30 Board Rafts On 105-Mile Trip Down John Day

Thirty persons boarded rafts at the Service Creek Bridge on the John Day River Monday to start a 105-mile trip down the river, expecting to go as far as Hay Creek, Charles Kendall of Hermiston reported.

In the group were members of the Sierra club of California and families, including youths of sub-teen age. They were led by Lou Elliott, Berkeley, Calif., printer, who conducts river trips for the Sierra club. Guide and apparently the only Oregonian on the trip was Dick Groesbeck of Portland.

Kendall, Hermiston High school journalism teacher who was covering the event for KGW-TV, went the first mile with the group.

The party used two rafts, each 22x14 ft., consisting of neoprene tubes with a skiff lashed between and plywood mounted for a flat top. They were equipped with outboard motors. Also in the procession were three Kayaks.

Purpose of the expeditions was to view spectacular canyon walls and traverse the horse-shoe bends of the river. They also visited fossil beds in the area and expected to examine caves along the route.

On the night before departure rain drove the party indoors and they slept in Don Culver's barn at Service Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Buffington of Portland were guests of Mrs. Buffington's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Hughes over the Memorial Day.

Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson and granddaughters, Jody and Jill Rugg, returned home Saturday after a two week stay in southern California at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scherzinger, Riverside, Calif. They visited Disneyland, Marineland, Knotts Berry Farm, and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg and daughter, Mary Evelyn Tucker, were in Hermiston Saturday and called on Mrs. Casha Shaw who resides at the Valle Vista home there. They found her feeling well and in good spirits.

SSgt. and Mrs. Larry Huffman and family, Havelock, N. C., visited the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright, Seattle, Wn., and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Haguewood, and family. Sgt. Huffman left Tuesday for a four months school in Washington, D. C., and his family will remain here with the Haguewoods.

Student Quartet To Give Concert

The Crusader Quartet, composed of four male students from Northwest Christian college, Eugene, will be heard in a concert of favorite quartet numbers at the Lexington Christian church Tuesday evening, June 18, at 8 p.m.

The group will stop in Lexington on the summer tour schedule of concerts before churches, lodges and other organizations in Oregon, Washington, Montana, Utah and Idaho. They will be accompanied by the Rev. Dowell Callis, field representative for the college and active for many years in promotion of the college and its music department.

No admission will be charged. A free will offering will help cover cost of expenses. Members of the quartet are Taft Mitchell, Eugene, first tenor; Donald Hall, Bakersfield, Calif., second tenor; Gary Fountain, Tillamook, baritone; Ronald Harris, Spokane, Wn., bass. A social hour will follow the concert. The public is encouraged to attend and support this student program.
