DO YOU suppose I should talk about the weather? Maybe if I do, something good will happen! Like maybe sunshine and no wind? Ever try squirrel hunting in a snowstorm? I know the skiers were grinning from ear to ear as the big flakes came down, but no more in April, I hope!

LUCY PETERSON entertained the Bookworms last Tuesday with Lorena Jones reviewing the book, "Dearly Beloved." This novel, written by Anne Morrow Lindberg, is the story of a wedding ceremony. It brings out the thoughts of each person involved in the wedding. Members discussing the book were Madge Thomson, Sadie Parrish, Virginia Turner, Ruby Becket, Marion Abrams, Lucy and Lorena.

WAVEL WILKINSON entertained the Duplicate bridge club last Thursday. The four winners were Grace Nickerson, Etta Parker, Hazel Hamlin, and Wavel. The four losers were Sadie Parrish, Gladys Connor, Mae Gilliam, and Ruth McMurdo. Two new members were added to the club and are Hazel and Gladys. I hear that Grace is the only original player still active in the club!

MYRNA SUTHERLAND won high Tuesday night at pinocle club with Gail Burkenbine as hostess. Beverly Sherman was low and Jackie Glennie had the pinocle. Others playing were Velma Cantonwine, Carolyn Cole, Marge Eckman, and Marlys Phegley.

A POTLUCK supper will precede the meetings of the American Legion and Auxiliary Monday night, April 8, at the Legion hall. Special prizes will be awarded.

HEPPNER EXTENSION unit meeting will be at the Fair Annex on Tuesday at which Esther Kirmis, county extension agent will present material on the care of a sewing machine. A potluck lunch will be served at noon; American Legion Auxiliary bake sale will be at Heppner Red and White April 13.

PRUDY CASEBEER and Ruth Bergstrom lead in the Elks pinocle tournament in the first four weeks of play. The group will conclude play Wednesday, April 10. Hannah Anderson filled in for Edna Turner, and she and Martha melded 1000 aces during the evening. Exciting hands, sounds like! Hostesses for the 8-table tournament are Leann Rea, Carolyn McCabe, and Alvina.

LUCY PETERSON received word from her daughter, and family, Sgt. and Mrs. Darrel Ployhar, stationed at Ft. Ord, Calif. Darrel reported for duty Monday and Alice wrote that she could really unpack for the first time since they had been married. You know, that moving bit with the services?

NINE AND one-half tables were in play Wednesday night at the Elks duplicate session. The winners sort of stayed in families as Hazel Hamlin and Bill Blake won high north-south; Daisy Collins and LaVerne Van Marter, second; Elsie Cole and LeRoy Christenson, third. Shirley Blake and Della McCurdy tied with Doreen Jacobs and Harriet Hall for high east-west; Rita Wolff and Laurel Van Marter, third. Their unit party is set for RUBY FULLETON's name was left out of the Rainbow reception story last week. She was in charge of the guest book. One of those old errors we try not to let happen.

BOBBY DOBBS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dobbs, entertained friends on his 13th birthday last Friday. Guests were Gary Ball, Steve Pettyjohn, Earl Ayres, John Rawlins, John Van Winkle, Bill Stockard, and Terry Prock. The lads enjoyed a fried chicken dinner served in the banquet room at the Wagon Wheel with all the trimmings. They might have over-eaten just a bit? Later in the evening the boys played games and watched TV at the Dobbs home. this Sunday, April 7, 2 p.m.

Rainbow Girls Plan Busy Two Months

Four new members were welcomed into Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at the meeting Monday night. The girls, Vickie Robinson, Mary Pierce, Linda Clark, and Christine Munkers, were initiated to the Order March 18.

Sherri Olson acted as worthy advisor pro tem, and Shannon Mahoney acted as associate worthy advisor pro tem for the meeting due to illness of the officers.

Many ideas were discussed and plans made for activities during the next two months. The girls will sell Easter lilies downtown in front of the J. C. Penney store Saturday between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

They will sell candy after the Heppner High school play next week with Nancy Cleveland in charge of this project. Coming up soon, the girls are planning a public card party to help raise money to send all of the officers to the grand assembly in Curvallis in mid-June. Brenda Young will head the committee to organize the card party.

The Nursing home patients at Pioneer Memorial hospital will again be treated with Easter favors made by the Rainbow girls. Barbara Gribble will be chairman of the group.

Shannon Mahoney reported on the charter ceremonies held at the Ione assembly last Tuesday.
