Weather Has Big Variety

Maximum temperature here Monday was 44 above after a week-end of just about all kinds of weather. With about four inches of snow on the ground Friday night, a silver thaw followed, making all roads hazardous for driving. Saturday afternoon it rained and then temperatures dropped to below freezing again that night. Sunday night the fog came in and didn't leave until Monday afternoon. The only kind of weather missing was wind.

Wool Producers Talk Marketing

Fifteen wool and lamb producers of the Spray community braved real icy roads and near zero weather to discuss marketing of wool and lambs Tuesday evening, January 29.

Menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of February 11-15 are as follows: Monday—Pizza, green beans, vegetable sticks, fruit salad and cookies; Tuesday—scalloped potatoes and Vienna sausages, tomatoes and jello; Wednesday—chili beans and cheese sticks, salad and French bread or rolls, pineapple tapioca pudding; Thursday—fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, pickled beets and rolls, fruit and cup cakes; Friday—clam chowder and crackers, pear and cheese salad, vegetable sticks and fruit.

The group decided to form a wool and lamb marketing pool for the area to start operation in 1963. A wool marketing committee was selected by the group with Gus Strecker, chairman, Harry Phelps, Jim Stirewalt, W. I. Chapman and Leonard Palmer as other committeemen.

There were about 1,500 sheep in ranch flocks represented at the meeting Tuesday evening. Those heading up the marketing program will welcome participation in the program by any other stockmen in the area or adjoining areas.

Procedures for determining the number of fleeces to be marketed and the methods of obtaining bids from wool buyers will be considered soon by members of this committee.
