Braves Hold Lead, Dodgers Register Indians' Upset

League standings

Braves	6	0
Indians	3	3
Dodgers	2	4
Giants	1	5

Coming games: June 6, Giants vs. Braves; June 10, Dodgers vs. Indians; June 11, Braves vs. Giants; June 12, Braves vs. Dodgers.

In Little League game action last week the Dodgers tasted their first win of the season and their first in nearly 30 games over three seasons as they upset the second place Indians, 12-3, Tuesday evening. The Braves continue to lead the league with five wins and no defeats.

The Dodgers held the Indians scoreless in the first inning while they pushed across two runs in the bottom of the first. Coming back in the top of the second, the Indians tied the game with two runs, but from then on, it was the Dodgers' game as they scored in every frame while holding the Indians to only one more score.

Mark Lovgren of the Dodgers led the batters as he came up with three hits in four times at bat. Frank Halvorsen of the Indians had his bat going and was two for two. Kip Scrivner and Kit Anderson pitched for the Dodgers, and the Indians used Frank Halvorsen, Keith Nelson and Chuck Herrick.

Wednesday night the Braves took the Dodgers, 10-5, with the Braves scoring in every inning except the fifth, while holding the Dodgers to one run in the third and two in each the fourth and fifth. Kent Pratt was the distance for the Braves allowing five runs on eight hits, nine strikeouts, and three walks. Twin brother Kevan was swinging the big bat as he was four for four. John McCabe pitched for the Dodgers, allowing 10 runs on 11 hits, six strikeouts, and five walks. He had a good night at the plate with two for two and Mark Lovgren was three for four, getting a home run in the process.

Friday night the Indians ran roughshod over the Giants as they won 22-6. The Indians opened their scoring spree in the bottom of the first with four runs and continued bringing in runs in all innings except the third. The Giants managed one tally in the second and third, picked up three more in the fourth and one in the fifth. Pat Kilkenny went the distance on the mound for the Indians with Mark Tullis and Jim Swanson each getting a home run. Gary Kemp was top hitter for the Indians with three for five. Terry Prock started for the Giants with LaVerne Van Marter and Phil Ayres relieving. Bill Stockard and Van Marter led the Giant hitters each with two for three.

The Dodgers decided Monday was time for another win and promptly went about doing the job as they trounced the Giants, 18-4. The Giants took the lead in the bottom of the second, 3-0, but the Dodgers came fighting back in the top of the third to send nine runs across the plate and from then on were never headed as they continued to score in each remaining frame. The Giants picked one more run in the fifth.

John McCabe and Kit Anderson teamed up for the Dodgers on the mound with the Giants using Terry Prock and LaVerne Van Marter. Vernon Frederickson led the Dodger batters with two for two. The Giants were held to only one hit, that by Keith Carnutt.

In game action Tuesday night the league leading Braves took a see-saw Little League battle from the Indians by virtue of a sixth inning home run by Kent Pratt, Braves' pitcher.

The Indians got the first tally in the top of the second and the Braves came back in the bottom of the third to pick up two runs and take the lead. In the top of the fourth the Indians pushed across a run to tie the game and in the bottom of the fourth the Braves made two runs to take the lead again, 4-2. In the top of the fifth the Indians got three men on base, on an error, single, and hit batter, then Jim Swanson blasted a homer over the fence to score four runs and the Indians again regained the lead, 6-4.

Not to be outdone in the battle, the Braves scored two runs on Bill McLeod's high fly in center field which scored Kevan Pratt and Larry Pettyjohn to tie the game at 6-6 going into top of the sixth. The Indians failed to score and the Braves came up to bat in the bottom of the frame. The first man fanned which brought Kent up, and he put the third pitch over the fence to win the game and end up as winning pitcher, allowing six runs on six hits, eight strikeouts, and no walks. Jim Swanson went the distance for the Indians to allow seven runs on six hits, eight strikeouts, and six walks.

Lexington News

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—On Monday afternoon, May 27, the Women's Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church entertained with a reception honoring Mrs. Leona Leach White, of San Leandro, Calif. She was accompanied to Lexington by her daughter, Mrs. Fred Anderson, and daughters Jan and Joyce. While visiting in eastern Oregon, Mrs. White was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson in Hermiston.

The reception was carried out in the red, white and silver theme, with the centerpiece being red peonies and snowballs, flanked with lighted red tapers. Also from this table were served punch and coffee. Those pouring were Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Maude Pointer of Corvallis, Mrs. Virginia Turner of Heppner and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson of Lexington. Serving were Mrs. Ralph Jackson of Hermiston and Mrs. Earl Warner of Lexington.

The afternoon was spent in renewing friendships and visiting. While here they all called at the home of Miss Dona Barnett and Mrs. Trannie Parker.

Illness Claims Nellie Palmer, 79

Funeral services for Nellie Melvina Palmer, 79, were held today (Thursday) at the Lexington Christian church at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Walter Smith officiating. Interment followed in the Lexington IOOF cemetery.

Mrs. Palmer had been in ill health for the past 18 months and died Monday, June 3, in Pioneer Memorial hospital where she had been a patient during that time.

She was born January 2, 1884 in Weston, Oregon, the daughter of Joseph and Mary Eskelson, early pioneers. She came with her parents to a ranch near Lexington at the age of two months and had made her home in this area ever since. She was married to Lawrence Palmer in 1905 and the two had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their ranch home near Lexington shortly before his death.

Mrs. Palmer was a member of the Congregational church and of the Lexington Grange.

Surviving her is one daughter, Alice Harrison of Cascade Locks; three sons, Marion of Ione, Elmer of Heppner and Kenneth of Lexington; two brothers, Earl Eskelson, Hermiston, and James Eskelson of Portland. Also four sisters, Ethel Wilcox of Portland; Cleo Van Winkle of Lexington; Josie Fredrickson, Salem; and Kathryn Daniels also of Salem; 10 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Lutheran Vacation Church School Set

Vacation church school at both Hope and Valby Lutheran churches will be held during the week of June 10 to 14. Pastor Kenneth Robinson announces. Hours will be from 9 a.m. until 11:30, and classes will be held for children of nursery through intermediate ages.

Theme of the 1963 material is "Teach Us to Pray" and is centered about the Lord's Prayer. By means of study books, singing, and craft work, teachers will seek to instill the Christian meaning of prayer to the children, the pastor states.

On Sunday, June 16, family fellowship dinners will be held at both churches. The dinner will follow the regular 11 a.m. service to Hope and at Valby the time is set for 6 p.m. The program following the dinners will consist of vacation church school children reciting and telling of their experiences during the week.
