

Graveside Services Held For Mrs. Boardman, 87

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Graveside services were held here Monday at 1:15 p.m. for Mrs. Sam (Annabelle) Boardman, 87, who died in Salem February 14. Rev. Herman R. Burg, pastor of the Boardman Community church, conducted the services. Pallbearers were Thorne Hammond of Portland; Don Barrick, Dr. Leon Barrick and Al Mefford of Salem; Zearl Gillespie and Arthur Allen of Boardman.

Mrs. Boardman was a resident here with her late husband, who died in 1953, from 1905 until 1929. Boardman came in 1903, and she joined him later. They were the first settlers when the country was just a wasteland of sagebrush and cactus, with no assurance of ever having irrigation water to farm their land. They waited for 13 long years before they got water from the Umatilla River down the canal. After they moved to Salem, Boardman was superintendent of state parks for many years before his death.

Mrs. Boardman is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Al (Dorothy) Mefford of Salem, Mrs. Thorne (Helen) Hammond of Portland; two sons, Kenneth Y. Boardman of Salem, Albert G. Boardman of San Mateo, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. M. V. Gaines, N. J., eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Rev. Dwight Kinman of Portland will be guest speaker at the Boardman Community church March 3-6, starting with the Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock March 3, and at each evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Hildred Zell of Wasco spoke at the winter board meeting here Monday of last week of the 7th District of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Zell, who is director of the International clubs in the General Federation of Women's clubs, spoke on her work with the Council of International clubs in the district.

There were 34 present at the meeting which was held at the Hitchin' Post Cafe. The Boardman Tillicum club was in charge of the coffee hour at 9:30 a.m. with Mrs. Dewey West and Mrs. H. M. Walker as hostesses. During the lunch hour Mrs. Melvin Bates of Arlington presented two piano solos.

Reports were given by club officers, department chairman, division chairman and committees.

Each club president or representative reported on the different Community Improvement projects.

Willard Baker was installed as trustee of the Boardman Community church at services Sunday morning, to serve for three years. Zearl Gillespie was installed as trustee for one year. Mrs. Claud Coats was installed as Sunday school superintendent, and Mrs. John Summers as assistant superintendent. During the Sunday school hour, Mrs. Russell Miller was presented with a corsage commemorating her ten years as superintendent.

Grange Installs Officers

Greenfield Grange met Thursday night of last week at the hall, starting with potluck supper at 6:30. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton.

The following officers were installed by Master Nathan Thorpe: Pomona, Mrs. Bernard Donovan; chaplain, Mrs. Florence Root; lecturer, Mrs. Glen Carpenter; Mrs. Andrew Skiles; and Joe Hay were emblem bearers, and Mrs. Earl Briggs was marshal.

The Home Economics club of Greenfield Grange met Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, with Mrs. Cecil Hamilton as co-hostess. Visitors were Mrs. Rollin Bishop and Mrs. A. R. Fortner.

The club is sponsoring the local Heart Fund Drive, as part of the grange's community service project, with Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and Mrs. Earl Briggs in charge. Each member was asked to canvass in her own neighborhood during the drive. The club voted to furnish the prizes for the card party for which proceeds were to go to the Heart Fund.

The Mother's club of Boardman Grade school met in the school cafeteria last Thursday afternoon. Hostesses were Mrs. Joe Tatone, Mrs. Donald Sledge and Mrs. Jeff Hayes. Mrs. Tatone conducted the meeting. The new punch bowl purchased by the club was presented.

Announcement was made of the immunization clinic to be held here February 20, and of the 4-H club used book sale in April. The May Day program was also discussed.

Mrs. Claud Coats was honored on the occasion of her birthday last week when a group of friends surprised her with a party during the noon hour. Guests from out of town were

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg and Mrs. Walter Wyss have been called to Portland by the critical illness of their father, Andy Anderegg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Hermiston were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow went to Pendleton Sunday to visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Marlow.

Menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of February 25 through March 1 are as follows: Monday, spaghetti and meat sauce, French bread or rolls, spinach, fruit; Tuesday—hash, biscuits, buttered carrots, pudding; Wednesday—chili and crackers, homemade rolls and jam, cottage cheese and fruit; Thursday—hot dogs and buttered corn, salad, fruit and cake; Friday—toasted cheese sandwich, green beans, beets, fruit jello with whipped cream. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

37th Anniversary Observed by Grange

Willows Grange celebrated its 37th anniversary with a special turkey dinner served to its members and guests from Rhea Creek Grange and from Salem on Sunday, February 17.

The remaining charter members, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lundell, were recognized and presented a corsage and boutonniere. Earl Morgan, the only other charter member, was not able to attend. During the lecture hour the Lundells told of early Grange meetings and its organization. During the 37 years, eighteen members have served as Master.

The charter was draped in memory of Mancel Townsend. During the business meeting, the Grange voted unanimously to have a committee draw up a resolution opposing the moving of lone schools to Heppner, and to be sent to the county board.

Due to conflicting dates, the March meeting date was postponed to March 24. Exemplification of the first and second degrees will be given at a special meeting Friday, March 8, at 8 p.m. The third and fourth degrees will be exemplified on March 24, following a potluck dinner at noon. Any Grange in the county having candidates ready for initiation will be welcome to join in the degree work. A coffee hour followed the meeting featuring the serving of an anniversary cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail McClintock and daughter, Portland, were weekend visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers. Also here for the Elks Annual were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ramos, Echo.
