

Henry Clark Services Held in Ione Saturday

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Graveside services were held here Saturday, July 13, for Henry E. Clark, long-time resident of Ione, who died July 11 at Hermiston. Rev. Robert Drews officiated.

Mr. Clark came to Ione in 1898 in company with John Troedson, and had continued to live here until about five years ago, when he moved to Hermiston. He was married to Elizabeth Ganger, who preceded him in death several years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Inez Pomerantz and Valjean Martin, and several grandchildren.

Members of his family who were here for the services were Mrs. Sam Pomerantz of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin and granddaughters of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Fowler of Pendleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Daniels of Seattle, Wn., as well as many friends from Hermiston.

Mrs. James Lindsay entered Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner for major surgery on Monday morning.

Maranatha club met at the church parsonage last Wednesday with Mrs. Walter Crowell as hostess. Fourteen members were present and enjoyed the devotional program, "Hands of Service" presented by Mrs. Crowell.

Melvin Martin arrived home this week-end from Corvallis and will remain until after harvest.

Holland Boy Visits Lundell

Kenneth Lundell and Tonie Cox of Oakland, Calif., are here for a few days vacation visiting Kenneth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lundell. Tonie is from Hoensbroeck, South Lindburg, Holland, and his sponsor is Kenneth, who met him when Kenneth spent several months in Holland two years ago. They flew to Portland and then accompanied Mrs. Beulah Lundell to Ione.

Buildings Improved For Umatilla Fair

HERMISTON—Visitors to the Umatilla County Fair August 14-17 will find improvements in the physical plant in addition to the construction of the 20x24 foot concrete office building which was first occupied last week.

Horselovers will find a new judges' stand at the arena where afternoon horse shows will be held. New gate posts have been set in the arena fence to facilitate opening.

A 12x12 foot first aid station has been set up at the side of the second exhibit building in from the gate. Kem Tellefson, fair board chairman, said Friday this is its permanent location.

The Peace Pipe Museum occupies the first exhibit building and its Roger Bounds Indian collection and pioneer items will attract many visitors. Ventilation and air conditioning have been improved by construction of vents in the roof and relocating the coolers that have been used previously.

"The old wood frame office building is now the new tool room which has been needed for several years," Tellefson said.

Meeting is Postponed

Willows Grange HEC meeting planned for Sunday, July 21, at the mountain cabin of Mrs. Vida Heliker has been postponed. Mrs. Heliker received a poisonous bite while working around the cabin early this week, requiring medical attention. Another date will be announced later for the meeting.
