OH HUM! The kids are just counting the days until school is out, and come to think of it, so am I! Maybe the pace around here will slow down a little. There should only be swimming and Little League to chauffeur the young ones to and from.

AFTER SOME slugging I finally ran down the results of the Bridge Biddies doings of last week. It seems Mary McClure is in the middle of spring house cleaning so she traded with LaFyne Pratt for last week's duplicate bridge for a change and Marian Jonasson won high. Mary Jean McCabe and Janina Johnson tied for second. Jan Aage and Mary McClure each won potted geraniums. Others playing were Mary McLeod, and Dorothy O'Rourke.

OOPS, MISSED again! I missed some who had a part in the 50th wedding reception for Earl and May Gilliam. Oma Cox, cousin of May, assisted about the rooms. Ona Gilliam, sister of Earl, had charge of the guest book and another sister, Mrs. Charles (Hazel) Vaughn, poured at the serving table during the afternoon. Also pouring was Mrs. Earl (Margaret) Blake. Clinton Gilliam, brother of Earl, who lives in Carmel, Calif., was unable to attend the gala occasion. Sorry, to have missed the names. Guess when May and I were comparing notes, we just reminisced too much about everything!

MARGE ECKMAN entertained the pinochle club at her house Tuesday evening with Gail Burkenbine furnishing the banana cream pie dessert before play began. Guests included Velma Cantonwine, Carolyn Cole, Joyce Phegley, Myrna Sutherland, Mickey Mollahan, and Jackie Glennie. Velma won high; Carolyn, low; and Joyce won the pinochle.

WITH REMODELING going on at the Ned Sweeks, Lillian entertained with bridge at the home of Bebe Munkers last Thursday. And with many conflicts and too late for substitutes they ended up with one table and lots of fun! Ah ha, that's one way to win all of the prizes! Kay Robinson was high, Bebe Munkers was low, and Mary McLeod was second.

MARY HARRIS won high and teamed up with Gladys Beckett to win the pinochle at club Friday afternoon with Gladys entertaining the group. Ann Fehmerling won low. Others playing were Millie Evans, Pearl Wright, Janina Johnson, Carrie Beckett, and Hannah Anderson.

MAY GILLIAM entertained the Duplicate bridge club at her home Thursday evening with Sadie Parrish, Helen Cohn, Wavel Wilkinson, and Ruth McMurdo on the winner's side. Gladys Connor, Hazel Hamlin, Lucille Wilson, and May were on the loser's side. This group gets together twice monthly and is the oldest club in town. May says they have been playing for more than 20 years and still enjoy it very much.

THE AMERICAN Legion auxiliary served a chicken dinner for the Chamber of Commerce banquet Monday night. President Hazel Hamlin says all worked like "beavers" to make it a success. Those helping were Bebe Munkers, Ruby Munkers, Agnes Flug, Donna McCurdy, Jean Bennett, Judy Buschke, Joyce Ward, Mabel Heath, Hazel Baumman, Junior girls serving the dishes were Kathy and Sue Melby, Barbara Blake, Karen McCurdy, and Patricia Van Winkle. And the Legionnaires helping were Glen Ward, Bill Blake, Riley Munkers, Bill Heath, Elmer Heath, and Don Bennett. They poured coffee and washed dishes. Boy, could they wash dishes, according to reports. Many thanks go to the ladies who furnished the angel food cake and whipped cream for the dessert.

POTATOES ARE our most popular vegetable and world's largest vegetable crop. Pointers for cooking potatoes: wrapping potatoes in foil gives you a steamed rather than a baked potato; uncovering potatoes after they have been boiled and drained helps keep them from getting soggy; pricking or breaking open baked potatoes when they come from the oven will also keep them from becoming soggy; when cooking potatoes, cook extra ones for later use, cool, cover, and store in refrigerator. Second-day mashed potatoes may be appetizing by seasoning with salt, pepper, onion, and one or two beaten eggs (depending on amount of potatoes), forming into patties and drop into hot bacon fat or butter. Flaked salmon or tuna or other meats finely cut-up may be added to the patty mixture.

WATCH SPECIALS for good meat buys as beef is plentiful and some pork. Remember that price per pound is not the best method for determining a bargain. Take into consideration the grade of meat and the edible meat per pound. If meat has much bone or gristle, one pound may serve only one; if the cut has no bone, it may serve as many as five persons. Eggs are the number one protein buy, use them often. Local fresh produce is beginning to come to the markets.

Club Plans Picnic

The Knit-Wit club held a meeting at the home of Delbert McLachlan. All members were present. We talked about having a picnic in the mountains. The next meeting will be at Peggy Taylor's home.

Wedding Reception To Honor A. Keenes In Lexington June 2

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keene, lone, will be honored on their Golden Wedding anniversary at an open house reception at the Lexington IOOF Hall on Sunday afternoon, June 2. Friends and relatives are asked to call between the hours of 2:30 and 5:00 p.m. and the couple expresses wishes that guests do not bring gifts.

The honored couple was married June 5, 1913, at the family home in the Social Ridge area. They have lived their married years in the Rhea Creek and lone areas.

Arrangements for the special occasion are being made by their two daughters, Mrs. Bryce Keene and Mrs. L. A. McCabe.

Rainbow to Install At May 24 Ceremony

Diane Schaffitz will be installed worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly of Rainbow for Girls at public installation on Friday evening, May 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Hall. Diane is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Schaffitz, Heppner.

Other officers for the coming year are: Rogenia Wilson, associate worthy advisor; Brenda Young, charity; Barbara Blake, hope; Pam Cochell, faith; Jan Hager, love; Janice Baker, religion; Teresa Munkers, nature; Maralie Murray, immortality; Martha Peck, fidelity; Cynthia Smith, patriotism; Barbara Gribble, service; Shirley Erwin, confidential observer; Peggy Snyder, outer observer; Laura Lee Stotts, musician; Judy Jones, choir director; Jean Siewert, recorder; Barbara Bloodsworth, treasurer; Margaret Green, chaplain, and Kitty O'Harra, drill leader. Mrs. Jim Myers is mother advisor. Relatives and friends are extended a cordial invitation to attend the installation ceremonies.

Beta Omega Holds Installation Meeting

IONE—The regular business meeting of Beta Omega was held at the home of Mrs. Donna Peterson on May 1, with Mrs. Ted Palmateer as co-hostess. Final plans were made for the annual banquet to be held at the Legion hall on May 18. Mrs. Joe Hausler gave a very interesting report on the state convention held at Roseburg which she attended as the chapter's delegate.

Mrs. Beverly Doherty, incoming president, announced her committees for next year and Mrs. Betty Rietmann presented the educational program for 1963-64. President Darlene Hoskins read the jewel pin ceremony for Janet Lindstrom and installed the incoming officers. Refreshments were served to the 16 members present.

Youth Participate In Living Rosary

The annual May crowning and living rosary was held Sunday evening, May 5, at St. Patrick's and St. Williams Catholic churches. Chosen as May Queen was Martha Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doherty. Shan Applegate, son of Mrs. Gertrude Applegate, was crown bearer, and princesses and their escorts were Jacquie Brindle, Lorraine Leonnig, Carol Tholberg, Louise Pointer, Ginny Moore, Lee Daggett, Tony Doherty, Larry Monagle, Mike Smith and Tom Laird.

Statue bearers for the procession were Tom Rawlins, Jim McElligott, Mitch Ashbeck and Kenny Evans. Altar servers were Philip Ayres, Bobby Warden, John Rawlins, Earl Ayres. Children of both parishes participated in the living rosary, with sermon and benediction by Father Raymond Beard. Organist was Mrs. Herman Stroeber.

Decorating the church were pink and white blossoms. The May Queen wore a pink rosebud crown and attendants wore white rosebuds.

Club Adds Member

During April, the Needleettes 4-H club held four work meetings. One meeting was held at Shirley Hicks, two at Elaine Gaarslands, and one at Karen Hams. Some of the girls have started on their second garments. A new member, Cheryl Smouse, joined the club in April. She is making a blouse as her first project. Her membership made the Needleettes a standard club with five members. Arleta McCabe, reporter

Mrs. Raymond Pettyjohn and daughter, Betty, Arlington, were Sunday visitors in town.

CowBelle Leaders Go To Executive Meet, Father Entries Needed

Mrs. William J. Doherty, Lexington, president of the Morrow County CowBelles association, attended the State CowBelles executive luncheon meeting in Bend on May 8, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Wright, secretary, and Mrs. John W. Graves.

State and county activities for the year were discussed, with different ways of promoting beef consumption being the main object of the organization. These forms of beef promotion include beef cookery schools, prizes for 4-H beef demonstrations at fairs, beef for Father's Day, beef for high school Home Economics classes, Father of the Year contest, and the serving of beef to the State Legislators every Wednesday during the legislative session.

The committee in charge of choosing the Morrow County CowBelle's Father of the Year reminds all youth groups to turn in their entries by this week-end. Any youth groups not contacted may obtain entry blanks from either Mrs. Don Robinson or Mrs. Frank Anderson, chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hyle, Portland, and their daughter, Mrs. Ron Kimpton, Portland, visited Mrs. Hyle's mother, Mrs. Ann Fehmerling, Saturday and Sunday. The S. A. Kari's joined them for Sunday dinner.

Civic League Sets May 24-25 Sale Date

Rummage sale items are still coming in for the semi-annual sale set for May 24 and 25 at the old Bakery building in Heppner. Doors will open both days at 8 a.m. and will close at 6 p.m. Committee chairmen suggest getting there early for a good selection of the items.

Anyone having unused clothing, books, jars, furniture, and such, who wish to donate them for the sale are asked to call Mrs. Jack Ployhar, Mrs. Elmer Berry, or Mrs. Jimmy Prock. Those living out of town may leave their articles at Jack's Chevron station in Heppner, Gene's Chevron station in Lexington, or Bank of Eastern Oregon at lone.

The proceeds from these annual rummage sales are used to support the Heppner kindergarten. It is held in the old George house and Mrs. Roy Taylor is the instructor for the two morning classes.

Ruth Peterson, Portland, was here Saturday and Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Luey Peterson.

Bernice Thomson, Portland, spent Mother's Day week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomson.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans had as week-end house guests, her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kari, Pendleton.

Howton in Play Cast

John Howton, a 1959 lone graduate and junior student at Eastern Oregon College, was in the play cast of "The Miser" a play put on by the Sock and Buskin drama club of the college, as part of the entertainment planned for the Parent's Week-end at the college.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton, now of Hermiston and formerly of lone.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs, Portland, were week-end guests at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Evans and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans joined them for Mother's Day dinner.

The Ted Smiths have their granddaughter, Cynthia Smith, visiting them this week. They went to Springfield over the week-end to visit their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Smith, and brought their granddaughter home.
