WHAT IS more fun than picking peaches with the whole family, grandma and grandpa included, and eating until you are stuffed? All bundle out of the car, some laden with buckets, and head for what is the "best" tree only to discover just a little farther on there is a tree with bigger and better peaches! And so it goes for an afternoon, everyone going for the best ones in all directions. After a week of fresh peaches at every meal, they are still the "most!"

IT IS canning time, the apricots are nearly gone in the area but still time for peaches and apples. Have you tried canning apricots with pineapple? They add a delicious taste. Peaches are now available and will continue for the next month and into September. I usually wait for later peaches as our family likes the canned flavor of these peaches. Rachel Dick told me about a quick way of adding the sugar in cold pack canning of fruits. She and Frances Smith (former Heppnerite) tried it for several years and they like it as well as the syrup method. They add the sugar and water directly to each quart of fruit, using the same proportion in mixing the heavy, medium or light syrup, to suit your families' taste.

FOUR TABLES of duplicate bridge were in play Tuesday night at the Elks lodge with Jim and Bobbie Driscoll winning high. Karen Thompson and Gwen Huff were second; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fortner, Boardman, were third. The duplicate unit party will be Tuesday, August 5, at the Elks lodge starting at 8 p.m. The next regular duplicate bridge night is set for August 12 at the lodge.

PEARL WRIGHT entertained the Friday afternoon pinocle club with all the members playing. Scores ran high during the play with Millie Evans taking high with a total of 12,090! Some cards! The double pinocle was held 15 times before Mary Harris and Hannah Anderson finally hung onto it. Carrie Beckett won low and others playing were Gladys Beckett, Beulah Mankin, and Doris Watkins.

BEULAH MANKIN last week said she was painting her basement floor, so I asked her this week if she had finished. She said she had and it only took seven days! You know, paint one part and move things to paint another. She almost painted herself into a corner but the paint was quick drying so she was able to get out.

THREE TABLES of duplicate bridge were in play Friday night at the home of June Bellendbrook. Members playing were Kay Robinson, Bebe Munkers, Elsie Cole, Lorine Ledbetter, Mildred Davidson, Lucia Cutsforth, Gena Leonard, and Mary McLeod. Filling in were Lillian Sweet, Edda Mae Lovgren, and Mary Jean McCabe. Mildred and Bebe won high east-west and June and Elsie were high north-south. The girls will get together on the third Friday next month with Elsie doing the entertaining.

A REMINDER for those girls interested in entering the "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest: they must be between the ages of 13 and 21. They are divided into three groups, according to age; and the garment must be made of 100 percent wool loomed in America. Entry blanks may be obtained at the county agent's office. Mrs. Bob Hoskins is in charge of the Umatilla-Morrow district this year. For more information you may write her at Gibbon, Oregon.

CAROLYN COLE entertained two tables of pinocle Tuesday night with Donna Gordon having high for the evening. Gail Burkentine was low and Joyce Phigley had the pinocle. Others playing were Marge Eckman, Mickey Mollahan, Jackie Allstott, and Beverly Sherman.

MORE PINOCLE in the air Tuesday night as Mary Lovgren had two tables in play. Members playing were Flo Connor, Lillian Key, Jeanne Berry, Marlys Phogley, Judy Buschke, Bonnie Buschke, and Phyllis Piper, filling in for Bobby Angell. Flo won high and with sister, Lillian, melded 1,000 aces to also win the traveling prize! Lillian won second, Jeanne, pinocle; and Phyllis, low.

THE EVERETT Harshmans and Claude Buschkes returned Sunday after a two week's trip to Alaska. They all agreed that they had a wonderful time and the weather was good. They flew into a lake and camped for four days getting in lots of fishing, and visited Harshman's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harshman, and family at Ketchikan. They also brought the senior Harshman's daughter, Teresa, home. She had been visiting in Ketchikan for several weeks. Sounds like a wonderful vacation spot!

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sherman and family visited in Hermiston Saturday and Sunday with the Darrell Power family.

Kinzua Foreman, Wife Honored at Farewell

KINZUA—A large crowd gathered at Jeffere Hall last Friday evening for a potluck dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bird who are retiring August 1 and moving to Prineville. After a bountiful meal, Allen Nistad as master of ceremonies, called upon several of the couples' long-time friends to say a few words, after which the man of the sawmill presented Howard with an ice chest and tackle box completely stocked with fishing tackle. Mr. Nistad then presented them with a pair of sleeping bags from the foreman and office personnel.

Mr. Bird thanked the men for their gifts stating it was not his wish to retire but doctors orders have forced him to. They have purchased a home in Prineville on Mountainview Avenue across the street from former Kinzua residents, the Ivar Nelsons and Harvey Boyers.

Howard and Iah moved to Kinzua in 1928 and to date he has been the only foreman of the sawmill. Both have belonged to various social and fraternal organizations and have taken an active part in community affairs. Howard was for many years chairman of the school board, and had the pleasure of signing the 8th grade diplomas of their three children, Donald who now lives at Wallowa, Derrel in Kinzua, and Beverly (Mrs. Stuart) Turner of Prineville. They also have six grandchildren.

Out of town relatives here to attend the dinner were Mrs. Frank Bird of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bird and family of Albany.

The Kinzua Womens club had its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon at the Kitchen with Iah Bird and Emalee Long as hostesses to the group. After a short business meeting, a farewell gift was presented to Mrs. Bird who has been a long time member of the club. Refreshments were served and the ladies played games for traveling prizes. Guests of the club for the afternoon were Mrs. Bertha Carey of San Bernardino, Calif., and Mrs. Gilly Hoover.

Ernest Jacobson of Dallas served as master of ceremonies for the luncheon meeting held Sunday afternoon at Bohman's restaurant in Newberg. The occasion also marked the 72nd birthday of Mr. Jacobson.

Many of the group attended the Berrian parade in Newberg on Saturday and entered activities of the Old Timer's Day celebration on Sunday.

Mrs. Hughes spent Saturday night with Mrs. Bill Hughes and children in McMinnville. She made the week-end trip with Mrs. Everett Struckmeier who drove on to Salem to visit her daughter, Janet.

Among those the couple visited were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barratt in Corvallis, and Mr. Barratt's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Heitzel in Salem. They expect to be here at least two weeks before returning to their home in Mesa, Arizona.

Mel Dixons Enjoy Canada Vacation

A week of camping at Postill Lake, near Kelowna, British Columbia, and touring the Canadian Rockies was enjoyed by the Rev. and Mrs. Mel Dixon and daughters, Sharon and Marti. Last week they arrived home early Wednesday morning.

Good fishing was experienced at the lake with the girls landing both the largest and the most fish. A tour to Revelstoke and Glacier parks revealed spectacular scenery.

"I have never seen such grandeur," Rev. Dixon said. The minister is scheduled to leave Friday for Indian Springs camp, near Midford, where he is to be a counsellor for a week. Daughter Marti plans to accompany him. Filling the Methodist church pulpit Sunday at 9 a.m. will be the Rev. Bill Alsop, pastor of the Assembly of God church.
