Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reed of The Dalles visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Russell and children left Monday for a week's trip to the coast in Washington. Russell's father, Seth Russell, will run the station while they are away, assisted by Mrs. Russell's father, George Coppel of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker were in Portland last week where Baker attended the mail carrier's convention. Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Carpenter and daughter Elberta left Sunday for a three week's trip, visiting at the homes of her sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Carpenter in Seattle, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carpenter in Renton, Wn.

Rain fell most of the day here Sunday, with two thunder showers during the afternoon, accompanying hard rainfall. Monday was clear with the maximum temperature about 75 above.

Mrs. W. J. Baker entertained with a party at her home Saturday in honor of her granddaughter Linda Devine, on her 10th birthday. Guests were Pam and Casey Kuhn, Patsy, Kathy and Linda Skoubo, and Billie and Bobbie Devine.

Do Oregonians Deserve to live in Oregon?

All right, all right! Don't get sore. We know that you deserve to live in Oregon. Our question is aimed at the guy who doesn't appreciate this great state of ours, who knows next to nothing about it—the guy who thinks he has to leave the Pacific Northwest and go all the way to California or some other such fastness to have a good time. Ridiculous, isn't it?

Yet such misguided guides do exist, and the picture part of this ad is for them. (You, being a loyal, knowledgeable Oregonian, can skip down to "What difference does it make what kind of a guide you are?")

How well do you know the territory? Take this difficult test. Simply stare long and hard at each of the six photos, decide what each is a photo of, then check off your answer. No cheating. The answers are way down at the bottom, but to protect you from temptation, they're printed upside down.

Union Pacific Lists Youth Scholarships

Union Pacific's farm youth scholarship program will become 42 years old on August 1. Since it began, 9043 boys and girls have received $677,913.

A $200 college scholarship is offered each year to one 4-H club member and one vocational agriculture student in each of the 198 counties served by the railroad.

Oregon has had 817 winners and 540 of these have used their awards, said Dick Seddon, U. P. agricultural agent.

"It is unfortunate that more recipients do not take advantage of the incentive offered by the scholarship for a career in agriculture," Seddon said. "Surveys show that there are more agricultural jobs every year than there are graduates to fill them."

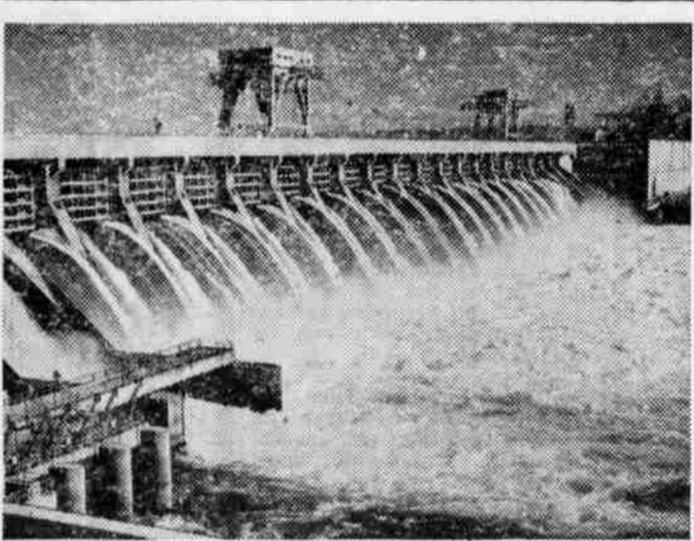

The Union Pacific named 16 4-H members who won scholarships in Oregon based on their work in 1962. Among them are: Morrow, Martha J. Doherty; Heppner, Gilliam, Stephen R. Davis; Olex, Grant; Judith A. Cavender, Monument; Sherman, Kenny I. Blagg, Grass Valley; and Umatilla, Mary E. Green, Stanfield.

MT. JEFFERSON. Second highest mountain peak in state. Hiking, camping, fishing in several lakes. Also boating, picnicking, motels and cafes at nearby Detroit Dam.

BACHELOR BUTTE. This ancient volcanic cone is a geologist's paradise. Also popular for fishing, hiking, camping. Skiing season on north slope from November to June.

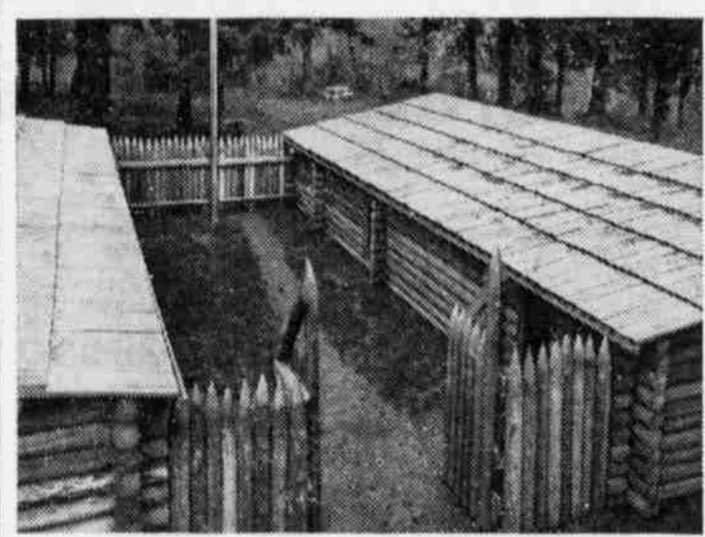

MT. HOOD. Year 'round playground. Camping, picnicking, swimming, hunting, fishing, hiking. Pack trips. Skiing throughout the year.

THE DALLES DAM. A $260,000,000 project started in 1952, near ancient Indian fishing grounds. Points of interest: Spillway, Navigation Locks, Fish Ladders, Indian Museum, Visitors Center.

MCHARY DAM. Built in 1947 by the Corps of Engineers. Public parking areas, observation points. Seventy miles of lake. Fishing and swimming at nearby Hat Rock State Park.

BONNEVILLE DAM. A two-section dam on two separate channels of the Columbia. Favorite tourist attraction is the fish-counting station. Nearby Eagle Creek is popular for its fishing and camping.

FORT CLATSOP. National monument. Original headquarters of Lewis and Clark expedition. Restored replicas show life at Fort when first Americans stayed in Oregon.

FORT YAMHILL. An early duty post of Civil War General Phil Sheridan. Blockhouse restored and moved to new site in 1911.

FORT DALLES. Military headquarters throughout the Indian wars. Hospital building is now a museum housing pioneer relics.

HARRIS STATE PARK. Over one hundred acres with facilities for camping—both tent and trailer. Three-quarters of a mile of ocean front and a twenty-four mile view of the Oregon coast and off shore rocks. Open the year around.

What kind of a guide are you, anyway?

Now that you've taken the test (whew!), count five points for every correct answer and see what kind of a guide's rating you deserve:

- 30 points Grand Exalted Guide
- 25 points Somewhat Exalted Guide
- 20 points Tenderfoot Guide
- 15 points Newcomer
- 10 or less Misguided Out-of-Stater

What difference does it make what kind of a guide you are?

Well, for one thing, the more you know about Oregon, the better you and your family can enjoy it. Then, too, the more you know, the more you can help others less fortunate than yourself. Like misguided out-of-staters. And the more they know, the more likely they'll become tourists and bring all that lovely tourists' money into Oregon. And it's big money, too.

If you like statistics, try these: Today tourism is Oregon's Number 3 Industry. In the last four years, tourists have spent an average of $185 million dollars a year in Oregon. ($217 million in 1962, with the World's Fair as a magnet.)

More statistics: Each tourist in Oregon spends about $6.20 per day or $20.45 for the average family of 3.3 people. (Seen any three-tenths of tourists lately?)

And—according to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce (which ought to know), an annual average of 24 tourists a day is equal to a new industry with a payroll of $100,000. Enough?

Why is the Telephone Company helping promote Oregon?

We're proud to be part of the statewide team that's promoting tourism in Oregon and its Welcome Mat Campaign. Like you, our future is invested in Oregon. (We're second only to Georgia-Pacific in the number of employees. We're first in plant investment—over $300 million dollars.) Like you, we're proud to "tell the world about Oregon." We're convinced that if we all work at it, we can make Oregon the most rewarding, the most prosperous state in the nation.

What can you do? Plenty!

First take a trip through the state and check up on things. (When's the last time, for example, that you viewed the scenes in our picture quiz?) Then turn State's Witness. Be a one-man (or one-family) Chamber of Commerce. Make yourself insufferable with your out-of-state friends. Let's tell the world about Oregon.
