

Cheryle Lundell Wins First Place In Law Contest

Cheryle Ann Lundell, sophomore of Ione High school, has won first place and a $25 Savings Bond in the Sixth Judicial Bar association's Law Day contest, James C. Walton, Pendleton attorney, announces. He was co-chairman of the annual contest for Morrow and Umatilla counties.

Miss Lundell will be presented the savings bond in a ceremony at the school.

Her winning editorial is as follows:

Modern law, is putting it simply, society's safeguard. We, as citizens of the United States, through such documents as the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights, have been endowed with certain rights, natural, civil, religious, and acquired. Law guarantees that these rights will be preserved. An outstanding example of this is found in the Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are endowed with certain inalienable rights. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." It is by these governments that we are protected and restrained through the law.

Through the ages, power was unlimited in the hands of the authority of the state. Gradually, though, an argument developed that individuals and groups had certain inalienable rights which could not be limited by those in authority. It was on this basis that our democratic government and country were reared; it is through this idea that our laws are made and being administered.

Our natural rights are a wonderful gift, something that the state must not go against, but rather preserve, and guarantee to us, its citizens. The state is also instituted to grant rights as between individuals, and to advance the common good by promoting the prosperity and peace of its citizens.

The legal and governmental institutions of Western Civilization are based upon these principles, disclosing that law is the rule of right, not might.

Hynds Enjoy Trip To South Mexico

Herb and Jack Hynd, and Jack's son, Dick, all of Cecil, together with Frank Lewellyn of Pendleton, returned Friday from a 10-day trip to southern Mexico. They made the jaunt in Lewellyn's airplane and went as far as Mazatlan on the Gulf of California.

One of the main purposes of the jaunt was to do some big game fishing. They caught a few sailfish but no marlin.

They enjoyed the picturesque country that they saw. There are no lawns in cities of that part of Mexico except in parks. Tile sidewalks and floors, however, attracted their admiration.

Being that far south the group saw what they termed as "the real Mexico" instead of being in border towns that cater to the tourists. However, Mazatlan, a city of 41,000, is making a bid for tourists, hoping to entice visitors from Acapulco and other favorite spots.

The four-place Cessna, owned by Lewellyn, a nephew of the Hynds, proved a comfortable way to travel.

Mustangs Drop League Opener

Heppner High's baseball team lost its league opener to Sherman County on the Riverside High diamond at Boardman Saturday, 5 to 3, but came back to take a non-counting, second game in five innings, 7 to 2.

Heppner got a good start in the opener with two runs in the first inning, but Sherman County scored a pair in the second off two errors. It remained knotted through the regulation seven innings. In the extra frame, Sherman scored three on three Heppner errors. The Mustangs came back with one but fell short.

Ken Smith gave up three hits, walked three and struck out eight for Heppner, going all the way on the mound. Grabenhorst of Sherman allowed four hits, two by Smith, and one each by Shan Applegate and Dick Springer. He walked four and struck out 10.

In the second game Fred Harnden didn't yield any hits, but Sherman picked up two runs on eight walks and six Heppner errors. Harnden struck out seven.

The Mustangs opened with five in the first and finished with two in the fourth. Their three hits were by Harnden, Lee Daggett and Rodney Ayers, all singles. Three Sherman pitchers walked nine and struck out only one.

Next for the Mustangs on the league list are the Pilot Rock Rockets there Saturday, weather permitting. Opening game, a 7-inning counter, will start at 1 p.m. and an abbreviated kings-x game will follow.

Coach Pete Glennie dubs Pilot Rock the team to beat in the circuit.

High School Play Gets Merit Award

A one act play, "Sorry, Wrong Number," won an award of merit at the 14th annual One Act Play Festival at Pacific University on Saturday for the drama department of Heppner High school.

One of its actors, Marcia Rands, was awarded a merit for outstanding performance in the play. Others in the cast were Ginny Moore, Pam Cocheil, Kitty O'Hara, Kathy Ray, Bill Sherman, Larry Muessig and Don Majeske. Mike Smith handled special sound effects and staging. It was directed by Mrs. Janet Groves, drama and speech instructor.

Two schools who took top awards of excellence for their plays were Forest Grove Union High and North Salem High school. Awards of merit, besides Heppner, went to Hillsboro, Gresham Union and Parkrose Senior High, Portland. Ten schools presented plays in the festival.

Also under the direction of Mrs. Groves, the debate team traveled to Corvallis last weekend where they entered the state speech tournament. Debate team members are Ann Jones, Laura Lee Sumner and Mari Dixon, and Mary Johnson entered in radio speaking competition. Competition was keen and they failed to place in the tournament.

Spring Cow Cutting Turnout Sets New Record

Inclement weather, wet grounds and mud failed to daunt visiting cow cutters and Wranglers at the fourth annual spring cow cutting event here Saturday and Sunday. Despite the elements, the Wranglers this week looked back on one of the most successful spring meets which brought a record participation.

Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

After a false start for two weeks in a row, ten golfing gals made it around on Tuesday. With my face red and my ears burning for not spreading the word that the front burner at the Wishing Well was turned off, (I'm sorry gals), we proceeded to hit into the water, which isn't hard right now. Not one gal played up to her ability, but Hester Creswick nearly did, and won a golf ball for low score. Cora Mae Ferguson and Cork Norene tied for hidden hole with Cork winning the toss.

Also playing were Roberta Dougherty, Janet Turner, Helen Schaffitz, Hazel Mahoney, Marie McQuarrie, Dee Gribble, Lois Hunt and Kay Robinson.

Judge Carmichael finished his round Tuesday just in time to mow the greens—was real thoughtful of him—Thank s, Judge.

The hard work and planning has paid off this time—high water hasn't done the damage that it has in the past.

A group of five couples played golf at Bowman's golf course at Welches—with inches of water to slosh through and tons of snow to brush out of the way, and what wind! Couldn't hardly call it play—we worked at it—but a good time was had by all.

A good many golfers have posted enough scores to start figuring handicaps. Come on, handicap committee, get busy—we'll have visitors to play in May.

Assembly Service Bills Missionary

Rev. James Kessler, who as superintendent of the Ghana, West Africa, Assemblies of God fellowship supervised 98 organized churches and 146 preaching points with more than 5000 adult members, will speak at the Sunday morning worship service at the Assembly of God here, the Rev. Bill Alsop, pastor, announces.

The service will start at 11 a.m. The Rev. Kessler has spent two terms of missionary service in Ghana. During his first term the nation gained its independence as the first African colony to do so.

He is also principal of the Southern Ghana Bible school at Saltpond, located between the two important coast cities of Accra and Takoradi. The school serves students from all parts of southern Ghana.

Curious that he has brought from Africa will be on display. The public is invited to attend the service.

Forty-nine riders took part on 26 different horses, and only four of the horses were local entries. Others came from as far as Edmonton, Canada. Some 100 other visitors, in addition to the riders, came to witness the event, camping in trailer houses or staying in local motels and hotels.

When the rodeo grounds became a quagmire because of the recent rains and snow that extended until near starting time of the cow cutting, most of the events were transferred to the Wrangler grounds. All of Sunday's program was run off there.

Saturday's winner in the open cow cutting was shared, via a tie, between Pecos Man, owned by Melvin McGuire and ridden by Charlie Nix, both of Yakima, Wn., and Sultan Taylor, owned and ridden by John Tangeman, also of Yakima. Each scored 72 points. Tied for second were Lucky Boy A, owned by Circle M Trailer Sales of Portland and ridden by Shirley Bartlett of Deer Island, and Soto Bailey, owned and ridden by McGuire, each with 71 points.

In Sunday's open cow cutting, Blondie, owned and ridden by Curly Southern of Salem, won first with 71 points, followed by Sultan Taylor, ridden by Tangeman, second with 70; and a tie for third between Maestro, owned by Ralph Beamer of Heppner and ridden by Buster Smith of Gold Hills Stable, Seattle, and Pecos Man, ridden again by Nix.

In registered cow cutting, Saturday's winner was Maestro, ridden by Smith, with 73 points, followed by Lucky Boy A, ridden by Shirley Bartlett, with 72, and Domino Melody in third, owned and ridden by Ralph Beamer, with 71 points.

On Sunday, tops in the registered event was Ann D'Or, owned and ridden by Tom Fox of Edmonton, Canada, with 73 points, followed by Soto Bailey, ridden by McGuire, with 71, and tied for third, Pecos Man, ridden by Nix, and Maestro, ridden again by Buster Smith.

Evelyn Broun walked off with the belt for the best average time in the barrel race, but Diana Fullerton of Heppner had the best time for a single go-round with her 20.1 Mrs. Broun won the first go-round Saturday with a time of 20.4 and was third in the second running. Second place winner in the first go-round was Mrs. Broun's daughter, Jackie, followed by Erna Winchester of Heppner. Erna took second on the second running. Mrs. Broun's total time was 40.9, and she received the trophy belt given by Mrs. Harold Erwin and daughter Shirley.

In the women's cutting, Buck, owned by Melvin McGuire and ridden by Mrs. Charles Nix, was the winner, and Lucky Boy A, ridden by Shirley Bartlett, was second. Two local riders tied for third, Judy Currin, mounted on Blondie, and Jan Beamer on Domino Melody shared the honors.

Roice Fullerton and Floyd Jones had the best time in team roping and won the second go-round in 33.2. Cornett Green and Ron Currin topped the field in the first go-round.

Other events were as follows: Junior novice cow cutting—(Saturday): Arrow Kokomo, owned and ridden by Dick Wilde, Redmond, first, 69 points; four-way tie for second, Champ's BimBam, owned by Art Fullbright, Yakima, and ridden by Janet Huston, Yakima, Joe Pokey, owned and ridden by Fred Fitzgibbon, Portland, Be Waddy Redstar, Joe Pokey, owned and ridden by Robert Beck, Portland, and Hairpin Flash, owned and ridden by Bruce Ripley, Bothell, Wn. (formerly owned by Floyd Jones), all with 67 points.

Novice cow cutting (Sunday): Arrow Kokomo, Dick Wilde, first, 69 points; 2-way tie for second, Becky Bar, owned and ridden by Howard Bryant, Heppner, and Joe Pokey, Fitzgibbon, both with 65 points.

Novice cow cutting (Saturday)—three-way tie, King Reed, Southern and Domino Melody, Beamer, each with 69 points; 2-way tie for second, Champ's BimBam, Smith, and Nug Bar, Jr., owned by Ival Sutherland and ridden by Francis Stiller, both of Walla Walla, Wn., each with 68.
