YES, ANOTHER week has disappeared and I wonder where they go so quickly! I visited with a cousin and his wife last week and asked her if time seemed to hurry by for them in Montana. Their children are still too young to be in school, 4-H, baseball and such activities, but she said it seems time eludes them, too! Guess we are just living at too fast a pace. At times I would like to do as it says in the song, "Stop the World and Let Me Off." Or at least slow things up a bit. Oh well, just admit it, we're getting old!

MRS. PAUL (Kathleen) Hiler entertained the wives of directors of the Pendleton Production and Credit Association at a luncheon at her home last Friday afternoon. Her guests included Mrs. Myron Hug, Sommerville; Mrs. Charles Litch, Enterprise; Mrs. Orval McCormack, Pendleton; Mrs. Walter Moore, Pendleton; Mrs. James Southern, Pendleton; Mrs. Ralph Saylor, Echo; Mrs. Bill Barratt and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Heppner. Mrs. Barratt's husband is with the Spokane association and Mrs. Thompson's husband was a former director of the Pendleton association.

THE BRIDGE BIDDIES got into the swing of play again last Tuesday after a month's vacation with Donna Gordon entertaining the girls. Making up the two tables were Mary Jean McCabe, Mary McClure, Mary McLeod, Janina Johnson, Jan Agee, LaFyrne Pratt, Marian Jonasson, and guest Karen Thompson. Marian won high and Karen won the second high prize. Mary McLeod won the travelling prize. A fruit dessert in hollowed out cantaloupe was served along with gallons of iced tea to help combat the hot weather!

SPEAKING OF Donna Gordon she was telling me about her mother and sister's first visit to our fair city last week. They thought it was cute and was quite awed with the hills and houses built on them with retaining walls! You know the Ontario country is nothing but flat land. They didn't appreciate their trip over Franklin Hill—hills and more hills, said they hoped there was another way home! Do come back again for another stay!

FLO CONNOR and 1,000 aces seem to go together as she came up with them two pinochle nights in a row! She also won high last Tuesday night with Lillian Key entertaining two tables of pinochle. Marlys Phegley won second and Jackie Alstott, pinochle, and she was a partner to the 1,000 Aces. Others playing were Jeanne Berry, Sherrie McDaniel, Mary Lovgren, Bonnie Buschke.

FIVE TABLES were in play last Tuesday at the Elks duplicate bridge unit party. The Howell movement was used in the scoring with Phil and Hazel Mahoney winning high. Jerry Jonasson and Gordon Pratt won second; Elsie Cole and Isabelle Davis Condon, third; Phyllis Hutchens and Laurel Van Marter, fourth. Next unit party will be the first week in September and next twice monthly play is August 27.

THE FRANK Hamilins entertained with a barbecue dinner Sunday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hengstler, Mrs. Belle Jonsrud, Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Barratt, and Mrs. Elaine George.

HERMISTON ELKS held their monthly Master point duplicate bridge play Monday night and those going from here were Bill and Daisy Collins, Jerry Jonasson, and LaVerne Van Marter. LaVerne and Daisy teamed up to win second place.

TO WIN high at the Friday Afternoon Pinochle club all you have to do is be the hostess! For three times in a row that has happened and this week it was Beulah Mankin's turn to entertain and win! And not only did she win high but with Pearl Wright she won the pinochle and Carrie Beckett won low. Others playing were Doris Watkins, Mary Harris, Gladys Beckett, Millie Evans, and Hannah Anderson.

TANA BERRY, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berry, celebrated her birthday party last Thursday on the courthouse lawn. Guests included Kimmy, Kralg, and Kathy Cutsforth; Tina and Tracie Connor; Becky, Wendy, Marilyn and Beverly Phegley; Christy and Kimmy Haguewood; David Alstott, Pat Lovgren, Brian Buschke, Brenda Huff, Nola Steers, Suzanne, Robin, and Harry O'Donnell and their mothers. The youngsters enjoyed cake and ice cream and as always, the magic time of opening the gifts.

Britt-Foyden Wedding Ceremony Performed August 10 in Spray

PERGY Jean Britt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. Britt of Spray, became the bride of James Robert Foyden, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Foyen of Fossil, on Saturday, August 10.

The 2 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. D. E. Westerfield at the Assembly of God church. Theme of the decorations carried out the use of flowered parasols in bouquets of the bride and her attendants.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of white brocade with a shoulder length veil of illusion net. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Raelene Britt, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kathy Foyen, sister of the groom, and Mary Jo Britt, cousin of the bride.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Glenn Spivey of Kinzua. Candlelighters were Donna Rae Britt, sister of the bride, and Edith Foyen, sister of the groom.

Best man was Pete Berry, brother-in-law of the groom. Serving as ushers were Rodney Mabe and Jack Dunn.

The couple greeted their friends at a wedding reception immediately following in the church parlor. Pouring were Mrs.

LeNona Schoonover and Mrs. Sue Berry. Attending the gift table was Linda Chapman, and Mrs. Arlene Helms was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left on a short wedding trip and for her going away the bride chose a beige suit.

They will make their home in Kinzua.

Money receipt books in duplicate and triplicate are on sale at the Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Fred Mankin and granddaughter, Sharon Bunch, left Tuesday for a few days in Portland. On Saturday they will meet a grandson, Donald Mankin, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Tuller, both of Detroit, Mich. They will return to Heppner Sunday with Mrs. Mankin and visit until Tuesday when they will fly home from Pasco, Wn.

It pays to advertise in the Gazette-Times.
