Garden Club Hears Speaker

Ione Garden club met at the home of Fanny Griffith with Mrs. Ronald Bishop as co-hostess, on Tuesday, January 8. There were 14 members and three guests present. June Christopherson was welcomed as a new member.

Roll call was answered with each member giving a New Year's resolution on what they were planning to do garden-wise this coming year. Elaine Rietmann gave the Bird report on the Cardinal and his habits, pointing out that the Cardinal does not live on the West Coast. There was a routine business meeting conducted by Fanny Griffith, president.

Mr. R. A. Bentley from Prineville, showed slides of wild flowers, landscapes and wild animals. He also had a display of polished agates. The door prize was won by Vida Heliker.

The garden club would like to announce its appreciation to Eldon Tucker and Pete Hams for collecting the Christmas trees for the Twelfth Night burning, as there was little response by the people of the community in taking their own trees to the burning lot.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson Sr., parents of Mr. Norman Nelson, are staying at the Nelson ranch for a month or two. They are residents of Oak Grove.

The family night movie and dinner put on by the Ione PTA was successful financially. It was very well attended. There were five tables of pinochle in play during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Flossie Marlick, high, and Mr. Dean Graves for 300 pinochle.

Son Born To Sherers

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherer are proud parents of a baby boy born Monday morning, January 14 at the Pioneer Memorial hospital. The baby weighed 7 lbs. and 9 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan will be in Portland for a few days to attend a Wheat League meeting.

Services In Idaho Call Rietmann Family

Funeral services for Mrs. George Mumford, mother of Mrs. Gene Rietmann, Ione, were held in Nampa, Idaho, Tuesday, January 15. Mrs. Mumford died following a short illness Thursday, January 10, in Nampa.

In lieu of flowers, relatives are asking that donations be made to the Heart Fund.

Mrs. Rietmann is the only surviving child. Accompanying her and her husband to the service were Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Ione.

Ferguson on Roll

Allen D. Ferguson of Heppner made the fall term scholastic honor roll at Oregon State University. He is a sophomore in the School of Engineering. To be eligible for honor roll listing, students must make at least a B-plus average for the term.
