THINGS ARE really buzzing about town now, what with this absolutely wonderful weather! Lots of yard work being done, people buying and planting bedding plants like mad, painting fences, baseball games, boating, and just plain taking it easy! Speaking of sun and such, I noticed a number of sunburns Monday morning. It seems Delores Ayres was boating, Lenna Smith was painting fence and others working in their yards. If we would just sunburn once, but not so, just everytime the old sun is out! Other buzzing notes are the bowling alley news and excitement, and of course Little League baseball. Someone mentioned the town was a little quiet Saturday afternoon—gone to the ball park!

MARY HARRIS had high score last Friday when the girls got together for an afternoon of pinocle at the home of Pearl Wright. Janina Johnson won low, Doris Watkins and Mary teamed up to win the pinocle. Carrie Beckett and Janina were partners when Carrie melded 1,000 aces. Others playing were Beulah Mankin, Gladys Beckett and Hannah Anderson. Speaking of Beulah, she got back from a two week flying trip back east to visit relatives. Said the weather was fine and that she enjoyed the visit. Saw her son Bud and his family in Detroit, Mich. and others, but was glad to be home again.

MILDRED DAVIDSON entertained the Duplicate bridge club last Friday evening. Eileen Padberg and Bebe Munkers won high north-south. Lois Hunt and Gladys Van Winkle were high east-west. Others making up the three tables were Mary Jean McCabe, Lucia Cutsforth, Lorene Ledbetter, Kay Robinson, Mary McLeod, Phyllis Cole, Gena Leonard, and Mildred. Kay will have the club June 21.

MARY LOVGREN won the traveling prize with 800 kings at pinocle club Wednesday night. Bonnie Buschke won high; Flo Connor, second; and Lillian Key, the door prize. Also in on the play were Judy Buschke, Marlys Phegley, Bobbe Angell, and the hostess, Jeanne Berry.

JERRY AND Betty Rood were surprised May 9 with friends dropping in to extend greetings on their 19th wedding anniversary. The guests were the Don Balls, Ione; Jerry Hollomans, and Don Munkers who brought the refreshments. They all enjoyed an evening of cards with cake and jello served later. Really a nice surprise!

VIRGINIA ROSEWALL entertained the What's Trump club at her home Wednesday afternoon. She served strawberry shortcake before play. Wouldn't that take your mind off of the cards? Lota Tibbles won high; Marie McQuarrie, second; and Cora Mae Ferguson, low. Others playing were Happy Graham, Margaret Blake, Madge Thomson, Gena Leonard, and Helen Schaffitz. The girls have their pay-off party later which will conclude play until fall.

I ATE lunch Monday with Eleanor Gonty and Alice McCabe and in the course of the conversation, food recipes came up. Don't they always, as everyone enjoys eating! Alice has one for using stewing chickens. She boils the chicken, flavored to taste, until well done, takes the meat off all the bones and grinds the meat. She then adds one package of clear gelatine to the meat and two cups of chicken broth, place in container and into refrigerator to set. Then it may be sliced for sandwiches or snacks. Sounds very good and a good idea for chickens which may be left in the freezer for some time.

RHUBARB HARVEST in Oregon is full swing and with first real sunshine, asparagus will be in the markets. But because of the long, cool spring, expect a short season on local asparagus. We suggest using rhubarb and asparagus now and freeze for later use. Larger potato crops this year so prices will stay down. Enjoy lots of strawberries this year as the supply is larger and prices will be the same or lower as last year. May and June are the peak months for strawberries. Eggs continue to be a good shopper's buy and high in protein. Use often, boil extra and store in refrigerator for later use.

Luncheon Meeting Entertains Teachers

Final meeting until fall of Delta Kappa Gamma, women's honorary for teachers, was held May 18 at a luncheon in St. Patrick's hall, Heppner. The meeting was centered around the theme, "Advancing with Women Leaders of the Modern World."

A musical program proved very entertaining, under the direction of Mrs. LaVern Partlow. Varieties of numbers developed the theme, "Speaking of Music." Miss Sonja Miller sang a "Gypsy Medley" and an aria from "Madame Butterfly," accompanied by Mrs. Patrick Mahoney. Mrs. Floyd Hobbs sang "The House I Live In" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," accompanied by Mrs. Albert Partlow. Gordon Pratt sang "Apres un Reve" and "Obstination," accompanied by Mrs. Pratt. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hausler performed folk dances, a Portuguese number, "Fado Blanquita," an Italian Fisherman's Tarentella, and closed with "Ting-A-Ling."

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Leon Bentley, Mrs. Robert Smith, Irrigon; Mrs. John Partlow, Boardman; Miss Marguerite Glavey, Mrs. Roy Kirk, Heppner, and Mrs. Adrian Bechdolt, Hardman.

Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

With the trophy at stake, 31 golfers from Kinzua and Heppner gave their all, with Heppner merging victorious. We keep it one year, then it's 'up for wins' again. Kinzua won it last year on their course.

Phil Mahoney was official starter; scorekeepers were Donna McCurdy and Dee Gribble for first nine, and Donna and Marie McQuarrie on the second nine. Five Kinzua ladies came to play and 11 Heppner gals were out. A huge breakfast was served at the Wishing Well by Herb, assisted by Janina Johnson and Leann Jovnes from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock.

Individual winners for Kinzua were C. C. Smith, low gross, and Al Niestad, low net; for Heppner were Maurice Brown, low gross, and Conley Lanham, low net.

Ladies' winners were Arlene Schroeder and Hazel Hulett for Kinzua and a many sided tie for Heppner. Low gross was a three-way between Vi Lanham, Kay Robinson and myself—and after much flipping of coins, I won. Then low net was between Hazel Mahoney and myself. I was lucky again. I've often said a little knowledge is dangerous and I didn't mean to leave Judge Carmichael out of the Willow tree project—he even helped plan them! Sorry, Judge, I really didn't know.

Ladies played Tuesday at 9:30. Where are the ones that were waiting until the weather improved? We played holes 6, 7 and 8 and winners were Jan Turner for most 7's; a tie between Lois Hunt and Annette Klinger for most 8's, (Lois winning), and Roberta Dougherty had the most 6's. I've never seen such determination as Lois shows. To retrieve golf balls from Willow creek, she went wading today. Millie Morris graciously fixed us all a salad for our lunch. Thanks, Millie. Others playing were Bebe Munkers, Helen Schaffitz, Hazel Mahoney, Cork Norene, Marie McQuarrie and myself.
