Alaska Boosted At Alumni Fete

Big, beautiful, bountiful Alaska was described to over 25 women by Mrs. Walter Wright, Heppner, at the annual gathering of alumni advisory members of the Extension units at the John Graves home, Hardman, on May 22.

"It's beauty and ruggedness suggests a wonderful future ahead for our 50th state," commented Mrs. Wright. She and her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright traveled in Alaska last summer. Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Jasper Myers, who have been there, also brought along souvenirs for viewing.

Coupons, pennies and commemorative stamps that had been collected by all the county units during the year, were counted by the women. The coupons are given to Azalea House, a cooperative house on the OSU campus; Pennies for Friendship help support the office of the Associated Country Women of the World in London, England; and stamps are saved to raise money for UNICEF, informs Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent.
