Soroptimists Climax Year's Activities With Dinner Meeting

Two members were given life membership in the Heppner Soroptimist club, three new members were initiated and officers were installed at the annual installation dinner meeting Saturday evening.

The club, with husbands as guests, met at the home of President Mrs. Jim Hager for a no-host ham dinner. The buffet serving table was centered with a floral arrangement of summer flowers in shades of blue and gold, club colors.

Mrs. Etta Parker and Mrs. Grace Nickerson, charter members of the club, were awarded life membership and presented emblems significant of this award.

At candlelight initiation ceremonies, Mrs. Charles Starks, Mrs. Matt Hughes and Mrs. Carl McDaniel were received as new members. Conducting the ceremony was Mrs. Hager, with Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mrs. Fred Parrish, Mrs. Etta Parker, Mrs. Ed Gonty, Mrs. Jim Thomson and Mrs. Bill Collins assisting.

Mrs. W. J. (Leta) Thomas presided as installing officer for the installation of new officers, using as her theme the club's "Hedge." Officers are Mrs. Hager, president; Mrs. Sherman, vice president; Mrs. Parrish, re-

Mrs. Lowell (Dee) Gribble and Don Turner were installed June 24 as worthy matron and patron of the Order of Eastern Star, Ruth chapter.

Other officers seated at this time were: Mrs. Charles (Phyllis) Stout, associate matron; Oliver Creswick, associate patron; Mrs. Floyd (Marjorie) Worden, secretary; Mrs. Joe (Nina) Snyder, treasurer; Mrs. Howard (Beth) Bryant, conductress; Mrs.

recording secretary; Mrs. Pfeiffer, treasurer; Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Pfeiffer, directors.

In appreciation of Mrs. Hager's work as president this year, the club presented her with a hanging floral basket, and she was pinned with a past president's pin.

Informal singing was led after the dinner by Mrs. Conley Latham, with Mrs. Charles Ruggles at the piano.

Program for the evening was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles who showed slides of their "Hawaiian Holiday" vacation trip to the islands in January. The beauty and unusual topography shown in colored aerial views, together with views of industry, culture, art and living conditions on the islands gave viewers a complete pictorial view of the islands. The couple made the tour as members of the planned Grange tour sponsored annually by the organization.

Girls helping with serving the dinner were Jan Hager and Linda Warren.

Special guest of the evening was Mrs. Eva Wright, Ashland, mother of Mrs. Hager, who is visiting here through this week. Another invited guest was Mrs. Mabel Chaffee, Heppner.
