wn., 17 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom spent New Year's Day in Pilot Rock.

Raymond Schoonover of Portland and Pfc. Stanley Schoonover visited one day last week with their mother, Mrs. June Fields, and other relatives. Private Schoonover is home from the South Pacific on emergency leave, due to the serious illness of his grandmother in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Way of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Way and family of Vancouver, Wn., spent the New Year's holidays with a brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Way, and Mrs. Merle Cornelison.

Miss Alice Wihlon and Kenneth Sellers of Pasco, Wn., were callers one day last week at the home of her father and family, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Wihlon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom and children were Hermiston callers Sunday, taking Mrs. Yocom's sister to catch a bus to her home in Tulle Lake, Cal., after spending two weeks at the Yocom home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and son Kenneth were dinner guests on New Year's Day at the W. I. Miller home. Mrs. Florence McMillan motored as far as Pendleton with them where she spent the day with a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool.

Returns From Calif. Trip
Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned on Sunday from a trip to California. She spent the holidays with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt at Westminster, Calif., and enjoyed some fine sightseeing with them to various places.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg entertained with a New Year's party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Van Winkle, Mr. Roger Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orwick, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. George Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. George Hornum, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin and house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield, of Madras, and the host and hostess and their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bis-senger of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield and children of Madras were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin over the New Year's holidays.

Claire Hunt of The Dalles was a caller at the Dean Hunt home one day last week.

Holly Installs Officers

Holly Rebekah Lodge held installation of officers at their regular meeting on Thursday night. The incoming Noble Grand Dimple Munkers and Vice Grand Edna Fetsch, after being duly installed, appointed their appointed officers. These included Chaplain Hilda Yocom, Warden Ardith Hunt, Conductor Darlene Padberg, Inside Guardian Freda Majeske, Outside Guardian Bertha Hunt, Color Bearer Donna Papineau, L. S. N. G. Maureen Groves, R. S. N. G. Florence McMillan, L. S. V. G. June Fields, Musician Merle Cornelison.

Other elected officers were Secretary Delpha Jones, Treasurer LaVerne Henderson and three-year trustee Merle Cornelison. Outgoing Noble Grand Bernice Wihlon presented all her 1962 officers with small tokens of appreciation. Cards were sent to sick friends, Cleo Van Winkle and Freda Majeske. Refreshments were served later by the hospitality committee.

Past Noble Grands club met for its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Bernice Wihlon. Election of officers was held with the following taking office: Bertha Hunt, chairman; Bernice Wihlon, vice-chairman, and Delpha Jones, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting is to be at Florence McMillan's home with Bertha Hunt as co-chairman. Secret Sisters were disclosed at this time and names drawn for the new ones. Meeting adjourned with refreshments served by Mrs. Wihlon and Mrs. Henderson.

Word was received this week of the death of Mrs. Helen Sawyer in Portland on Sunday. She

Dee Bailey Home From Copenhagen

Dee Bailey, formerly of Heppner and a graduate of high school here in 1957, has returned from Copenhagen, Denmark, with his wife and 2-year-old daughter and is presently in Condon where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Bailey, also formerly of Heppner, reside.

Bailey was stationed with the army in Germany for two years, came home after his discharge in 1960 and then returned to Copenhagen to take a position with General Motors installing instruments. He married a Copenhagen girl, and their one child is daughter Birgitte, 2.

Bailey said that he is looking for suitable employment and was in Heppner recently to visit Ed Groshens, a buddy in service. Groshens just recently returned from Germany and has taken a position with the Heppner branch, First National Bank.

Voice of Democracy Contest Rules Given

Entries are open to boys and girls of the 10th, 11th and 12th grades of schools in Umatilla and Morrow counties in the 16th annual Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S.

Entry blanks have been mailed to each high school superintendent. Each school should hold its contest before February 8 to select a winner. The winning tape should then be forwarded to radio station KUMA, Pendleton before February 18.

The district contest for the Voice of Democracy will be at the studios of KUMA at 7:30 p. m. February 13. The school winner should be present for the contest, but if unable to attend, the tape will be judged.

Further information may be obtained from Vance Colburn, district commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars Contest Chairman, Echo.

Eastern Oregon Bank Gets CARE Citation

In recognition of its service to CARE in disseminating Food Crusade material in the community, a certificate of appreciation has been sent to the Heppner branch of the Bank of Eastern Oregon by the Northwest CARE office in Seattle.

The bank is one of numerous volunteers in the state which have cooperated with the international relief agency. Expressing the gratitude of CARE, the certificate reads: "This Certificate of Appreciation is gratefully presented by CARE to the Heppner Branch of the Bank of Eastern Oregon on behalf of the needy peoples around the world."

is the mother of Eugene Sawyer, formerly of Lexington, and had visited in Lexington and Heppner at various times.

Mr. and Mrs. Britton Price and children of Eugene visited with grandparents of Mrs. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner, over the holidays.

The Lexington Christian church board met Thursday night and discussed plans for the laying of linoleum. Work days will be scheduled soon for members to assist in this church project.

Reddy Kilowatt had a busy year serving you in Pacific Powerland

DELIVERIES OF ELECTRICITY SET NEW RECORD
In 1962, PP&L customers used 7.4 billion kilowatt hours—400 million more than the previous year. Reddy Kilowatt is doing more jobs than ever before to bring you the comfort and convenience of modern electric living.

ANNUAL PAYROLL REACHES $26-MILLION IN '62!
Operation and construction activities throughout the PP&L system provide a major payroll for hundreds of men and women who live and work here in Pacific Powerland. Their paychecks mean more business for the widespread area PP&L serves.

$40-MILLION IN CONSTRUCTION LAST YEAR
And PP&L's long-range program calls for $58-million more in construction during 1963. This action program is geared to produce and deliver vital electric energy whenever and wherever you need it in Pacific Powerland.

$10,825,000 IN LOCAL AND STATE TAXES!
These big annual PP&L payments help support such vital community services as schools, parks, fire and police protection and reflect the large investment Pacific Power has made to assure you dependable electric service.

Now, more than ever, modern PP&L electric service is your biggest value for better living
