Council Hears Engineer, Approves Town Design

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Holly Cornell of Cornell, Howell, Hayes and Merrifield, consulting engineers at Corvallis, was at the meeting of the Boardman City Council last week to explain the design of site B, recently chosen for the new city of Boardman. The design was approved by the council.

M. D. Van Valkenburgh, The Dalles attorney, was present, and was retained on a monthly basis as legal advisor.

Joe Tatone was elected president of the council, and Mayor Dewey West appointed the following commissioners: street, Ed Kuhn; water and fire chief, Zearl Gillespie; public buildings and park, Arthur Allen; irrigation, Seth Russell; sanitation, Joe Tatone; police, Vernon Russell.

Following the council meeting the city planning commission met to elect officers, and to draw for terms. Vernon Russell was elected president; Wally Hendrix, vice-president; Ronald Daniels, secretary. Mrs. Ronald Black drew a one year term, Arthur Allen and Vernon Russell, two years; Henry Gantenbein and Ronald Daniels, three years; Ed Kuhn and Wally Hendrix, four years.

Arthur Allen and Ed Kuhn presented their resignations to the commission after the drawing, as they felt it would be more advisable to have someone serving on the commission that was not on the city council. Two new members will be appointed later to fill out their terms.

Mrs. Earl Briggs and Mrs. Seehafer met with Mrs. Nathan Thorpe at the Thorpe home Monday to plan the Heart Fund Drive in this area. To start the drive they will sponsor a card party at the grange hall Friday night, February 15, starting at 8 p.m. All proceeds from the party will go to the Heart Fund.

The annual Sweetheart Dinner for the Boardman Tilicum club was held Sunday night in the Saddle Room of the Hitchin' Post Cafe. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gronquist of Pendleton. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tatone, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skoubo, Mr. and Mrs. Don Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. James Harper.

Mrs. Eldon Shannon has returned home from a two weeks visit in Seattle, Wash., at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Parsons.

Mrs. Joe Tatone, president of the 7th District of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, was in Portland last week for the state winter board meeting at the Imperial Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown of Pendleton were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderreg. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs.

A personalized dessert was served by the hostesses with each member's name being written on her dessert with frosting. Gene Harryman and son Louis, Art Vance, Darrel Reisch and Tim Tullis traveled to Baker on Saturday to buy a new quarter horse stallion. The horse's name is Tonto Too.

trip Shattuck visited overnight in Klamath Falls at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Shattuck.

Beverly Donovan of Salem spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Donovan. Her cousin, Bob Dunn of Salem, accompanied her. Mrs. Donovan's mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Dunn, who has been visited at the Donovan home the past several weeks, returned to Salem with them, from where she will return to her home in Oakdale, Calif. Overnight guests at the Donovan home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Lewis of Ukiah.

The Boardman Garden club's annual family dinner will be held February 19 in the Saddle

Room of the Hitchin' Post Cafe at 6:30 p.m.

The Home Extension Unit will meet February 19 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. H. M. Walker. Subject will be "Facing widowhood," with Mrs. Arthur Allen and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe as leaders. Following lunch at noon the meeting will reconvene at 1 p.m.

Greenfield Grange will meet Feb. 14 at the hall, starting with potluck supper at 6:30. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe.

Menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of February 18-22 are as follows: Monday—hamburgers, buttered peas, vegetable sticks, gingerbread with whipped cream; Tuesday—beans and ham, corn meal muffins, salad, fruit; Wednesday—steak, biscuits, cottage cheese, fruit; Thursday—meat loaf, mashed potatoes and butter, spinach, ice cream; Friday—fish sticks with tartar sauce, potatoes, green beans, cherry cobbler. REVEALS BUSINESS COUP TO WIFE

"We're down to our last daffodil" this flower grower announced in a long distance call to his pleased wife. "Sold the whole kaboodle to the seed company for a good price!" Long distance is a fine way to share triumphs with friends and loved ones. For business or pleasure calls, it's still the next best to being there. How about sharing some joy tonight, after six, when rates are even lower? PACIFIC NORTHWEST BELL
