WHEW, HERE we are again and not too much brewing in the social whirl this week because it follows the last week of the month and most activity seems to be in the top half of the month! Also many of the clubs are disbanding for the summer months and will resume activities in the fall.

LYNN BURKENBINE was surprised Saturday night with a going away party given by Judy Smith and Tamara Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, at the Glenn Smith home. The girls enjoyed a barbecue supper and slumber party. Lots of slumber, no doubt? Guests were Karen French, Karen McCurdy, Barbara Blake, Anita Groves, Pat Van Winkle, Nancy Cleveland, Vicki Barratt, Jean Siewert, Jean Stockard, and Ann Marie Brindle. Lynn opened her gifts from the girls during the evening. She moved with her family to Portland over the week-end.

REMEMBER THE annual birthday party at the Episcopal parish hall Saturday, June 8, 1:15 p.m. The ladies of the church will serve dessert before the bride and pinocle play begins. They invite all to attend, come alone or make a table of friends and join the fun.

EIGHT TABLES were in play Tuesday night at the Elks lodge room for duplicate bridge. Laverne Van Marter and Daisy Collins won high the north-south; Rachel Dick and Grace Nicholson were second; and Laurel Van Marter and Shirley Blake were third. Elsie Cole and Isabelle Davis, Condon, were high east-west with two teams tied for second. Marjorie Worden and Virginia Rosewall and Harriet Hall and Doreen Jacobs, Ione. They will meet again June 11 in the lodge room.

HOW ABOUT wrecking a car to get a new one? Gene Starks is being accused of such things, but really, what she thought was a rock turned out to be a rabbit and scared her so badly when it jumped that she ran off the road. Damaged the car quite badly and shook Gene up in more ways than one! And that is a beautiful new car she is driving! An Idea?

VIRGINIA TURNER reviewed the book, "Final Verdict" by Adela Rogers St. John, at the Bookworms meeting. It is a true and colorful story of the author's father who was an eminent criminal lawyer in Los Angeles. Madge Thomson and Agnes Flug entertained the club at the Thomson home last Tuesday evening for their last meeting until fall. Other members present were Ella Smith, Sadie Parrish, Lucy Peterson, and Marian Abrams.

JANINA JOHNSON won high at the Friday afternoon pinocle club and teamed up with Mary Harris to win the pinocle. Mary entertained the girls for the afternoon. Mae Gilliam won low. Hannah Anderson said she was sure glad she didn't have her name in the paper last week 'cause she was LOW! So I'll still think low isn't so bad, a lot better than being right square in the middle! Also in on the play were Gladys Beckett, Carrie Beckett, Millie Evans, and Beulah Mankin.

CHRISTINE BURKENBINE was honored with a going away coffee Saturday at the home of Inez Meador with Mary Ellen Myers as co-hostess. Inez made a rainbow with a pot of gold at the end of it, which the guests gave to Christine. She moved with her family to Portland over the week-end. Many friends and neighbors called during the morning to wish her well and happiness. Mary Ellen made a variety of delicious sweet rolls which were served to the guests.

Poppy Sale Said Very Successful

Plans were made to sell the American Legion poppy two days, May 24 and 25, but because of the excellent response on Friday, the poppies were all sold on that day. The Heppner American Legion Post #7 quota was 1,000 poppies which were sold individually or in corsages. Proceeds from the sale of the poppies go to the American Legion Rehabilitation and Child Welfare funds. Part of the money is left in the local unit and the balance is sent to the state organization. Veterans in the hospitals make the poppies each year and are paid for each one they make.

Mrs. Sylvia Wells headed the volunteer corps of salesmen, who included Mrs. Riley Munkers, Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Earl Gilliam, Mrs. Harry Tamblin, and Mrs. Norah Rasmus. Mrs. Clarence Bauman decorated the window of Wilson's Men's Wear in recognition of the annual poppy sale days.

Saddle Club Meets

The seventh meeting of the Pine City Saddle club was called to order by Mitch Ashbeck, president, on May 14. The group answered roll call by naming one of the different kinds of bits. Minutes were read by Patty Healy, secretary and approved. Old business was to set a tentative date for a ride to Echo. It was decided that June 1 would be fine.

Assembly President Makes Official Visit To Rebekah District

The 42nd annual Rebekah Convention of Dist. 20 convened in Heppner Friday, May 31, with over 50 district members and 20 visitors from over the state in attendance.

Sans Souci No. 33 began the afternoon ceremonies with a formal opening by Noble Grand Rachel Harnett and her staff of officers. Distinguished guests introduced were Assembly President Barbra Bagley of Springfield, making her first official visit since her term of office started. Also present was Hazel Wainscott, newly elected warden of the Assembly; Selma Watkins, Jr., past assembly president; Ruth Marlin, Pendleton; and deputy presidents Altha Kirk, Sans Souci; Gladys Scheer, Pauline No. 13; Florence McMillan, Holly No. 139, and Lillian Smith, Sunbeam No. 180, Hermiston.

Mistletoe No. 25 of Hardman seated convention officers and presented each a pink and green officer's rosette, compliments of Chairman Elsie Ayers. Seated in convention chairs were Elsie Ayers, chairman; LaVerne Henderson, vice chairman; Altha Kirk, secretary; Pearl Devine, treasurer; Vern Batty, warden; Dimple Munkers, conductor; Opal Cook and Bernice Wilton, right and left supporters; chairman; Frieda Majeske, chaplain; Oma Cox, musician; Florence McMillan and Edith Matthews, right and left supporters to vice chairman; Mattie Green and Ida Lee Engleman, inside and outside guardians.

Following the invocation, Edna and Ruby Coxen, sister-in-law of Mrs. Ayers, presented her with a gift, as did Mrs. Henderson in behalf of her officers. Melba Quackenbush gave the address of welcome, with response by Vern Batty, in absence of Delsie Chapel, announcing the surrendering of Mistletoe charter, one of the oldest lodges instituted in the state.

Noble Grand of the District presented the convention gift in an addendum aptly woven with her chosen color and symbol. The president's song, "Prayer is the Key to Heaven," was sung by Betty Rood.

Seventeen members of District No. 20 have 50 years or more continuous membership. Two who were present and honored by Sans Souci were Millie Doolittle and Tena Scott. President Barbra was pleased to present Mrs. Scott with her 50-year jewel.

A memorial ceremony was held for Al Troedson, deceased, by the memorial committee, Mary McMurtry, Pearl Wright and Eva Griffin.

New 1964 officers were seated by Bunchgrass lodge and will officiate when the convention convenes in Lexington for the next session. Officers are LaVerne Henderson, chairman; Lucille Rietmann, vice chairman; Delpha Jones, secretary; Dimple Munkers, treasurer; Ida Lee Engleman, warden; Eva Griffin, conductor; Florence McMillan, Mary McMurtry, Rachel Harnett, Merle Cornelison, Catherine Thorne, Altha Kirk, Edith Matthews and Delsie Chapel.

Following the convention dinner, initiation ceremonies were held during the evening meeting for Norah Rasmus into Sans Souci lodge. About 60 members and guests were in attendance. President Bagley gave an interesting talk on her projects for the year, both for the IOOF Home and for the lodges.

Some 50 relatives gathered at the courthouse lawn on Memorial Day for the annual Hughes reunion. A potluck dinner was held at noon with visiting following during the afternoon.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gaarde, Murphys, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hughes and daughter, Sharon, and Mrs. Harold K. Pfeil, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Hurlay Kohlman and family, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelly, Umatilla.

Guests from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Piper and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bellenbrock and family, Conrad Bellenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hughes and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hughes and family, Lexington.

Relatives Attend Harris Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling and daughter, Patty, together with Mrs. Lena Kelly, Mrs. Creston Robinson, Dean and Vicki, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harris were in Salem over the week-end to attend the graduation exercises of Rene Harris from Willamette University on Sunday. Rene is the son of Mrs. Mike Saling.

He graduated with a B. A. in chemistry and is now employed in the research department of Weyerhaeuser Co. in Coos Bay for the summer. He will later study at De Pauw University for one year to earn his master's degree and then will continue two years' study at Purdue University seeking his doctor's degree in organic chemistry. He has received a full 3-year National Defense fellowship, valued at $11,500.

Rene will live with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill in Coos Bay while working. He is a nephew of the Hills who are former Heppner residents.
