IONE—The first and second grades of the lone elementary school accompanied by Mrs. Lyla Ash and her daughter, and Mrs. Don Linnell went on a field trip to Hermiston Friday, May 17, to see the Mayflower Dairy and the Radio Station. They also had a picnic in Hermiston.

The third and fourth grades of the lone elementary school took a field trip to the Whitman Mission near Walla Walla Wednesday, May 15, accompanied by teachers, Mrs. Esther Herrick and Mrs. Gladys Ely, and room mothers, Mrs. Henry Krebs and Mrs. Herb Ekstrom. The children enjoyed this trip very much as they have been studying this sort of thing and they saw many items to refresh their memories on the things they have been studying in school. They enjoyed sack lunches and pop and returned to lone at 4:15.

Awards Night at Lone High school will be held Friday evening, May 25, at 8 p.m. There will be awards given in commercial subjects, science, athletics and music. Parents and friends are urged to attend.

Rev. Paul Ashbrook will be the guest minister at the Lone Community church Sunday, May 26. It will be observed as Camp Adams Sunday. Mrs. William Peek (Paula Barak) who has attended Camp Adams both as a student and as a counselor will be taking part in the services. Many children who have attended the camp will participate in the worship services also.

Children attending the vacation church school June 10-14 are asked to bring a sack lunch. Milk will be furnished. Children must be four years old by June to be eligible to attend. Donations for juice and cookies are needed and parents are asked to contact Mrs. Ray Boyce or Mrs. Pete Cannon to make donations.

Amica club was held May 15 at the home of Mrs. Robert Rietmann with Mrs. Art Lindstrom as co-hostess. Fifteen members were present. The group played cards with Mrs. Lee Palmer winning high, Mrs. Glenn Biehl second high and Mrs. Bill Rietmann low. Mrs. Rietmann was a guest at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson and family spent the week-end in Salem and Donald visiting friends and relatives.

Residents Are Asked To Call With News

In order to do a more complete job of reporting news of the lone community, Mrs. June Christopherson is asking the cooperation of all residents to call her with their news items by 6 p.m. on Mondays.

Getting news to her as soon as the event happens or early announcements of things coming up would save the reporter much time and make it easier to meet the news deadline. She is happy to report all items of interest to the community, and cooperation will be especially appreciated during the busy summer months. Her phone number is 676-5322.

Crawford as co-hostess. Plans were made for a clean-up day at the Willows Grange hall Tuesday, May 21, and clean-up day at the local cemeteries Saturday, May 28. There were eleven members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe and sons of Heppner and Mrs. Blanche Scheelar who is Mrs. Crabtree's mother, went to Condon Air Base Saturday, May 19 to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Gellinas. Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree then took Mrs. Scheelar to her home in Salem, returning on Sunday, May 19.

Rebekahs to Honor Birthdays
 Rebekahs met at the home of Mrs. Fannie Griffith with Mrs. Ida Coleman and Mrs. Mable Crawford as co-hostesses. There were 14 members and one guest present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mabel Crawford June 6. It will be a birthday party for all members who have had birthdays during the months of April, May and June.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Jr. was taken to the hospital in Pendleton, Sunday, June 19.

The annual banquet of the Beta Omega Chapter of the Episcopa Sigma Alpha was held in the lone Legion hall Saturday, May 18, with 14 couples in attendance. The guests enjoyed a social hour, dinner and a dance. Mrs. Bob Hoskins, the outgoing president, presented new officers with awards and they in turn presented a gift to her.

The lone Bridge club met Thursday, May 16, at the home of Mrs. Gene Hall. Those attending were Mrs. Ray Boyce, Mrs. Pete Cannon, Mrs. Ernie McCabe, Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. Bob Jepsen, Mrs. LaVern Van Marter, and Mrs. Glenn Biehl. Mrs. Jepsen won high, Mrs. VanMarter won second, and Mrs. Biehl won low.

Sandra Wins Reserve Championship
 Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks and Sandra attended the Spring Quarter Horse show in Walla Walla Saturday, May 18. Sandra won first prize in the open class pole bending, second in the open class barrel racing and third place in the juvenile barrel racing. She also won reserve champion of the entire show.

Youth Have Bowling Party
 The fifth and sixth grade church school classes held a party Saturday, May 18 at the lone Community church basement. They were given bowling lessons and rules on bowling etiquette. There was also a movie shown on bowling techniques. There were prizes given for top scores for Bible quizzes given during the entire year. Terry Cannon won first prize, two girls, Susan Jane Jepsen and Teresa Tucker tied for second place. Mrs. Ruth Benson, Mrs. Barbara Emert and Mrs. Helen Proudfoot furnished refreshments which were birthday cakes to celebrate the birthdays of Susan Jepsen, Connie Emert and Linda Nichols.

Sunday the class went to Pendleton and had a picnic at the Round-up park. They then went bowling. Those taking cars to take the young people on this trip were Jean Jepsen, Helen Proudfoot, Ray Boyce and Bob Jepsen. The children making the trip were Bonnie Akers, Bob Benson, Barbara Boyce, Terry Cannon, Connie Emert, Susan Jepsen, Mike Hedman, Keith Nelson, Paul Proudfoot, Teresa Tucker, Mark Tullis, Linda Williams and Mary Ann Williams. Linda Nichols and Frank Halvorsen were also eligible to make the trip but could not go due to illness.

School buses will not run after May 29, which is the last day of regular classes.

Delegates Chosen For Girls State

ARLETA McCABE

DELORES EMERT

Mrs. Charles Stout, Jr. and two daughters, Ward Cove, Alaska, arrived Saturday to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Glenn Irby and other relatives.

Delores Emert and Arleta McCabe, both junior students at Lone High school, have been chosen delegates to the 22nd annual session of Girls' State by the lone Legion Post and Auxillary. The convention will be held at Willamette University in Salem, between June 10 and 16.

Delores is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Emert and Arleta is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe. Both girls were chosen for their participation and leadership in school activities, for displaying good character and citizenship and possessing physical fitness. They have both been active in 4-H work, holding offices in their clubs. Arleta is the current secretary-treasurer for the student-body.

Alternate delegate chosen was Lynn Benson.

Jim Farra, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farra, is home on leave following Boot Camp in the U.S. Navy at San Diego, Calif. He will be stationed at Great Lakes, Ill. His parents met him in Pendleton May 11, and went to John Day to attend a wedding before returning home.

Willows Grange Hears Morgan; Honors Mothers

Milton Morgan was guest speaker at Willows Grange meeting Saturday evening, May 18. Mr. Morgan gave an interesting and informative talk on the Wheat Referendum, urging all farmers and eligible voters to take advantage of the opportunity to vote "yes" at the polls on May 21.

In observance of Mother's Day, the Lecturer presented the oldest and youngest mothers present with beautiful vases of roses. "Clean-up" day was set for Tuesday, May 21, hoping to have many helping hands turn out.

Cemetery clean-up day was announced for Saturday, May 25, with members urged to be on hand to help in the work. A free potluck dinner will be served at noon to all who assist at the nearby cemetery.

Willows Grange Home Ec. club met at the Cleo Childers home with Mrs. Childers and Mrs. Rodney Crawford as hostesses. Their next meeting was announced for June 21, with Mrs. Harvey Ring as hostess.
