

Irrigon Council Acts On Streets, Water

By LOVELLE PARTLOW

IRRIGON—The June Council meeting held Tuesday evening was presided over by Mayor Chester Wilson. A report was given by Mrs. Albert Partlow regarding the public hearing held June 4 concerning the opening of the 6th street crossing. Although no opposition was raised to opening the crossing, the Council has not yet been notified whether or not the opening will be granted.

Street Commissioner Warren McCoy gave a report on the seal coating of the existing oiled roads which was accomplished by the Percy E. Jellum contractors the past week. A letter was read notifying the council of the resignation of LaVern Christiansen from the Planning Commission. Christiansen stated in his letter that it had been a pleasure to work with the group but he did not have the time to devote to the Planning Commission due to increased business activities. Lee LeBlanc was appointed to replace Christiansen.

A hearing was held for the city budget, and there being no opposition the budget passed. A letter was read from Cornell, Howell, Hayes & Merrifield, consulting engineers, stating that their survey of the City of Irrigon to determine the feasibility and cost of a city water system would cost the city between $200 and $800. The Council voted unanimously to have them go ahead with the survey.

A delegation was present to present a petition asking for the recall of the present Trailer Ordinance and with recommendations for a new ordinance. A letter was read stating that the money paid by trailer owners in license fees is sent to the state, who withholds the $6.00 license fee and sends the balance back to the county. The county then allocates this money as to where the trailers are located.

The council voted unanimously to suspend the Trailer Ordinance for a period of 30 days, pending revision. A public meeting will be held at the school Thursday, June 28, at 7:30 to go over the ordinance and make revisions. All interested parties are welcome and urged to attend this meeting. Meeting was adjourned.

Over The Tee Cup

There was a hot time on the golf course on Sunday. The activity committee planned a flag tourney, but I'm sure they didn't plan the heat. But never the less, 11 men and three women golfers didn't mind "planting" their flags and retiring to the shade.

The object was handicap added to par—when used those allotted strokes you plant a flag and the one that lasted longest wins. Eddie Gunderson and Dee Gribble both were on No. 1 green going for 10 holes—Eddie with 35, Dee with 44. Clint McCurrie and Vi Lanham had long drives.

Playing were Dale Brown, Hugh Salter, Jim Norene, Maurice Brown, Ed Gunderson, Harlan McCurdy, Lowell Gribble, Clint McCurrie, Conley Lanham, Harry O'Donnell, Bev Gunderson, Vi Lanham and Dee. Come on, golfers, support the committee that plans your play.

This Sunday we're invited to Kinzua for a tourney—let's all turn out. Breakfast is planned for 7 a.m., with play to start around 9:00.

Tuesday the ladies started at 8 o'clock. Playing were Ruth Van Winkle, (glad to see her back), Muriel Palmer from Lex, (good to see her, too), Annetta Klingler, Lois Hunt, Kay Robinson, Bebe Munkers, LaFyrne Pratt, Donna McCurdy and Hester Cresswick.

Two Flats Plague Mrs. Dick's Trip

Mrs. Ed Dick left Sunday for a two-month's course of study at Southern Oregon College at Ashland. She will be completing her studies in elementary education.

While on her trip to Ashland, she encountered a flat tire near Spray. After searching the car she discovered there was not a lug wrench nor tire jack handle. Soon a lady from nearby drove up and proceeded to help with the tire changing, only to learn that the lug wrench she had would not fit. So off she went to the closest farm. Meanwhile another lady from Condon happened by and finished helping Mrs. Dick change her tire.

That wasn't enough tire trouble. She had another flat soon after she arrived in Ashland. But all is well, and she began her first classes at the college this week.

Willows Grange Hears Reports Of State Meeting

Members listened to reports of delegates to the 90th session of the Oregon State Grange held June 10-14 at Oregon City. Willows Master Berl Akers and Mrs. Akers, lecturer, attended as representatives.

It had been 53 years since the state convention had been held in Oregon City. The 1964 session was announced for next June in Eugene.

Mr. Akers, fire insurance agent, for Willows Grange, attended the Grange Mutual Insurance business meeting. This Grange company was badly hit by the October 12 windstorm. Losses went to 11,000 policy holders and several hundred thousands of dollars were paid out. On all new policies, according to the agent, there will be a $25 deductible on extended coverage. Old policy holders will not be affected by the new figures, however.

Mr. Akers also reported on business resolutions and Mrs. Akers told of the social activities of the session when the classes were presented to the oldest and youngest fathers present.

Mrs. Evelyn Hicks was presented with a gold Past Master's pin in appreciation of her work.

New members admitted to the Grange were Mr. and Mrs. George Fichter, former members of Lone Rock Grange in Gilliam county.

A "thank you" letter was read from Karen Hams for the 4-H club scholarship to Corvallis summer school which she attended last week.

The Grange annual picnic will be an evening affair, beginning with a 5:00 p.m. potluck supper on Sunday, June 30. All Grange members and friends are invited to join in the festivities at the Ione City Park. Children will enjoy swimming later in the evening.

It was decided by ballot to dispense with July and August meetings, convening again on

Morrow Cancer Drive Tops Goal

With a goal of $728.00 in the Morrow county cancer drive, volunteers brought in approximately $1,034 in gifts from families of the county to go some $300.00 over the top. Other donations were sent directly to the Cancer Society headquarters without going through the county's campaign, so the final figure of giving from Morrow county would be higher yet, the Rev. Kenneth Robinson, chairman, announces.

The Rev. Robinson expressed his thanks to the many women who generously gave their time to ring doorbells and distribute literature for the drive.

"They are too many to list, but sincere thanks is given all of them for a job well done," he said.
