HERE WE are again and with such wonderful weather. Hope it lasts. Still have basketball fever and again this week not too much in card parties. Speaking of springlike weather, are your girls thinking of summer clothes and wanting to store skirts and sweaters? The lovely spring dresses this year are light pastels in plain and prints. Spring fever!

KAY ROBINSON won high Thursday night at bridge club with Jean Bennett entertaining three tables in play. Gwen Healy won second high, Jan Agee, low; and Joyce Ward, the door prize. Others playing were Bebe Munkers, June Bellenbrock, Lillian Sweek, Mabel Heath, Inez Meador, Nadine O'Brien, and Edda Mae Lovgren. Jean served warm gingerbread topped with whipped cream to conclude the evening.

EVERYTHING HALTS for basketball. This Tuesday the dancing lessons were cancelled due to the playoffs in Condon, but they will resume on Tuesday at the Elks building, starting at 4:30 for students and continuing until 10:30 for adults.

MICKEY MOLLAHAN had two tables of pinochle at her home Tuesday evening with the prizes going to Marge Eckman, high; Beverly Sherman, low; and Gail Burkenbine, pinochle. Marge and Carolyn Cole teamed up to meld 800 kings and at the same table Jeanne Berry and Flo Connor could have melded 1,000 aces, had they gotten the bid! Quite a table-full of cards! Also in on the play were Jackie Glennie and Mickey.

HAPPY GRAHAM won high Wednesday afternoon at the What's Trump bridge club when Fay Ferguson entertained. Marge Thomson won second high; Lucille Wilson, low. Others playing were Della McCurdy, Hazel Mahoney, Dee Gribble, Helen Schaffitz and Virginia Rosewall.

THE JIM DRISCOLLS, LaVerne Van Marter, and Harlan McCurdy, Jr. went to Portland last week to enter the regional bridge tournament. They were quite impressed with the event which was played all day and into the evenings. The group said it was a real experience and they did bring home some Master points.

ALL Legionaires and Auxiliary members remember the birthday dinner at the Legion hall Monday night. Cake and ice cream is furnished with other dishes potluck.

DONNA GORDON entertained the Bridge Biddies Tuesday night with LaFyne Pratt winning the high and traveling prizes. Oh lucky you! Dorothy O'Rourke won the second high and others in on the play were Mary McLeod, Mary McClure, Mary Jean McCabe, Marian Jansson, and Janina Johnson.

DORIS WATKINS walked off with high Friday afternoon when Beulah Mankin had the pinochle club at her home. Mary Harris was low and others playing were Pearl Wright, Hazel Hamlin, Gladys Beckett, Carrie Beckett, and Millie Evans. Oh, yes, Beulah and Pearl won the pinochle. I hear Gladys has her cast off but still must use her crutches until her foot gets stronger. Hope it is soon.

REMEMBER THE card party at the Rhea Creek Grange hall Saturday night with games for the youngsters, too. Bring the family for a night of fun.

Auxiliary Members Attend Meeting

Four American Legion auxiliary members attended a planning meeting in Pendleton Saturday. They were Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Heppner Legion auxiliary president; Mrs. Riley Munkers, Mrs. Don Munkers, and Mrs. Gene Ferguson.

Pendleton will be hosts to the State convention of the American Legion and Auxiliary in early August with other auxiliaries of District 6 assisting them. Heppner is asked to have charge of the secretary-treasurer breakfast to be held outdoors on one day of the convention.

The meeting was also attended by Mrs. Vi Larson, Springfield, department president; and Mrs. Not Francis, Portland, department secretary, who helped them with the planning of the state confab. The next meeting of the group will be held April 6 in Pendleton.

The Heppner organizations are having a joint potluck dinner with meetings to follow at the Legion hall Monday, March 4, at 7:00 p.m. The auxiliary will honor the Legion with a birthday dinner and will furnish the cake and ice cream. Members are asked to bring other dishes for the menu.

Heppner Soldier In Air Exercise

Army Specialist Five Richard E. Paine, 25, of Heppner, participated in the 101st Airborne Division's Exercise COLD EAGLE at Fort Campbell, Ky., which ended in late January.

Zero temperatures, strong winds and heavy snowfall enabled the more than 16,000 participants to test cold weather combat training while protecting themselves from severe weather conditions.

Specialist Paine, whose wife, Judith, lives in Heppner, is assigned to Company A of the division's 326th Engineer Battalion at the fort. He entered the Army in June, 1960.

Paine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Paine, 4390 S.W. 196th Ave., Aloha, is a 1955 graduate of Lake Oswego Union High school and attended Oregon State College in Corvallis. Before entering the Army, Paine was engaged in ranching.

Mrs. Wilkinson Feted by Chapter At Friendship Night

Mrs. Dick (Ginger) Wilkinson, chairman of the credentials committee, was honored Monday at Friendship Night held by Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern Star at the Masonic hall.

Mrs. Dean (Lois) Hunt, Lexington, worthy matron, and Don Turner, Lexington, worthy patron, were in charge of the event.

Visiting dignitaries introduced were Mrs. Jean Reed, Condon, grand marshal; and grand committee members, Kate Baggett, Umatilla ESTARL; Lura Demoy, Fossil ESTARL; Margaret Logan, Arlington, chairman of the budget committee; Mary Lindsay, home endowment. Others introduced were Alice Jones, Condon, grand representative of Ohio in Oregon; worthy matrons, Marge Asher, Fossil; Myrtle Winslow, Pendleton; and Reva Looker, Echo. Worthy patrons: Lewis Halvorsen, Ione; Dick Logan, Arlington; Enoch Friedly, Helix; and Carl Rhea, Echo. Other guests present represented chapters from Locust, Ione; Oregon Trail, Echo; Arcadia, Fossil; Ione, Helix; Bethlehem, Moro; Condon; Umatilla; and Jasmine, Arlington.

Some 80 persons enjoyed the program which included the tumbling team of Heppner High school under the direction of Richard Strait. The officers put on an addendum using the theme "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." Mrs. Wilkinson's daughter, Pam Cochell, sang, "Look For A Star." Oliver Creswick sang two solos, "Without a Song" and "How Great Thou Art." Both soloists were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael. Big hearts with baskets of red and white flowers inside carried out the Valentine theme in the decorations. Cutouts of cupids and hearts were used on the walls and on the tables. Also on the tables in the dining room were bud vases of carnations and pussy willows. Mrs. Inez Huffman was in charge of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Delbert Piper, and Mrs. Frank Connor.

Mrs. Hunt presented favors of cologne, tied to a Valentine, to all of the ladies present, and to the men she gave after-shave lotion, each tied to a Valentine.

Lexington Club Plans Millinery Program

A meeting of the Lexington Co-op Biddies is planned for Monday, March 4, at 1:30 p.m. in the Lexington City hall. Mrs. Ewing Hynd will talk on accessories for spring and summer wardrobes, and will give demonstrations on some phase of millinery.

Members and visitors are asked to attend and bring any original ideas relative to the day's program.

Newberg Relatives Visit at Hughes Home

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hughes and family were Mrs. Hughes' mother, Mrs. Dorothy Stearns, and her grandmother, Mrs. Alex Boss, both of Newberg.

Impressed by the vastness of the wasteland on their first visit to the county, Mrs. Stearns remarked, upon leaving, that she would like to "put on her thinking cap and try to come up with some way of putting all the fine, unused land to use." They enjoyed a tour through the construction of the new Heppner-Lexington High school during their stay here. They returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Duvall Visits Sister in Pendleton

Mrs. Amanda Duvall has returned to her home after spending more than six weeks in Pendleton at the home of her sister, Mrs. Niel White. During this time, Mr. White was hospitalized there following two serious operations.

He is now recovering and was able to leave the hospital Saturday. The Whites will spend some time in an apartment in Pendleton before returning to their ranch near Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke, Mt. and Mrs. Carey Hastings, and Mrs. Pearl Steers visited Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Shipp and family in Connell, Wn.

Ployhar on Leave, Joins Family Here

Sgt. Darrel G. Ployhar joined his family here last week following his release on leave from tour of duty with the army in Okinawa.

His wife, Alice, and two daughters, Susie and Marti, have made their home with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Peters on, while he has been away the past 18 months. It was the first time that he had seen his youngest daughter, Marti, who will be one year old March 4, and born while he was away. He is also visiting his mother, Mrs. Elmer Moe.

Last week Sgt. Ployhar and family traveled to Portland, Astoria, and to Redmond where they visited his sister and family, Mrs. Wayne (Peg) Martin.

Following his leave his family will accompany him to his new assignment in the United States. His plans are to continue in the army, making it a life career.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richmond and two sons, Rockford, Wn., were week-end visitors of the Fred Gimels and Don Bennetts. The visitors stayed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hutchens while the Hutchens spent the week-end in Portland.
