

CowBelles Hold Meet At Wright Home; Plan Fair Booth

An all day meeting of the Morrow County CowBelles was held last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Wright with a potluck dinner at noon.

Special guests for dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Ed Schaffitz and children, Diane and Jim; Mrs. Jim Myers, Mrs. Harold Becket, and Rogenia Wilson. Dr. Schaffitz was presented the Father of the Year award and the Rain-bow Girls were also given a gift from the CowBelles as sponsors of the Father of the Year winner.

The business meeting followed with a letter read from the Morrow County Fair committee stating there would be no fair theme this year but if enough requests came in, the theme idea will be considered for next year. Mrs. Ronald Currin was appointed to the CowBelles fair booth committee. Reports were given on the money donated to the high school home economics classes for purchase of meat to be used in their classes, and Mrs. Bill Doherty reported on her trip to the state executive meeting held in Bend earlier this spring.

A time of one week before and one week after Father's Day has been set for the meat gift given to the father of the baby born in this time period. The members also discussed the possibility of having the "Mary Blaine Time" on preparation of meat dishes, to be broadcast over a radio station to cover this area.

All members of the county CowBelles were divided into two teams headed by Mrs. Herb Hynd and Mrs. John Graves, to send a traveling basket to each member. The team completing their list first will be guests at a dinner served by the losers at the next meeting scheduled for October 1 at the home of Mrs. Nels Anderson.

Plans for the annual meeting on November 2 with the election of officers were discussed.

Arizona Found Place Of Easy Retirement, Speaker Tells Club

After spending a pleasurable four months for health reasons in Tucson, Arizona, Mrs. W. J. (Leta) Thomas enthusiastically reported to members and guests of the Soroptimist club Thursday of her experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas returned recently from Tucson where they had been residents in the Tucson Estate, a large area of deluxe trailer homes occupied primarily by retired couples. The area is owned and kept up by the Mobile Corporation, has space for over 200 trailers which is deemed to trailer owners. Another retirement area recommended was the three-year-old Sun City development which has a population of several thousand people.

The couple found living conditions in the large mobile areas very satisfying and expect to return this fall to the Tucson Estate to enjoy the warmer climate and fine fellowship which they experienced there.

Mrs. Thomas had been a guest of the Tucson Soroptimist club which had sponsored as their main money-making project for

Carnation Club To Hold Barbecue

Mrs. William Cunningham entertained the Carnation club at her home last Thursday evening with her daughters, Mrs. Lewis McDonald and Mrs. Herman Bletell as co-hostesses.

The members discussed serving during the summer rodeo dances and the kickoff dance July 13 as they had last year. Further plans will be made as committees are selected at a later date.

The club will hold its last meeting until fall, July 11 on the Degree of Honor apartment lawn with a no-host barbecue. All members are invited to attend.

Umatilla County Fair Board Plans For Big Event

HERMISTON—Harold Rankin was unanimously appointed grand marshal of the Umatilla County Fair parade at a recent board meeting. He retired from the board this year after having served as chairman many years.

The fair queen was to be selected on the evening of June 18 at the board meeting from a group of young beauties. This announcement was made by Mel Hirling, chairman of the Jaycee committee sponsoring the court and the fair parade. A schedule of appearances for the court is being made, he said, and there are still a few open dates on it.

Hirling reported the Jaycees have invited 15 bands to march in the parade and the chambers of commerce of several neighboring communities have been invited to enter floats in it.

Director Ed Hoeft announced the board will construct a concrete block building, 24x20 feet, at a central location. The interior will be divided into an office and a small meeting room for board members and heads of departments.

Kem Tellefson, board chairman, said the wooden bleachers on the south side of the track will be torn down and portable bleachers from the high school athletic field will be set up in their place.

On a motion from Bill Bierman, county agent, the board voted to appoint a veterinarian from the Hermiston Animal Hospital to be official fair veterinarian. His duties will be to certify that all animals have health certificates before they are allowed to be exhibited on the grounds.

The board accepted the motion of Charles Kendall, publicity chairman, that KOHU Radio be approved for broadcasting from the grounds. Clyde Olsen, manager, said he plans to conduct numerous interviews with fair officials and exhibitors during the fair.

Kendall said the fair publicity will include releases to papers, radio stations and TV stations of the area, as well as advertising in these media and on posters and bumper strips.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Lamb are home again after taking a two weeks' guided tour through Alaska as a vacation. They left June 3 from Portland, flew to Vancouver, B. C., and then went by boat on the inland passage north.

They visited Skagway, Valdez, and spent three nights in Anchorage before continuing on to Fairbanks.

The long daylight was an oddity to the travelers. As of midnight it was no darker than dusk. They saw a lot of wild game and noticed a tremendous amount of wasteland in Alaska as well as spectacular scenery.

They report a very enjoyable time and good weather on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Borman, Mrs. Dick Dunlap and children, visited relatives in Portland Wednesday on their way to Tacoma where they visited the Calvin Cox family who are stationed at McChord Air Force Base. They also stopped at Poulsbo, Wn., to see Mr. and Mrs. Herb Case, former Heppner residents.

Gary Edison of Portland, taking the place of Rev. Verne Wiese of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Williams and two daughters of Prineville spent the week-end here visiting his brother, Frank Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Batty of La Grande were here visiting their son, Joe and family, and with other friends.

Ministers and young people of the church drove to Ritter Hot Springs Friday evening for a swimming party.

Harley Matteson of Ritter Hot Springs spent Saturday evening visiting his niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott and two sons.
