A VERY successful PTA Talent show was the highlight of social activities this week. The high school gym was packed to capacity to watch the various acts. What about Billy Baker's singing to the "Battle of New Orleans" record? As the record went faster so did Billy's lips. Very good and fun for all. The record was on the wrong speed. The Elks held a St. Patrick's dance in the club rooms Saturday night with many enjoying the celebration of the wearin' of the green.

FLO CONNOR entertained two tables of pinochle last Wednesday evening. Bobbie Angell won high; Lillian Key, second; and Marlys Phegley, pinochle. They are having a traveling special prize to be given to the person who should meld 1,000 aces, 800 Kings or such. After one night of play no one won it so will be taken to the next party. Others in the club are Jeanne Berry, Mary Lovgren, Bonnie Buschke, Judy Buschke, and Flo.

YOU THINK you have problems? Listen to Jeanne Berry! Two of her youngsters are sick, one with the measles and the other with chicken pox and only one of the other two children has had the measles! I can see she is in for a long "stay at home siege."

DUPLICATE BRIDGE was the menu Friday night at the home of Mary McLeod with three tables in play. I wish you girls would stick to one way of playing this game because I finally got it figured out (somewhat) when you change to this playing every direction! You know east-west and north-south both. Really, guess you all understand the game and I'll just take your word for it! Jan Agee and Marian Jonasson won high; June Bellenbrock and Mary second; Lillian Sweek and Lois Hunt, low. Also in on the play were Elsie Cole, Kay Robinson, Bebe Munkers, Gene Leonard, Eileen Padberg, Mary Jean McCabe.

THE CARNATION club food sale was a great success Saturday despite the weather but there was one complaint, not enough food to sell! The people here really enjoy home baked goods and the delicious treats soon disappeared.

ANN FEHMERLING had Friday afternoon pinochle at her home last week and teamed up with Millie Evans to win the pinochle. Grace Buschke won high and Pearl Wright had low. Others playing were Beulah Mankin, Doris Watkins, Carrie Beckett, and Hannah Anderson.

MEETINGS TO remember are the Little League at Turner, Van Marter and Bryant offices and the Rainbow reception for Shannon Mahoney, both set for Friday at 7:30 p.m.

DEE GRIBBLE, entertained the Kings Little Queens bridge club Wednesday night and carried out the St. Patrick's color theme with a centerpiece of pussy willows with green hats on the branches. Helen O'Donnell won high; Faye Pierce, second; Nadine O'Brien, low; and Marie McQuarrie, the traveling prize.

SEVEN TABLES of duplicate bridge were in session last Wednesday evening at the Elks rooms. Harlan McCurdy, Jr., and Della McCurdy were high north-south; Laurel Van Marter and Eileen Padberg, second; Harriet Hall and Doreen Jacobs, high east-west and Fay Ferguson and LaVerne Van Marter, second. The next session will be March 27.

THE NINE Tricks bridge club was entertained by Jean Marie Damon last Thursday. Those making up the two tables were Marian Abrams, Meg Murray, Arolene Laird, Sue Jones, LaFyrne Pratt, Margaret Siewert, Bobbe Driscoll, and Gwen Huff. Gwen won high, Sue had second; and Meg Murray, low.

HAPPY NEWS for all you beef eaters! Prices haven't been lower in years and you can expect to continue to see more "specials" on beef this spring than at any time during the past year. If you are thinking of buying a beef carcass for your freezer, here is a quick guide: one-fourth of carcass will yield steaks; one-fourth roasts; another fourth ground beef and stew meat; and the last fourth is waste, bones and fat.

Distinguished Guests Visit Locust Chapter On Friendship Night

Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of Eastern Star, Ione, held its Friendship night Tuesday evening, March 12, honoring the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Mary Lindsay, member of the Home Endowment committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. A St. Patrick's day theme was used in decorations, program and refreshments.

Preceding the regular meeting the members of the Ione Assembly of Rainbow for Girls sang "I'm Looking Over a Four-leaf Clover," the four leaf clover being the emblem Mrs. Lindsay has chosen for her year in the East. Sue Townsend, worthy adviser for the Ione assembly, presented the honored guest with a corsage.

After the chapter meeting a program was presented. An addenda was given by the officers of the chapter as they presented a money tree to Mrs. Lindsay. Oliver Creswick of Ruth Chapter sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Juanita Carmichael, and Mrs. Carmelita Halvorsen gave a reading.

The highlight of the evening was an unusual and amusing Style Review, modeled by a number of the brothers of Locust Chapter, assisted by Dot Halvorsen, Dolores Barnett and Katherine Lindstrom, with incidental music provided by Mrs. Carmichael.

More than 80 guests from 14 chapters enjoyed the evening. The distinguished and honored guests present were, Mrs. Bertha Tibbetts, grand chaplain; Mrs. Jean Reed, grand marshal; Mrs. Virginia Wilkinson, chairman of the credentials committee; Mrs. Margaret Treadwell, chairman, Home, Food and Welfare committee; Mrs. Margaret Logan, chairman of Budget Committee; Mrs. Leora White, chairman of Home Endowment committee; Mrs. Ruth Adkison, member of Appeals and Grievance committee; Mrs. Nina Pinkerton, member of Home Endowment committee; Mrs. Alice Jones, grand representative of Ohio;

BOWLING BITS

By JO PETTYJOHN

LOTS OF exciting things happened last Wednesday night when the three women's teams tangled with their opponents! Like for instance: MCGG took three from first place Eagle Valley to move them from sixth place up to fifth and moved Eagle Valley out of a tie with Burns for first into second spot. In other action the Padberg Machinery girls took three from Echo Hotel and moved into a tie for third place with Sheets. And Turner, Van Marter and Bryant lost three to Sheets to drop into sixth spot. I'm sure the MCGG gals gladly will the spot to you!

IN HELPING MCGG's cause, Cherry Herman had high game of 150 and high series of 416. What a nice feeling to find those elusive pins again! Faye Munkers bowled for "ailing" Lois Hunt Wednesday night. Iris Campbell (Padberg) was really knocking the "pins" out from under everyone as she had a fabulous series of 539 (league high for the night) and high series over all the teams of 193 and then got a third overall place with her 178. Those are the nights! Vesta Kilkenny (Turner) is still getting her name in the paper. She had high series and game of 443 and 166. Earlene Miller (Turner) picked up a toughie, a 4-7-10 split! Each team has five more nights to bowl and the excitement is keener as the teams change spots on the placements: Padberg had second high team series of 2597 and MCGG had third of 2549. Padberg also had second high game of 917. Quite a night!

NO BOWLING results for the men's teams as they bowl Miss Jan Friedly, grand representative of Nova Scotia, and Mrs. Mary McPheeters, grand representative of Oklahoma; Mrs. Ethel Hough, worthy matron and A. B. Adkison, worthy patron of Loyalty Chapter No. 65; Carl Rhea, worthy patron, Oregon Trail Chapter No. 181; Ernoch Friedly, worthy patron of Ione Chapter No. 102 and Don Turner, worthy patron of Ruth Chapter No. 32.

St. Monica's Guild Elects New Officers

Mrs. Haskell Sharrard was elected president of the St. Monica's Guild, All Saints' Episcopal church, at the meeting March 10 held at the Parish hall. Mrs. Paul Brown was named vice president and Mrs. Herman Winters is secretary-treasurer.

The group holds monthly meetings and sponsors many worthwhile activities. The highlight of their year is the annual bazaar and luncheon held early in December.

Mrs. Jack Loyd will have the next meeting at her home April 16 at 8:00 p.m.

Public Asked To Join in Gun Club Activities

One of the county's active sports club is the Morrow County Gun club. Meeting regularly each Sunday afternoon at its club grounds near Heppner on the Condon highway, members work for points in shooting skill, entered each week in the Oregon Journal Telegraphic Shoot contest, Portland, by the secretary of the organization, Mrs. George Snider.

Activities of the club, however, are not limited to members, and anyone who has interest in the sport is invited to join them at their club headquarters on Sunday afternoons. Families with youngsters who are developing the skill of marksmanship are encouraged to participate. Third in this year's series of shoots was held Sunday, starting shortly after 1 p.m. Interest in improving the ground's facilities has just resulted in the completion of a new fireplace. The late Bert Kane was an ardent supporter of the club. Standing scores are published each week on Tuesday or Wednesday in the Portland Journal. At the end of a six-week's period those with highest scores throughout the state meet for a grand shoot-off.

Anyone desiring more information about the local club is asked to contact Mrs. Snider at 989-8140.

File cards and guides, 3x5, 4x6 and 5x8 at the Gazette-Times.

How do we thank such a man as this?

The railroad hat is deceptive. Bill Schupbach is a lifetime Standard Oiler, retired. His grandfather, father and uncle were Standard Oilers before him.

Before retiring, Bill was a refinery foreman. His company retirement plan gives him security, and time for model railroading, but his big enthusiasm is still Standard Oil Company.

Bill keeps close to us, and we to him. He is invited to our picnics and parties, receives our publications, and is still one of the "Boys" at the refinery. He knows that he belongs.

It isn't the spoken thanks that do it; but your lasting interest in a man, your counting him as a person and not a statistic, these are the things that live his spirit.

We have thousands of such fine men and women on our retirement payroll. If you know some of them, you know that they, too, are ardent Standard Oilers.

Planning ahead to serve you better
