Couple Repeats Vows At High Noon Mass In Ione February 16

Sharon Lee Crabtree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree of Ione, and William Gelinus of Condon Radar Air Base and son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gelinus of Manchester, New Hampshire, exchanged wedding vows at a high noon mass in St. Williams Catholic church in Ione Saturday, February 16. Father Raymond Beard read the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon and lace dress with fitted bodice, sabinona neckline, long sleeves extending to a point at the wrist, and floor length skirt with tiers of nylon edged with bands of lace, studded with sequins. Her fingertip veil fell from a double tiered tiara of lace trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of red roses and white carnations. She also carried a handkerchief that belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Scheelar. She wore a tiny gold cross, a gift of the groom.

Maid of honor was Judy Morgan, bridesmaid was Linda Halvorsen and junior bridesmaid was Cynthia Scheelar. They wore red velvet dresses and red satin pumps, with white halo hats and carried heart-shaped muffs with corsages of red roses. The candle-lighters were twin sisters, Judy and Jane Scheelar, wearing white velvet dresses and white satin pumps. The flower girl was Nancy Scheelar in red velvet dress with fur head band and carried a heart-shaped muff with red rose corsage. The ring bearer was Ashley McCabe, in a white dinner jacket.

Best man was Rudy Mundy. Ushers were Ronald Crabtree and Robert Guzzo, with John Scheelar and David Baker, assistant ushers. Altar boys were Mike Davidson and Jim McElligott. The groom, best man, ushers, ring bearer and father of the bride were all attired in white dinner jackets and black trousers. The groom's boutonniere was a white carnation from the bride's bouquet, with other attendants wearing red rose buds.

Mrs. David Baker played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Biehl who sang "Ave Maria," "Prayer For a Perfect Life," "O Perfect Love" and "Pans Angelicus."

The church was decorated with baskets of red and white gladiolus and the two altar bouquets were the same, with white candles in the candelabras.

The bride left her heart-shaped bouquet at the base of the Blessed Mother Mary until church was over the next day.

The reception was held in the church basement with the Altar Society taking charge. Those serving were Mrs. Rosetta Palmateer, Mrs. June Crowell, Mrs. Beverly Dougherty, Mrs. Katherine Emert, Mrs. Eunice McElligott, Mrs. Joyce Snyder, Mrs. Ida Salter, Mrs. Flossie Marick and Mrs. Rose Baker.

Cutting and serving of the four-tiered heart-shaped wedding cake was Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen of Ione and Mrs. Archie Munkers of Heppner, aunts of the bride. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Blanche Scheelar, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Don Scheelar, aunt of the bride, both of Salem. Serving punch were Mrs. Elmer Scheelar of Portland, Mrs. Roy Stender of Salem, aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Alvin McCabe, sister of the bride and Mrs. Ron Crabtree, sister-in-law of the bride, had charge of the gift table. Judy and Jane Scheelar of Portland, cousins of the bride had charge of the guest book. Nancy and Molly Scheelar, cousins of the bride, Kevin and Ashley McCabe, nephews of the bride, passed out the rice bags and groom's cake.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Crabtree chose a dark multi-color two piece jersey dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Gelinus, mother of the groom, wore a brown sheath with beige accessories. Both mothers and Mrs. Blanche Scheelar wore white orchid corsages.

After a short wedding trip to Seaside and Portland the couple has made their home in Condon as Mr. Gelinus is in the Radar Unit at the Air Base.

HERE WE are again at the busy time of the year with many school activities, club meetings, and clubs organizing for the summer programs. Of great interest is the up-coming band carnival April 13. A fun-time for all and the money will be used to buy band uniforms and scholarships. Then, of course, this is garden and lawn time, and the fruit trees will soon be blossoming out. Ever try planting a small field with a hand seeder, some fun and I'm sure a good exerciser as you go at a fast walk with your arm winding a crank!

THE GOLFING gals are organizing for the spring and summer play at a meeting Friday morning at the home of Kay Anderson. All golf members and anyone interested in joining the golf club are urged to attend this coffee get acquainted hour at 9:30 a.m. Those not having rides out are asked to call Cork Norene or Marie McQuarrie.

HAZEL HAMLIN and Edda Mae Lovgren were guests at bridge club Friday night at the home of Inez Meador. Kay Robinson won high, and Lillian Sweek was second high. Others in on the play were Bebe Munkers, Jean Bennett, June Bellenbrock, and Inez.

THIS SPRING, and all women's hearts turn to the thought of a new spring dress! Pauline Matheny said she knew she shouldn't try on that dress because it would fit! She had been eyeing this one for several days and finally got "courage" enough to try it on, and sure enough, the dress did fit!

WITH MEASLES at the Bill Cox home, Winnifred switched bridge turns with Rachel Dick last week to entertain the Fyoudas and Fidas club. Rachel won high with Alma Green having second. Club members playing were Florence Green, Lorena Jones, Elsie Cole, Gladys Connor, Beth Bryant, and Winnifred who will entertain the group next week.

DISCUSSION of the forthcoming Legion state convention to be in Pendleton will be the main topic on the agenda Monday evening of Legion and Auxiliary. Speaking of the Legion, I would like to thank them for the job well done on the Friday night movies they are sponsoring for the youngsters. A reminder of the baked food sale April 13 at the Heppner Red and White by the Legion Auxiliary.

MILLIE EVANS entertained the Friday afternoon pinocle players with Pearl Wright having high for the play. It seems everyone had good hands and ended up with high scores and the pinocle changed hands many times before someone won it! Never did find out who it was! Also playing were Beulah Mankin, Janina Johnson, Ann Fehmerling, Doris Watkins, Carrie Beckett, Hannah Anderson, and Millie.

WHAT A wonderful time the sixth graders in Mrs. Inez Erwin's class had putting on their Mexican play last week. They were costumed in Mexican dress, some of the students spoke Spanish and others English, as they depicted different phases of Mexico. The group sang and danced Mexican songs and the band played three numbers. The youngsters really enjoyed learning the Spanish language, thanks to Mrs. Erwin and Mrs. Meador.

HARRIET HALL won high at Renegades club last Wednesday with Shirley Blake winning second and Edda Mae Lovgren, low. Laurel Van Marter entertained the two tables which included Kay Anderson, Inez Meador, Beverly Gunderson, Elaine George, and Eileen Steiger, Portland.

THOSE MARYS did it again! Yes, they took everything last Tuesday at the Bridge Biddies club. Guess it's all in a name! Mary McLeod, high; Mary Jean McCabe, second; and Mary McClure, traveling. Marian Jonasson entertained the group and others in on the play were Jan Agee, Janina Johnson, LaFyrne Pratt, and Dorothy O'Rourke.

SEEN ABOUT town: Hazel Mahoney returning a pipe threader (doing those odd jobs about the house?), the W. H. Wolff family using its own home grown lettuce and radishes (out of the greenhouse!), using milk shampoo rinses in the beauty shop, and the rest of us holding onto our "wigs" during the windstorm!

JEANNE DOBBS is jumping with excitement this week as she told me she won a 19" color TV set last week-end at the beautiful Trade show in Portland! She says she never wins anything but held the right ticket that day. New hair styles and colors were shown at the show and demonstrated for the operators. Some of the colors this year: pink, green, and blue!

MRS. LUCY WRIGHT was greeted by several of her friends Sunday and wished a "happy 82nd birthday" when the group met at the home of Mrs. Lucille Parrish. Getting together for birthday cake and to extend her their good wishes were Mrs. Prudy Casebeer, Mrs. Tom Fraters, Mrs. Irene Avall, Watersberg, Wn., and Mrs. Parrish.

HAVE YOU wondered many a time how to get the first pickle out of a tightly packed jar? Here's a tip I picked up the other day: bend up the ends of an old fork which may be used to lift up the pickles.

Mrs. E. E. Gonty and son, Doug, and Mrs. James McCabe and son, Allen, went to Beaveron Wednesday to visit Mrs. Gonty's mother, Mrs. C. F. Hemrich. Thursday they visited Mrs. Tom Sargent at Cutler City and Friday Mrs. Gonty spent the day with her sister, Mrs. B. J. Altshin, Portland, before returning home Saturday. Mrs. McCabe visited her brother-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Bob) McCabe in Cornelius.
