PEOPLE STILL taking-off for vacations . . . some camping and others going visiting. We vacationed last week-end with several other parents at the Little League games with Little Leagueers in tow. The weather cooperated and we introduced the boys to the bowling bug. I'm quite sure it "caught!" In fact even with a baseball game that night we could hardly get them to stop bowling. The manager of the lanes was quite accommodating and let the boys use the shoes rent-free. The lads doubled up on the lines for a very good time. Some future business for our new bowling lanes!

RHEA CREEK grange HEC met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harold Wright. The group has planned a clean-up at the grange hall today (Thursday) in readiness for the Pomona grange meeting to be held there Saturday, July 27, starting at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, August 11, has been set for the annual grange picnic and will be held at Chapin creek starting at 1 p.m. All members and their families are invited to attend. Those present for the meeting were Pearl Wright, Mary Wright, Evelyn Farrens, Marge Graves, Ann Bergstrom, Doris Graves, Claudine Warren and daughter Joan, Marilyn Bergstrom, Beth Clark, Hannah Anderson, Muriel Palmer, Lynn Haguewood and children, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Leonard Hill, and Mrs. Ray Drake.

SPEAKING OF vacations, the Harold Evans have had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Al Long and three children, friends and neighbors of Glenn and Evonne Nyman of Huntington, N. Y. They are thoroughly enjoying our area and have spent most of the time on Camas Prairie at the Ralph Jackson place helping the Evans do their haying. Long is an advertising agent for radio sponsors. This is their first trip west of Denver, Colo., and they plan to travel south into California before heading back to their home.

INEZ HUFFMAN entertained two tables of bridge Wednesday afternoon with guests Beth Bryant, Lucille Wilson, Helen Cohn, Lois Hunt, Gena Leonard, Juanita Carmichael, and Hester Creswick. Lucille won high, Gena was second, and Lois was low.

GLADYS BECKETT won high at pinocle club Friday afternoon with Millie Evans entertaining. Millie took low and shared the pinocle with Hannah Anderson. Quite an afternoon! Others playing were Beulah Mankin, Mary Harris, Doris Watkins, Pearl Wright, and Carrie Beckett. An afternoon of fun, but all had very low scores!

HOW MANY things have you left at home when going on a vacation? Well, this year I did pretty good but last year at The Dalles, I left the dish washing soap and salt and bread! Luckily the trailer park was near a store. Now, in the case of the Gordon Pratt family, last week, LaFyne told Gordon to take a trial run with the loaded car down as far as Hager's Dairy while she stayed home to remember all they had forgotten! It seems every time that they get just that far when something forgotten is remembered!

FOUR BRIDGE enthusiasts got together last Thursday afternoon at the home of Helen Cohn, and four other gals decided this was the time to "crash" the party and make it a two-table session! The "originals" were Inez Huffman, Ella Smith, Lucille Wilson, and Helen. The "crashers" were Virginia Rosewall, Gena Leonard, Juanita Carmichael, and Marjorie Worden. Ella won high; Helen, second; Juanita, Jack high; and Gena, low.

HERE IS a quick and easy cool dessert for hot summer meals. It comes to me from Mrs. Paul (Claudine) Warren and she was given the recipe from Mrs. Tom (Neva) Wells, now living in Vancouver, Wn. Claudine says she doubles it for her family of six. 1 pkg. Kool-Aid
1 cup sugar
2 cups milk
1 cup heavy cream
Dissolve Kool-Aid and sugar in milk and pour into freezing trays to freeze about 1 hour or until slushy. Whip cream (well chilled) until stiff; add frozen mixture to whipped cream, whip just enough to mix well and return quickly to tray and freeze. Makes over one quart. For variety add fresh crushed berries or other fruit.

Mother's Club Plans Family Picnic Aug. 4

Annual summer picnic for members of Heppner Mother's club and their families will be held Sunday, August 4, according to Mrs. Anita Stockard, chairman. Families will travel to Bull Prairie park after church hours and are asked to take picnic supplies for a late afternoon meal. Members will take up a few matters of business, discussing ideas for the fair booth and the float, two of the main club projects for the year.

The Jim Driscolls are home following a week's stay at the coast vacationing with the Bill Collins. The LaVerne Van Marters left Sunday to spend this week with the Collins.

Phyllis Nelson Reports on Busy Meet

Phyllis Nelson returned July 14 from a busy, but exciting week at the 1963 national meeting of Future Homemakers of America in Kansas City, Mo. Phyllis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Nelson of Lexington, was one of 10 delegates from Oregon who, accompanied by two advisors, went east by train to attend the annual meeting.

PHYLLIS NELSON

Delegates were present from each state of the United States, except Alaska, and from Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. In all, there were over 10,000 chapters represented, totaling a membership of around 550,000 future homemakers.

Headquarters for the meetings were in the Kansas City Municipal Auditorium, with the delegates living nearby in Mulbach and Tours Hotel. Reviewing the busy schedule of events which kept all of the 1500 teenage delegates and their advisors happy and busy, Phyllis radiated enthusiasm on high-lights which made the trip especially meaningful to her. Speeches by nationally famous leaders, participation in discussion and workshop groups on problems relative to young people, helping in presentation of relaxer programs with the Oregon delegation, taking tours and the making of many new friends proved invaluable experiences to the Morrow county delegate. The delegation was greeted by former President Harry S. Truman on the second day of the sessions. Guest speaker on the first day's opening session was Mrs. Stephen Udall, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C., who spoke on the convention theme, "Your Home—A Key to the Future." Also on the program was Dr. Richard Klemmer, author and visiting associate professor of home economics at the University of Washington in Seattle. Tours included that of the Betty Rose Suit and Coat Manufacturing Co. in Kansas City, and a trip to Pres. Truman's home. They attended the Starlight outdoor theater where they saw the stage play, "Carnival," starring Al Hurt. On the trip home they toured the Museum of Natural Arts in Denver, Colo., during a four-hour stopover.

Going from this area, besides Phyllis, were Dena Tellefson of Hermiston, state FHA president, and Joan Speckhart of LaGrande, district FHA chairman. Advisors attending were Miss Estelle Van Cleave, state advisor from the state department of education, and Miss Jeanette Roake, chapter advisor from Newport.

Guests a few days at the Harold Evans home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Al Long and three children, all of Huntington, N. Y. They left Tuesday, going to California and other points on their way home. They are neighbors of the Evans' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nyman.

Mrs. Glen Nyman and daughters, Judy and Robin, visited the past month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans. Mrs. Nyman left Wednesday for her home in Huntington, N. Y., but the girls will remain until school starts in the fall.

Methodist Classes Disband for Month

Heppner Methodist church is again following the practice of disbanding Sunday School classes during the month of August, Mrs. Doug Drake, superintendent, announces. Regular worship service hour will continue from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m., but class periods which usually follow will not be held during the coming month.

Classes will start again Sunday, September 1, with a special Rally Day program on September 8.
