Agricultural Award

Birthday Party

Honors Kelly Green

Jack Sumner, who graduated Sunday, June 2, at Oregon State University, has been awarded the student chapter award of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, presented at the last OSU chapter meeting prior to the end of school to one of its outstanding seniors.

Kelly Green was honored on his 11th birthday when friends were invited by his mother, Mrs. Verle Green, to come to his home Tuesday.

Meeting at 2 p.m. the boys played baseball and other outstanding seniors.

The award is based on scholarship, leadership and character displayed in the agricultural engineering field.

Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Sumner, and several other members of the family were present Sunday to see him receive his bachelor of Engineering degree. Also attending from Heppner were Mrs. Jim Lovgren and Frankie, Laura Lee Sumner; also Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sumner, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sumner, Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cox, Oregon City.

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Anderson were their daughter, Mrs. Adelia Martin and her daughter Su-zanne of Portland.

Vows Exchanged At June 1 Ceremony

BOARDMAN-Miss Linda Daniels became the bride Larry Richard Driscoll at a 4 p.m. ceremony at the Boardman Community church on June 1. The bride is the daughter of Everett Daniels of Condon, and Mrs. Chet Etheridge of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Jack Driscoll of Fort Worth, Texas. The double-ring service was performed by Rev. Herman Burg, pastor of the church, in a setting of baskets of yellow and white iris and columbine. The yellow and white theme was used throughout the service.

Miss Carolyn Burg played
"Oh, Promise Me" preceding the ceremony, and also played the

The veil of illusion net was of fingertip length, and was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and lilies of the valley. For something old she had an buds and lilies of the valley. For something old she had an Indian head penny minted in the year 1866 which her mother had in her shoe at her wedding. Something new was her gown, something borrowed was a slip from her sister, Cheryl Daniels. She wore the traditional blue garter. Miss Cheryl Daniels was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a street length dress of yellow nylon chiffon over taffeta, with lace bodice and matching headdress. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. CPO Melvin R. Rayner of Mc-
