IONE—The Morrow County Oregon Education Association meeting was held at the Ione High school Monday evening, February 25. There was a regular business meeting after which Wally Palmberg from the Blue Mountain College, Pendleton, spoke of the total educational program of the college, and its implications on the outlying communities. Other guests were Robert Abrams, Heppner, director of the Blue Mountain district, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick, Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin, Ione. Two girls, Miss Laura Sumner from Heppner and Miss Tass Morrison from Ione, who are interested in teaching as a career, were also guests at the meeting.

The Ione PTA was in charge of the dinner, served to 53 persons. Chairman for the dinner was Mrs. Earl McCabe with Mrs. Berl Akers, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner serving on the committee. Six 8th grade girls did the serving. Mrs. Norman Nelson was in charge of the table decorations, which were made by the Ione elementary teachers of the first four grades, Mrs. Ash, Mrs. Hynd, Mrs. Herick and Mrs. Ely.

Rebekahs to Honor Birthdays
The regular meeting of the Rebekahs met at the home of Mrs. Mike Matthews Thursday, February 21, with 13 members and one guest present. The committee consisted of Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Harvey Ring and Mrs. Ernest Lundell. The group played cards, with Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn winning prizes. The next meeting will be held March 7 at the home of Mrs. Cecil Thorne. It will be a birthday party celebrating all the birthdays for January, February and March.

The Three Links club met Friday, February 22, at the home of Mrs. Wate Crawford with 12 members and two guests present. Hostesses were Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Vida Heliker. There was an election of officers with the present officers being held over for another year. Mrs. Anna Lindstrom won the door prize.

A social meeting of the American Legion auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Joe Gaarsland Tuesday, February 19, with Mrs. Gaarsland as hostess. Cards were enjoyed during the evening.

The Amica club met at the home of Mrs. Vester Hams Wednesday, February 20, with Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Morrison were in Corvallis Saturday, February 23 for Father's Day week-end at Oregon State University.

The social club for Eastern Star will meet Wednesday, March 6, at the home of Mrs. Omar Rietmann with a luncheon at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnett and children traveled to Bend Saturday, where Mr. Bennett attended a Lyons club meeting. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson of that city. They traveled to Culver where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burke then on to Madras where they spent some time with Miss Fern Graves. They returned home Sunday, February 24.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe and Arleta spent Sunday, February 24 in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer motored to Echo Sunday to visit Mr. Sherer's brother, Glenn Sherer who has recently returned home from the hospital in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Fred Herman, Mrs. Clell Rea and Mrs. Dick Sherer were guests at a coffee hour Friday, February 22, given in honor of their birthdays. Mrs. Harold Sherer and Mrs. Marion Palmer were hostesses for the party which was at the home of Mrs. Harold Sherer. There were 13 other guests present.

An average of 30 students per day have been absent from the Ione grade school during the past week due to measles and flu.

Fred Martin and Berl Akers attended the Father's Day week-end at Oregon State University. Miss Jean Martin of Ione and a friend of hers, Miss Iona Majoravicz of Coquille spent the week-end at the home of Miss Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin. The girls attended the Methodist Youth meeting at Allington Sunday, February 24, where they represented the Wesley Foundation of Oregon State University.

The Ione Community church has a "giving project" during the Lenten season whereby the children are contributing to the "Heifer" project through the "Chick" program for South America. For every 25c contributed, one chick will be sent to one of the following countries, Columbia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador and Nicaragua.

Beginning Sunday March 3, the church school will participate in the 11 o'clock worship service.

Mrs. Robert Jepsen entertained the Ione Bridge club at her home last Thursday night. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Gene Hall, high; Mrs. Glenn Biehl, second high; Mrs. Pete Cannon, low. Other members and guests present were Mrs. Walter Jacobs, Mrs. Ernest McCabe, Mrs. Dave McLeod, and Mrs. Ray Boyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers were in Portland Sunday and Monday on business and also took their granddaughter, Kelly, home to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gail McClintock.

Farewell Reception To Honor MacKenzies

IONE—The Ione Community church will be host on Sunday, March 3, for MacKenzie Day, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Rod MacKenzie and family who are leaving soon to make their home in Carmichael, Calif., where Rev. MacKenzie has been assigned a new pastorate. He will deliver his last sermon in Ione Sunday at 11 a. m.

The many friends of the MacKenzies are invited to attend a farewell reception in the church social rooms from 3 to 5 p. m. Sunday. A program will be presented at 4 p. m. Anyone wishing further information is asked to call Mrs. John Jepsen, 422-7180, or Mrs. Fred Martin, 422-7142.

Livestock Club Meets

A meeting of the Butter Creek Junction Livestock club was held February 5. The meeting was highlighted by demonstrations by Ed French and Patti Healy. Ed told how to fit a sheep and Patti told how to show a sheep.

Club Makes Plans For Window Display

The Ione 4-H High Hopes had their fourth meeting February 23 at the home of Mrs. Howard Crowell. All members were present and one visitor.

Our leader told us what window we would have for 4-H club week. It will be in Charles O'Connor's office. We decided that we would fix it March 2. She also told us that we were to model our beach robes for PTA. Our next meeting will be held in the Catholic church basement, March 16.
