Shannon Mahoney, Ginny Lou Turner Honored at Rainbow Reception Friday

Some 70 persons attended the Friendship Night and reception for Shannon Mahoney, honorary grand drill leader, and Ginny Lou Turner, grand choir member, Order of Rainbow for Girls, Friday night at the Masonic hall in Heppner. Mrs. J. O. Turner played piano selections for the affair.

Kathy Ray, worthy advisor, Ruth Assembly No. 50, gave the welcome address to the guests. This was followed by the introduction of the special guests who included Mrs. Harold Becket, grand deputy; Mrs. Lorraine Irby, grand deputy, Arlington; Shannon Mahoney, honorary grand drill leader; Ginny Lou Turner, grand choir member; Laurie Irby, grand historian, Arlington; Don Turner, worthy patron, OES Ruth Chapter No. 32; Clarence Baker, worshipful master Heppner Masonic lodge No. 69; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor, Ione Assembly, Rainbow; Mrs. Paul Jones, past mother advisor of Ruth Assembly; Mrs. Gene Ferguson, past mother advisor of Ruth Assembly; Kathy Ray, worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly; Kathy Rea of Ione, Shannon Mahoney, Ginger Springer, Sherie Olson, and Beverly Blake, all past worthy advisors. Board members introduced were Clarence Baker, Harley Young, Mrs. Lucille Wilson, Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Mrs. Marcel Jones, and Mrs. Tom Hughes.

Line officers Brenda Young, Rogenia Wilson, Dianne Schafitz and Kathy Ray gave an addendum honoring Shannon and Judy Jones and Janis Baker sang a song in Shannon's honor with Margaret Green accompanying them at the piano.

Shannon expressed gratitude for her work in the Order of Rainbow for Girls organization and introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney, and other out-of-town relatives, Mrs. Bethene Hiatt and Mrs. Kathlene Mather, both of Pendleton.

Ginny Lou was honored with an addendum and a song by Judy Jones with Margaret Green at the piano. She gave a response and introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Turner, her grandmother, Mrs. J. O. Turner; Mrs. Oliver Adams, Portland; and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Caleen, Mansfield, Ohio.

Marie Van Marter, niece of Shannon, and Jeff Turner, brother of Ginny Lou, presented them with a floral bouquet.

The reception followed in the dining room with Mrs. Don Turner and Mrs. Phil Mahoney in charge. Mrs. Harold Becket cut the large sheet cake which she had made in the form of an open Bible honoring Shannon and Ginny Lou. Also serving were Mrs. Lowell Gribble, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Marcel Jones and daughter, Judy.

The refreshments were furnished by the board members and other cakes were made by Mrs. Jim Myers, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Van Marter, and Mrs. Roy Quackenbush. Mrs. Van Marter had charge of the decorations and centerpiece.

Condon Women Host Mid-Columbia Meet

On April 1 the Mid-Columbia Association of Congregational-Christian Women will hold its spring meeting at the Condon Congregational church. Representatives from The Dalles, Milton-Freewater, Ingle Chapel, Enterprise, Ione and Condon are urged to attend this meeting. Registration will begin at 9:30 with the opening program beginning at 10:00 a.m. and adjournment about 3 p.m.

Dr. A. J. Buttrey, superintendent of the Oregon Congregational Conference, will address the group on the theme "The United Church: No Longer a Dream." Mrs. Harold Miller, president of the Oregon Fellowship of Congregational Women, is using the title "New Patterns in a Ministry of Love" for her talk.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, retired Professor of Religion from Pacific University, Forest Grove, who will give a Meditation preceding the installation of officers.

The worship service will be conducted by The Dalles Women's Fellowship and there will be a business session at which time officers will be elected for the coming year. Mrs. Markham Baker, Ione, association president, will preside.

Bill Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Christensen and son Bob of Pendleton, to Los Angeles, Calif., during spring vacation. They attended some of the classes at UCLA where the Christensen's daughter, Darlene, is a student. Bill and Bob were former classmates in Stayton High school.

European Tour Leader To Give Illustrated Talk in Lexington

Mrs. Helen King, tour director for the coming Homemaker Tour to Europe, will be a special guest of the Co-op Biddies of the Lexington Oil Co-op at a special program Monday afternoon, April 1 at the Lexington schoolhouse auditorium, according to Mrs. Millard Nolan. The meeting will begin at 1:30.

An invitation is extended all women in the area to see the colored slides of previous trips to Europe by Mrs. King, and view exhibits of embroideries and crafts brought from overseas. Instead of the usual scenery shots in slides, she features everyday life in Europe, including test kitchens, typical meals, homes, children, and closeups of hostesses to other Homemaker Tour groups.

Among the cities to be visited on the September 11 to October 1 Homemaker tour are Vienna, Paris, Helsinki, Stockholm, Oslo, Amsterdam and London. Going from Seattle, Wn., over the polar route, the tour will start in Paris, then to Vienna and through the Scandinavian countries.

Mrs. King, tour director, was formerly women's editor for a regional farm cooperative paper and director of their regional women's program, of which the Lexington group is a unit. She has been a delegate to international congresses of co-op women, as well as leading previous Homemaker Tours which she arranged.

Friendship Hanky baskets are taken along with the tours, and the goodwill tokens from American women are distributed to women overseas, thus starting many pen friendships. Members are invited to bring handkerchiefs with their name and address sewed to them. They should be inside an envelope with the full name and address of the donor on the outside and a one page resume of her interests and general information inside. Mrs. King said that in previous years reply letters had started flying back across the ocean and continent even before the tour was completed.

Hostesses for the Monday meeting will be Mrs. Ruth McCabe, Mrs. Ola Ruggles, Mrs. Edna Turner and Mrs. Della Scrivner.

Family Gathering Honors Mr. Neill

Relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill Sunday, March 17, to observe the 87th birthday of Mr. Neill. Coming for the week-end from Salem were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kinton and their two daughters, Becky and Nancy. On Sunday Mr. Neill's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Neill of Hermiston and his niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Pluard, also of Hermiston, joined the group.

Others coming for the day were Mrs. Neill's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten of Kennewick, Wn.

World Trends Subject Of WSCS Panel Talk

Mrs. Norman Nelson, Lexington; Mrs. E. Markham Baker, Ione, and Rev. Melvin Dixon, Heppner, will comprise a panel who will speak at the regular WSCS meeting at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, April 3, at 8 p.m.

The discussion will follow a film strip depicting the world-wide trends of population explosion and mobility; technological lag in underdeveloped countries; juvenile delinquency and will bring out ways in which these trends are reflected in the local community, stressing importance of family and church in providing solid foundations of purpose in present day confusion of values.

Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Baker are active community church workers, both were Oregon delegates to the associated Country Women of the World conference in Toronto, Canada. Both were chairmen of the Home and Community Living and Youth Activities committees, respectively, in the 1958 county ten-year planning conference.

An opportunity will be given for open discussion. All women of the community are extended an invitation to attend and participate in this program on current trends, regardless of present church affiliations.

Dramatic Troupe To Give Play Here

A dramatic religious play, "Rehearsal in Kerioth," will be staged at the First Christian church, Heppner, Friday evening, April 26, at 7:30 p.m.

Characters will be played by the "Heritage Players," now in their fifth year of touring, combining quality religious drama literature with the talents of experienced and dedicated Christian performers. Their work is highly respected by both church leaders and professional people in theatre and television.

The public is cordially invited to this performance. There will be no admittance charge, but a free-will offering will be received.

Mrs. Jim Thomson returned home March 17 from a three-week's trip to Woodland Hills, Calif., where she visited her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walters and helped in caring for her new grandson, Russell Martin, born February 20. She stopped en route in Portland for overnight visits with another daughter, Bernice, in business training there.

Mothers, Daughters To Hear Indonesia Talk at Banquet

Guest speaker for a Mother-Daughter banquet planned for Friday evening, March 29, at the Methodist church, will be Mrs. Fred (Francis) Hartstein, former resident of Indonesia. She will speak of life experiences of her family in Indonesia at the time they were forced to leave with the advent of Sukarno's regime of their life in Holland and how they were brought to our area last fall for resettlement, through sponsorship of the Hermiston Methodist church. She is of Chinese-Dutch extraction and will contribute much interest and information to the evening's program.

The banquet dinner will be prepared and served by members of the Methodist Men's club under the direction of Gene Pierce and Roy Quackenbush. Serving will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the church dining rooms. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Charlene Rhea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea, spent the past week at home from her teaching duties at Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bartholomew of Wishram, Wn., visited Sunday afternoon at the Jasper Myers home. Mr. Bartholomew is a nephew of Mrs. Phebe Bartholomew.
