Calendar of Events:
Ione Bridge club—Thursday, February 21.
Ione Extension—Thursday, March 7, at 10:30 a.m.
Rebekahs—Thursday, February 21.
Reception for Rev. Rod MacKenzie and family Sunday, March 3, from 3 to 5 p.m.

IONE—The Ione Garden club met recently at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Yarnell with Mrs. Oscar Lundell as co-hostess. Plans for a spring planting of 39 additional street trees were reported. Among those ordered are Blue Ash, Red Vein Crab, Thunderbird Plum, Skyline Locust, and Dolgo Crab. The committee, consisting of Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Ronald Bishop, Mrs. Phil Emert, Mrs. Elbe Akers, and chairman, Mrs. Frederick Martin, has been working the past month on this project, second of a series of plantings, as a result of receiving a special grant from the Sears, Roebuck Foundation through the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs. The club decided to serve a noon dinner to all workers who assist with the planting.

The Ione Lions club, the city council and numerous citizens are cooperating with the Garden club on this project. Sixty-four trees were planted last year. The possibility of organizing a Junior Garden club was to be investigated by Mrs. Emert, Mrs. Ralph Crum and Mrs. William Rawlins.

Program for the day was "Lilies, Their Growth, Care and Use in Arrangements," presented by Mrs. Vida Heliker. Mrs. Omar Rietmann discussed winter care and feeding of our bird friends. Fifteen members responded to roll call by naming their favorite lily and something about the life of Abraham Lincoln. Special recognition was given Mrs. Griffith, president, during the refreshments hour, extending happy birthday wishes to her. A "rigged" drawing gave her the door prize, which was a jardiniere.

Mrs. Hynd Gets 52-year Jewel

The last meeting of the Rebekahs was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn. The committee for the meeting included Mrs. Pettyjohn, Mrs. Lewis Ball and Mrs. Ida Coleman. During the evening a 25 year veteran's jewel was presented to Mrs. Ewing Hynd.

Ministers Lead Discussion

The Topic club met at the home of Mrs. Charles O'Connor Friday, February 8. Two ministers, Pastor Kenneth Robinson of Valby and Hope Lutheran church, and Father Raymond Beard conducted a panel discussion on the "Meaning of Lent." Rev. MacKenzie was called out of town at the last minute and could not participate in the program. Guests were Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Sr., and Mrs. Gene Rietmann. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mrs. David Baker and Mrs. Wm. Rawlins.

Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem is in Ione taking care of her mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson who has recently been released from the hospital.

Mrs. Etta Huston left Friday, February 15, to visit her sister, Mrs. H. A. Rix at Orchards, Wn. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kamrath of Oregon City were week-end guests at the Wm. Rawlins home. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews have been visiting Mr. Tews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Tews in Seattle for the past week. Mr. Tews returned home Sunday, and Mrs. Tews will be home this week-end.

Registration for kindergarten will be for March 1 at 10:30 a.m. in the grade school kindergarten room. For more information about kindergarten, please call Mrs. Keith Rea.

Ione grade school basketball teams will travel to Stanfield Thursday, February 28, for their final game. Game time is 2:00 p.m.

PTA To Sponsor Movie

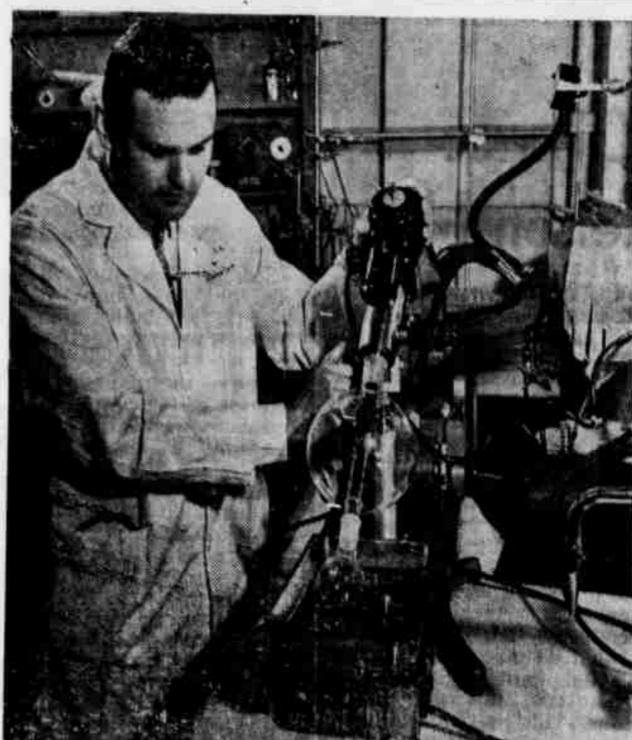

Ione PTA met Wednesday, February 13, at the high school cafeteria. The meeting was called to order by the president, Garry Tullis. Minutes were read by Mrs. Ronald Bishop, secretary. Betty Rietmann reported for the Ways and Means committee that the family night movie and supper which were held on January 13 were very successful, netting $151.00. The committee will not sell sweat shirts this year due to lack of orders. They hope to order them early in the fall if enough interest is shown to warrant it.

Plans are being made to show a movie "Cheaper by the Dozen," on April 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Fred Martin reported on the Basic School Support fund. It was reported that the immunization clinic was to be held on Thursday, February 14 at the elementary school.

Mrs. Milton Morgan had charge of the program which consisted of a piano solo by Terry O'Connor, a musical skit by Bonnie Akers, Teresa Stefani, Denise and Bernice Matthews, Bonnie Morgan, and Pamela Proudfoot. A combo composed of the following members of the high school played several numbers: Bobby Lee DeSpain, trumpet and trombone; Rollie Ekstrom, trombone; Tass Morrison, drums; Steve Lindstrom, clarinet; Marvin Padberg, piano; Dick Hynd, trumpet; and Larry Eubanks, trumpet. Gene Harryman gave a commentary on courses offered by Ione high
