Candlelight Church Ceremony Unites Ione Couple December 30

Dianna Lea Pettyjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., of Ione, exchanged wedding vows with Vester Wayne Hams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams, also of Ione, at a 4:00 o'clock candlelight ceremony Sunday, December 30, in the Ione Community church. The Rev. Roderick MacKenzie read the double ring rites. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon and lace dress with fitted bodice, sabrina neckline, long sleeves, and floor length skirt with tiers of nylon edged with bands of lace, studded with pearl sequins. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of lace trimmed with pearls and sequins, and she carried a shower of white roses and bouvardia to which was pinned a handkerchief, 40 years old, belonging to the groom's mother. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, given her by the groom. Maid of honor was Miss Sharon Crabtree, and bridesmaid was Miss Linda Holvorsen. They wore pale green brocade street length dresses with bell skirts and fitted bodices with gathered bands of green net over the shoulders. Junior bridesmaid was Karen Hams, sister of the groom. Her dress was identical to the other attendants, except that it was white. All three girls wore green satin pumps. Their halo hats were of white fur with a circular veil and a single red rose pinned to the front. They carried white fur muffs with cascades of red roses.

Best man was Paul Pettyjohn, Jr., brother of the bride. Ushers were Kenneth Nelson and Bruce Rigby, classmates of the bride and groom. The candles were lit by the ushers.

Miss Karen Lundell played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Biehl who sang, "I Love You Truly," "The Wedding Prayer," and "Because."

The church was decorated with baskets of white mums, red roses, and laurel leaves. Laurel leaves and white candles decorated the windows.

The reception was held in the church basement. Cutting and serving the 4-tiered wedding cake were Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Marion Palmer, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Wes Marlatt, Heppner, and Mrs. Joanne Warren, Pendleton, both aunts of the groom. Pouring coffee were Mrs. E. R. Lundell, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Cleo Drake, aunt of the bride, both of Ione. Pouring tea were Mrs. Sylvia Wells, great-great aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Wade Bothwell, aunt of the groom, both of Heppner. Serving punch were Mrs. Jim Hams, Hardman, grandmother of the groom, and Geraldine Morgan, Ione, cousin of the bride.

Judy Morgan and Marilyn Morgan, Ione, kept the guest book. Nancy Pettyjohn, Olex, and Judy Sherer, Ione, had charge of the gift table. Assisting about the room were Patti Pettyjohn, Olex, and Sharon Lundell, Pendleton. All girls are cousins of the bride.

Cheryl Hams, small sister of the groom, passed the rice bags and David Tucker, small cousin of the bride, passed out groom's cake.

In charge of the reception and decoration of the church were Mrs. Earl McCabe, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mrs. John Eubanks, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Mrs. Milton Morgan, and Ralph Martin.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pettyjohn chose a taffeta brocade of teal blue with matching accessories. Mrs. Hams, mother of the groom, wore a winter white sheath with blue accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages. As a going away outfit, the bride chose a 3-piece red knit suit with white orchid corsage. After a short wedding trip to Portland, the young couple left to make their home in Dillon, Mont., where both are enrolled in Western Montana State college. They were graduates of Ione High school in the class of 1962. Out-of-town guests came from Pendleton, Hermiston, Portland, Corvallis, Heppner and Lexington.

 HAS THE ice skating bug bit you, yet? In talking to many, that seems to be the "disease" around the area now. It is quite contagious and spreads rapidly. Mothers are acting as taxi drivers for the family and the neighborhood. Marie McQuarrie is working like a beaver to get an area of the rodeo grounds flooded for skating use! Good luck!

JEAN BENNETT must have worn her favorite good luck charm Thursday night as she won high and Jack high at bridge club! Lillian Sweek was second, and Inez Meador, low. Gwen Healy entertained the group and others playing were Kay Robinson, Bebe Munkers, June Bellenbrock, Mabel Heath, and Gwen.

DINNER PARTIES were the occasion for family gatherings at the Jim Lovgren home last week while Jay Sumner was home from UCLA. On Thursday they had the Cal Summers and the Tom Summers, Arlington, and Jay. The following evening their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Sumner, Laura Lee and Jay.

MADGE THOMSON, reviewed the book, "The San Franciscans," by Niven Busch, at the Bookworms meeting last week with Florence Green entertaining. This book is a story of the conflict between the very rich and the poor who are trying to succeed as the rich continue to buy their power. Members presents were Virginia Turner, Ella Smith, Marian Abrams, Sadie Parrish, Ruby Becket, and Lucy Peterson. Next meeting will be at the home of Marian Abrams and the members are asked to bring their favorite poems.

OH, OH, ANOTHER error as the wrong name was given for the winner in pinochle at the Episcopal card party last week! It should have been Rita Worden and not Prudy Casebeer. One sure way of finding out if the G-T is read, is to make a mistake!

JAN AGEE won high at the Bridge Biddies party last Tuesday when Dorothy O'Rourke entertained two tables. Mary McClure won second, and Donna Gordon won the traveling prize.

Mary Jean McCabe, Mary McLeod, Janina Johnson, and Patty Prock were also in on the play.

REMEMBER THE benefit basketball games here Thursday (tonight) for the March of Dimes. Have heard the high school girls are challenging their mothers to a volleyball game. Dee Gribble says nothing doing 'cause she doesn't know a thing about the game. Her daughter, Barbara, said she could call for time-out each time she got lost!

JACKIE ALLSTOTT entertained two tables of pinochle Tuesday. Flo Connor won high and teamed up with Jackie to meld 1500 trump. Just a little of added excitement! Jeanne Berry won the special prize and Gail Burkenbine took low. Also playing were Marge Eckman, Beverly Sherman, Carolyn Cole, and Jackie Glennie.

NINE TABLES of duplicate bridge were going last Tuesday night at the Elks lodge rooms. Daisy Collins and LaVerne Van Marter were high north-south; Gus and Mary Jo Hartzheim, Hermiston, second; Marian Jonasson and LaFyrne Pratt, third; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Edmiston, Hermiston, won high east-west; Gordon Pratt and Jerry Jonasson, second; Bill Collins and Isabelle Davis, Condon, third.

HOW ABOUT this knitting bit? If I live long enough and Kay Robinson stays close by I may get my sweater finished! I've seen these gals sit in front of the TV and knit. I tried it, and looked up to see if the good guy got the bad guy and lost six stitches! Kay bailed me out by ripping out three rows of hard work all to do over again! Anyhow, for the beginner, don't look up while knitting!

GLADYS BECKETT joined the Friday afternoon pinochle group last week after a week off with a broken foot and had an enjoyable afternoon winning the pinochle with Beulah Mankin and melded 1000 aces with Millie Evans! Amidst cast and crutches, Millie entertained the gals. Other winners were Doris Watkins, high; Mary Harris, low. Carrie Beckett, Pearl Wright, and Hannah Anderson also made up the two tables of play.

CONTINUED GOOD food buying tips: shop with an eye on specials, because it is the mark of a smart shopper; use low cost protein foods often, such as eggs and cottage cheese; pay special attention to meats; figure the percent of waste in buying meat; for example, price of boneless against price of bone meat; use the numerous thrifty cuts of meat.
