Late June Wedding Unites in Marriage Cheryle Hartman to Paul Richard Knerr

The marriage of Cheryle Lee Hartman and Paul Richard Knerr was solemnized at a pretty summer ceremony on Sunday, June 30, at 4 p.m. at the Hope Lutheran church, Heppner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hartman of The Dalles, and formerly of Heppner and Toledo. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knerr of Hermiston.

The Rev. Kenneth Robinson performed the double ring candlelight ceremony in a setting of white gladioli, baby breath and stephanotis in altar standards, flanked by white tapers in candelabra. Aqua and white satin pew bows centered with white bells marked the bridal aisle.

Mrs. Paul Tews, Ione, was organist and accompanied Mrs. David Pardue of Stanfield and Mrs. Douglas Watson of Hermiston, cousins of the bride. Mrs. Pardue sang two solos, "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer," and, with Mrs. Watson, sang a duet, "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a gown of white lace over slipper satin in ballerina length, fashioned with long sleeves and sabrina neckline. A crown of seed pearls and crystals held her shoulder length illusion veil. She carried a white orchid bridal bouquet with cascade of stephanotis placed on a white prayer book.

Maid of honor was Miss Marlene Fetsch, cousin of the bride. She wore an aqua taffeta dress styled with bell skirt and boat neckline. Her headdress was of matching aqua color and styled like that of the bride. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Lighting the tapers preceding the ceremony was Tony Hartman, brother of the bride.

Best man was Mike Knerr of Hermiston, brother of the groom. Serving as ushers were Bob Fetsch, Lexington, and Art Smith, Hermiston, both cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hartman chose an aqua and white printed sheath dress with white accessories. Mrs. Knerr, mother of the groom, was dressed in a blue lace sheath with white accessories. Each mother wore a white glamidia corsage.

Friends and relatives greeted the couple at a wedding reception in the church social rooms. Centering the bride's table was a beautifully decorated four-tiered wedding cake decorated with white swans and bells and topped by a miniature bride and groom. White rosebuds placed in net were around the base of the cake. Other floral arrangements around the rooms carried out the aqua and white color scheme used in the ceremony.

After the traditional cutting of the first piece by the bridal couple, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Fred Hermann, Ione, and Mrs. Ottilia Hunt, Heppner, both aunts of the bride.

Pouring were Mrs. Al Fetsch, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Dorothy Sollers, aunt of the groom. Serving punch was Miss Karen McCurdy.

Attending the gift table were Mrs. Bruce Moyer and Miss Linda Thornburg, with Miss Phyllis Thornburg passing the guest book.

Serving as over-all hostess for the reception was Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr.

For her going-away ensemble the new Mrs. Knerr chose a white and yellow sheath suit with white accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Following a short wedding trip to Pendleton and Lehman Springs, they reside for the remainder of the summer in Hermiston.

The bride transferred from Heppner to Toledo High school where she graduated this spring. The groom is a graduate of Hermiston High school in 1961 and is a student at Oregon State University where he is studying pharmacy. They will return to Corvallis to make their home at the beginning of the fall term.

HERE IT is the middle of July already and even the kids are noticing the summer going by rather hurriedly! Guess they aren't ready to start to school again and then on the other hand the boys are wishing it was deer hunting season! People are still vacationing and attending club and company picnics. Heard the Hepper Auto Sales' crew and their families had a wonderful time at Cutsforth Park last Sunday. The Lutheran churches held their annual picnic at the park Sunday before despite the weather but the Methodists retreated to their church basement on the same day for their "picnic." And for week-end fun, the Pirl Howells and Cod Wises (now with two granddaughters) took to the mountains and a good fishing spot with station wagons and camp trailers!

SHIRLEY MARLATT had high score at Pinochle last Tuesday evening. Second high went to Phyllis Piper. Ruby Munkers won the door prize and Mary Lovgren was low. Others making up the three tables were Marlys Phegley, Bobbe Angell, Judy Buschke, Lillian Key, Jackie Alstott, Bonnie Buschke, and Flo Connor who entertained the group. Talk about playing cards, these gals did it! They played 11 progressions from 8 to 12:30 p.m.! A new record, huh?

I'VE HAD very good comments on the recipes in the column the past year and plan to use them again this fall. So all you readers, both far and near, send in a favorite recipe. How about a recipe from each pinochle and bridge club a month?

JOYCE PHEGLEY entertained two tables of pinochle last Tuesday evening. Mickey Mollahan won high, Marge Eckman was low, and Gail Burkenbine won the pinochle. And Gail really earned it! After having it three times during the play, she finally hung onto the gift! Also playing were Carolyn Cole, Myrna Sutherland, Beverly Sherman, and Barbara Mollahan, (Mrs. Bob Mollahan).

WHAT IS sausage? I always thought of sausage as ground-up pork. Not so, according to the food marketing bulletin from OSU. Sausage is defined as minced meat, blended with various seasonings and spices and commonly stuffed into a casing or container. Included are frankfurters, salami, bologna, and other luncheon meats.

NOW OR never is the advice on canning or freezing apricots, raspberries, and sweet cherries. These all have a short season, but apricots should be in best supply this week. Oregon loganberries and boysenberries have started to market and yellow transparent apples from Oregon are beginning to arrive in the markets. Enjoy fresh vegetables as they are plentiful in the markets: lettuce, tomatoes, corn, and cucumbers are coming on in good supply. Broiler-fryers and turkeys offer low cost and versatile eating now. Beef cuts will go up as the wholesale prices are rising. Watch for good buys in pork cuts, also smoked picnics and hams. As for sugar, prices are lowering as predicted.

Couple is Welcomed At Church Reception

Friends greeted Mr. and Mrs. W. John Thomas at a public reception given in their honor Thursday evening, July 11, in the scoial rooms of the First Christian church. Mrs. Thomas is remembered as the former Leta Humphreys, who with Mr. Thomas left Heppner following their marriage last summer to spend the winter months in California and Arizona. They returned to their home here this spring.

Hostesses for the occasion were members of the Christian Women's Guild. The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Knox assisted in greeting guests at the door.

Centering the attractive serving table was a large cake baked in the form of a cross decorated with pink roses and silver leaves. Carrying out the pink and silver color scheme, arrangements of pink rosebuds and tapers in silver candelabra were placed on each side of the cake.

After the cutting of the first piece by the honored couple, the cake was served by Mrs. Loyal R. Parker.

Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mrs. A. J. Chaffee presided at the punch bowl. Pouring at the tea service were Mrs. Frank S. Parker and Mrs. George Gertson. Mrs. Lester Doolittle was in charge of the guest book.

Special guests of the evening were Mr. Thomas' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Gardner of Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Gardner, accompanied by Mrs. Turner, favored the guests with three vocal numbers, "Because," "The Lord's Prayer," and "End of a Perfect Day."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas plan to return south later this year to enjoy the warmer climate during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty attended a meeting of Pacific Northwest retailers of Motorola radio and television at the Hilton hotel in Portland last Friday and returned Saturday. Some 1000 persons were there to see new developments in the line.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Barratt, Mesa, Ariz., arrived in town Monday and plan to spend a month here before going back to Arizona.
