Speeding Car Misses Girl

Little Greta LeBlanc narrowly escaped serious injury last week as she was waiting in front of Carrie's Cafe for the traffic to go by in order to cross the highway. While she was waiting, an east-bound car suddenly swung into the parking lane and came speeding towards the child. Greta saw the car and, jumping out of its way, left her things behind. The car ran over her things, and raced on without stopping. The episode left her parents and several onlookers thoroughly shaken, and leaves many Irrigon citizens wondering what it will take to convince those in authority that the present speed limit of 50 miles per hour through Irrigon should definitely be lowered.

Mrs. Vallis Dexter and daughters of La Grande spent Sunday through Tuesday in Irrigon visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sedelia Dexter, Mrs. and Mrs. Dan Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Graybeal and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shingledecker of McNary have been caring for their grandchildren, Ricky and Randy Shingledecker, while the boys' mother, Mrs. Dale Shingledecker, Jr., has been a patient at Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston. Just before coming to Irrigon, Randy injured his leg, requiring 30 stitches inside and out to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Olmscheid and family moved to St. Helens over the week-end, where Olmscheid will be a principal in the school system.

Mrs. Art Creamer, who is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Creamer and family in Ogden, Utah, fell and broke her wrist recently.

BOBBY BUCHANAN is Irrigon representative in Gazette-Times subscription campaign. Phone 922-3681. Campaign ends this Saturday, 6 p.m.
